...ronation of Whitby at the ...Court of the ...County of Ontario held at Uxbridge on Friday last, Charles ...ley, the ...Charles Watson, executors of the estate of Eleanor Forsythe, deceased, brought action against William Yake and Albert E. Yake for $408.30, on a Promissory Note dated May ...1932, and ...payable six months after date with interest at 8 per cent per annum.

The evidence disclosed that the original loan of $300.00 was made to William Yake. After the death of Mr. Forsythe in September, 1933, the said Executors demanded settlement from the said William Yake or security and suggested that the said William Yake get his brother and co-defendant to back the note. Accordingly Mr. Forsyth and William Yake went to the premises of the defendant Albert E. Yake, one evening in November, 1933, and requested the said Albert E. Yake to back the note which they stated was for $300.00. Yake signed the note in the usual way after which some discussion then took place as to the length of the time the executors would give makers for payment and one year was suggested.

The note was not paid and action accordingly followed. Wm. did not defend the action but Albert E. Yake defended and through his Solicitors pleaded that the note had been signed after maturity without any consideration and on these facts and the law His Honour Judge Coleman dismissed the action against Albert E. Yake.

E. J. Button, K.C. acted for Albert E. Yake and W. E. Gray of Uxbridge represented the executors.

that the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. Davey, Main street, would be the mecca for scores of friends last Monday afternoon and evening for it was the occasion of this happy couple's 50th wedding anniversary. The bride and groom of 50 years ago are widely known and active in the community life, that their circle of friends has ever widened as the years roll by. About 195 guests called during the afternoon and evening to congratulate Mr. and Mrs. Davey.

Mrs. Davey

Those who assisted with the reception included Mrs. H. L. Button, Mrs. C. E. McLeod, Mrs. H. B. Fred and Mrs. S. S. Ball in the afternoon, and in the evening Mrs. George Lee and Misses Ann and Jane Davey, nieces, of Toronto, Mrs. H. J. Malloy admitted the guests.

The home was beautifully decorated with golden daffodils and yellow roses. After being received by the bride and groom of 50 years, guests signed the register and were served tea from a beautifully decorated table. A liberal portion of the wedding cake made by the bride's mother half a century ago, arrested the attention of the many guests.

Mr. Davey was born in England and came to Canada in 1872 and Mrs. Davey was born near Mount Albert. Her father, the late H. W. Woodgate, agent, was the first clerk and treasurer of Stouffville. The well-known Woodgate family of those early days lived west of the railway tracks. As a girl Mrs. Davey recalls assisting her father in his official duties. It was her task to drive with horse and buggy to Markham village to do the banking for the village, and to bring home a considerable sized roll of bills for use of the had first worked for the old firm on the Nipissing later taken over by the G.T.R. This was one other that our J. P. Davey and through a choice of lots the found board and lodging at the home of the Woodgates. Evidently he wasn't there long before he became enamoured with a young daughter in the home. Mrs. Woodgate thought that her daughter Mattie was quite young and counselled delay in their marriage, but as usual Dan Cupid prevailed after a courtship of three years.

Since that day Mr. and Mrs. Davey have remained residents of Stouffville and have contributed liberally of their time and means to numerous worthwhile undertakings. Mrs. Davey was secretary and president of the Stouffville Senior Institute for many years, and is still a member of that active organization. She was also identified in an official capacity with the provincial association.

Mr. Davey too, although for long years leading a retired life, has always been active. He served on the Methodist Church Board, played in the Town Band since his youth. He is also a vice-president of the Railway Veterans Association, Lindsay Branch. For thirty-five years Mr. and Mrs. Davey have resided in the same residence on Main street and have kept a veritable "open house" for their great host of friends over the years.

Locals Outplayed in 9-1 Scoring Spree

The stiff opposition which Aurora believed they had discovered in their own hockey circuit, faded on Monday night as the purple and white handed the home team a 9—1 drubbing right on their own ice, in a Jr. O.H.A. fixture.

Ice conditions were ideal for the fast skating Yonge street squad, whose speed and stickhandling proved a little too much for Stouffville, especially during the last two periods when Aurora notched seven of their nine goals.

In the first period Aurora failed to take an edge on the play, despite their two goal lead, and only the sensational work of Austin in the nets, kept Stouffville off the score sheet. Austin who was the best man on the ice for the locals was outflanked on several occasions after skating through the entire Aurora team. Ken. Russell also accounted for one breakaway rush with Carr lying out on his net, he shot wide. Both two goals by Follet and Michnik, were both from scrambles around the net, leaving Hoover no chance to stop them. There were no penalties in the first period.

Three minutes and 40 seconds of the second period had gone when Aurora scored again for the visitors, three passes directly in front of the net. After about five minutes of play a parade started to penalty-box which saw no less than nine players pile into the cooler in the last fifteen minutes. Collings of Aurora was the first offender, chalking up his first penalty of the season. The Aurora forward had scarcely returned to the ice when husky Gilby went to the bench again. Welsh and Rusnell mixed it up along the boards, starting a free-for-all and before the smoke had cleared there were five players enjoying a rest on the fence, two of them, Austin and Collings for five minutes.

Playing with three men aside there was no score, but with the lines back at full strength McComb, Welsh and Michnik added three more to the Aurora total, while Grosmith and Welsh drew two more penalties for roughing.

Stouffville played hard and deserved a little better end of the score than they received, but it was quite apparent that they were definitely outskated and outplayed in the last period.
