Mrs. David Snider is spending a few weeks in Aurora at the home of Mrs. Will March.

Uxbridge Hockey League concluded their schedule on Tuesday night, as was the local Junior O.H.A. round.

Mr. Norman Baker, local boy filling the teller's cage at the Bank of Commerce will go to King City on Monday, on a three-weeks relieving job.

You can receive The Family Herald and Weekly Star for 75c per year, or four years for only $2.00, through The Tribune. A canvasser is reported to be offering this special in the district with the assurance that it cannot be obtained from any other source. The rates quoted have been in effect with this paper for over a year. Reserve your order for The Tribune who is on the spot to make good the subscription in the event of difficulty.

A total of $6,396.69 was raised by the Stouffville United Church, and its organizations in the year 1938 according to the Financial Statement issued last week. Of this sum $1,463.18 was apportioned to the Missionary and Maintenance, $3,363.23 to local purposes. Of the organizations listed the Women's Missionary Society made returns to the figure of $433.73, which included a bale valued at $100. The membership of the church was increased by 12 over the past year, and stands at 342. Six members were removed by death in the twelve months. Perhaps the youngest organization of the church, the C.G.I.T. group made possibly the greatest strides in 1938. Led by three of the local school teachers, Miss E. Hogg, Miss R. Miller and Miss M. Hostrawser, the membership has risen to 40 with receipts during the year totalling $77.45. The girls are affiliated with the W.M.S. and aim to train themselves for better Christian service in the community and to open up new horizons.

Regular meeting of Markham Township Council next Monday, February 6.

Mr. Donald Moyer was home from MacMaster University, visiting with his parents for a few days last week.

Stouffville curlers took a return match against Locust Hill, in the district tournament, last Friday night. Stouffville Club have yet to lose a game in this schedule.

After six years on the local staff of the Bank of Nova Scotia, Mr. Jim Lawson is being transferred to the branch at Belmont in the London district. Jim left high school here to enter the bank as junior clerk but later he became the obliging teller.

Whitchurch hockey league games scheduled for this Thursday night will be Lemonville and Vandorf; Bloomington and King City. The local bush-league schedule is getting well advanced and is beginning to create considerable interest in Whitchurch circles. Come out and see the boys on Thursday night.

The annual meeting of the Presbyterian congregation in Stouffville postponed because of severe weather last week, will be held this Friday in the church. The gathering will assemble at 6.30 when supper will be served to be followed by reports from the various organizations telling of the year's activities.

Our elderly east end citizen Eli Stouffer advertised a half ton of pop corn for sale through the daily press, but he informs us that he didn't sell a pound. Probably the great quantity frightened off the buyers, who must be few who would buy in any great quantity. Anyway the results leaves Mr. Stouffer with a real crop problem where he hasn't made expenses for the year.

The Wideman Marble and Granite Works advertised for sale in this issue is no doubt the longest established business in Stouffville. It is well over 60 years since it was moved from Ringwood to town, for the present owner Mr. L. C. Wideman who is now 87, was only a youth. He may be seen daily still at the marble shop, which is managed by his daughter Miss Cora since the death of Bart. A marble cutter has been engaged to do the mechanical work, and the long established business is well booked with spring orders. Whoever buys the business should enjoy a steady patronage that is not harassed with cut-throat opposition.

Attend the Veterans' Skating Party on Wednesday, Feb. 8th.

The town of Elora has endorsed a bylaw the vote of the people to raise $12,000 for a new high school addition.

Miss K. Houston, former member of the Continuation school staff was the guest of Miss Gertrude Todd over Sunday.

The fact that Attorney-General Conant believes there should be a general shifting around of our Sunday observance laws is not sufficient. He should make certain that a great many other people think the same way.

Mrs. Frank Miller is offering for sale some choice pieces of household furniture on the market square this Friday afternoon at two o'clock. Beds, stands, chairs and general household articles, also rugs and carpets. Terms of sale will be cash. A. S. Farmer, auctioneer.

The town of Collingwood has made application to be placed under the care of the Department of Municipal Affairs, the town having become insolvent. Guaranteeing the bonds of a new elevator for $800,000 is credited with sinking the municipality, said bonds having fallen in arrears.

Miss "Ted" Hoover was out from Toronto over Sunday visiting her parents Mr. and Mrs. Lud Hoover. Miss Hoover is secretary-treasurer of Stouffville Old Boys in Toronto, and informs us the organization is looking forward to a large turnout at the annual banquet next Saturday evening in Haddon Hall.

Dickson Hill Mills is looking forward to celebrating its centenary in only three years. The business was started in 1842, and of recent years has been enormously expanded under the direction of Mr. Alex. Jones, proprietor. In a young country like ours, it is given to few concerns to see one hundred years of business.

Owing to the very cold weather on Wednesday night of last week when the thermometer dropped around 16 to 20 below, the annual meeting of Stouffville United Church was cancelled. A new date for the meeting will be announced shortly we understand from the pastor of the church. It was intended to hold a pot luck supper after which reports for the year would be presented by the various officials.—Note, the date is now set for February 8.

A most interesting municipal battle has been going on up in Simcoe County in the Township of Essa. At the regular January election the two candidates George Banting and Frank Higginson polled a tie vote for the reeveship. The deputy returning officer refused to cast a deciding ballot because of some irregularity. A new election was ordered and the result nearly came out a tie for the second time, Banting winning, however by three votes, 758 to 755. Now a recount is likely.

There is a lot of time spent by public men decrying and ranting about fascism, communism, and all the other "isms," who might be better employed in doing something to improve the working of capitalism if it is to survive. If governments and big business would apply the golden rule to our own financial system we would not need to worry about the inroads of other systems. Trouble is, capitalism has become such a game of the rich get richer and the poor poorer that popular support is falling from it.

Stouffville Old Boys and Girls Association will hold their annual banquet on Saturday evening of this week, (Feb. 4), at Haddon Hall, corner of Madison Ave., and Bloor West, Toronto. The banquet will start at 7 to be followed by a program of varied interest. Prof. Frank Underhill will be one of the speakers, also Morgan Baker, M.L.A., Mrs. Warrington will sing, and other numbers will be given. It is expected that several car loads of people will attend from town. The admission is 75c.

Dr. S.T. and Mrs. Bodendistel attended the annual convention of the Ontario Veterinary Association held at the Royal York Hotel last Thursday and Friday. Dr. Bodendistel heard some very instructive and illuminating addresses on some of the problems confronting the profession.

James Brodie shipped six breeding ewes from his famous flock to Wisconsin, U.S.A. last week. The animals left by C.N.R. express, two in a crate. As with humans, so is it among sheep, two in a crate. is appreciated and so they do better in pairs on a journey of this kind.

Bruce County Council has petitioned the Ontario government for a closed season for deer hunting in that county. No doubt the request will be acceded to as the councillors should be in a good position to know how past the fleet footed runners are deminishing.

10 acres of hardwood bush will be offered for sale today (February 2) at lot 28, con. 9, Whitchurch, belonging to Geo. Paradine. A second wood sale will be held on Saturday the 4th at lot 16, con. 6, Uxbridge, the Lintin bush now owned by F. W. Betz of Stouffville. This is a golden chance to buy a wood lot which is not frequently offered these days.

When we told a man on Stouffer street that one of his neighbors was reported to have had one ear frozen while in bed that terrible night of January 25, the neighbor expressed no wonderment at all. He said, "I am not surprised because the hot water bottle I took to bed was frozen too." Not to be outdone by the east enders a man on Victoria street declared that the tea kettle of water on his stove froze quite solid and there was a fire in the stove most of the night.

Commenting on the opening of parliament Miss Agnes MacPhail said a lot of time is wasted in reading the address from the throne first in English then in French. "Why not read half in one language and half in another," she observes. To this we add the question, "Why not read it in English and let it go at that?" Tacking everything up in two languages is costing the King Government millions of dollars every year, and its a time a halt was called. After all this is an English-speaking Canada, or is it?

Stouffville Junior O.H.A. team ran into a difficult situation at Aurora on Friday night, when they landed there for a scheduled game without a goalkeeper. This young gentleman had, it is reported, secured himself a position for the night with the Stouffville Senior squad playing at Markham, and left his own team stranded. Harold Morden came to the rescue and filled the gap between the Junior goal-posts, for his first attempt at goal-keeping. The game was cut down to fifteen minute periods owing to the rather difficult situation under which the visitors were playing. Game ended Aurora 8, Stouffville 0.

Keep next Wednesday, Feb. 8 open for the Veterans' Skating Party in the Stouffville Arena. Tickets are now on sale for the four lucky draws to take place that night. There will be three adult prizes and one for the children. Band in attendance.

The auction sale of household furniture belonging to the estate of the late Elias Lehman announced for last Friday afternoon, was cancelled at the last moment, and the folks who gathered were as disappointed as a jilted bridegroom left standing at the altar. Auctioneer Farmer informed the public that the event in this case would come off probably later in the spring, but in the meantime he had orders to "cease fire" as it were just when the first gun was about to be sounded.
