Vandorf

The "Weatherman" has given us a good share of snow. Many sidelines that are much traveled are closed at time of writing while our bakers, and local merchant, were compelled to travel many extra miles out of their road last week. Our farmers who have to depend on "Dobbin" would appreciate a little more snow left on the 4th and highways. It was reported that the temperature stood at 20 below last Thursday morning.

Relatives and friends here, of Mrs. William March of Aurora were shocked to learn of her death early on Sunday morning, from pneumonia which followed a cold recently. Our sympathy goes out to the bereaved husband and family.

The Ladies' Aid will be held at the home of Mrs. Herbert Oliver on Wednesday of this week.

Our church goes found different ways to get there, some walked through deep snow some distance, others chose the horse and cutter and the rest managed to get there with cars, some with difficulty. Mr. Smith of the "West" who has been visiting relatives here assisted our choir Sunday morning.

MRS. C. W. BOGART DIES IN 92nd YEAR

Margaret Bogart, widow of C. W. Bogart, Newmarket, died last week at the home of her granddaughter, Mrs. M. F. Templeton, Glenlake Ave. She was in her 92nd year and had been ill only a few days. She was born in Whitechurch, but lived for many years in Newmarket.

Surviving, in addition to Mrs. Templeton, are her daughter, Mrs. J. L. Mallory and her granddaughters, Mrs. W. C. Pollard, Uxbridge and Mrs. W. J. Boyd, Oshawa.

Altona

The discussion group will meet this Thursday evening in the church. This is the meeting announced for a week ago but was postponed owing to bad weather.

On Friday evening, Feb. 10, the Young People of Green River will present their play entitled "Memories" in the Altona School. This sounds good and will no doubt attract a nice crowd.

The regular monthly meeting of the Altona Institute will be held at the home of Mrs. Milton Harris on Wednesday, Feb. 8, at 2 o'clock. The motto is smiles and sunshine needed in the winter time. This is the reason I have pleased to be my Valentine. The roll call will be answered by each member bringing their favorite pattern of a rug or quilt. Ms. S. McKay will give a paper on "How good Wares make quick Market." Mrs. J. McCreight will also give a paper on the subject, "Canadianization." The program will be in charge of group 6 with Mrs. A. Carruthers, leader. The Institute at its last meeting heard a very instructive address given by Mr. Reg. Button on "Laws Affecting Women and Children" and at this time they publicly thank Mr. Button.

STUDIO CLUB

The Studio Club held their second meeting of the season on Friday evening, at the home of T. W. Eagleson, Toronto, with sixteen members present.

Mary Henderson (president) was in the chair and after the business meeting a short program of modern piano music was given by Marjorie Pearson, Dorothy Flannery, Lenore Baker, Campel Pearson, and Murry Oster, from the works of Debussy, Glazounow, Palmgren Levitzki and Dennee.

Marguerite Bishopam gave a brief talk on Bach, and Mary Grace Irwin on Handel. Games, contests, and refreshments concluded the evening.

Cedar Grove school teacher and pupils entertained the neighbouring schools, namely: Box Grove, Hillside, Locust Hill to a skating party at Cedarena on Friday afternoon last. Lunch with coffee was served.

Such cute little snowdrifts settled themselves around the country on Monday stopping as much traffic as possible, especially one car which only got a short distance along the Scarborough townline. The driver had to borrow a bed for the night. I'm sure if any of the fine gentlemen around had known of this fair damsel's plight nothing would have stopped them, not even snow.

The many friends of Walter Henderson will be glad to hear he is slowly improving after a severe attack of pneumonia, which almost proved fatal. We hope he will soon be well again.

Don't forget the Young People's meeting on Tuesday, February the 7th, in the M.B.C. church, when Rev. Levi Atkinson of Stouffville United Church will give a missionary address. Everybody welcome.

The ladies of this vicinity are very busy quilting these days. We think they must be preparing for more of that stormy weather we experienced last week, or perhaps they are preparing for some joyous occasion in the not too distant future.

We were very sorry to hear that Mr. Elmore Evans from the third line had the misfortune of having his hand severely injured while operating a root pulper. It required some thirty stitches or more to close the wound.

The short course in Agriculture and Home Economics came to a close on Friday evening of last week, when members of the course and their friends gathered in the community hall at Victoria Square for a banquet. A very enjoyable evening was reported by all who attended.

We feel grateful to our weatherman in giving us a more congenial type of winter after a period of the stern storm, old time kind we had years ago. So lest we might forget we are reminded occasionally to brace up and accept it as it comes, for after all there is no place, quite as good as our Canada.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Sheffer of Collingwood district are spending some time with their daughters Mrs. P. Steckley of Almira and Mrs. E. Steckley of Victoria Square, as well as many other relatives and friends in this community. They were at one time residents of this place.

Following an illness of two or three years Willard Slack passed away on January 26, at his farm home north of Goodwood. Born in Uxbridge Township he had spent all his life in the neighborhood. For eleven years he resided on the place where he died, and was regarded as a successful farmer and a fine citizen. He supplied the community with milk which could always be relied on for its quality.

A son of James Slack of Altona Willard married Maud Baker in 1906. Besides his sorrowing wife there survives two daughters, Mrs. Lemon Clark of Goodwood, and Miss Jean at home. Brothers of the deceased are James of Stouffville, Manual, Joseph, Albert, Freeman, and one sister Miss Ellen J.

In politics deceased was a Conservative and in religion a Baptist. The funeral on Saturday afternoon took place to Goodwood Baptist church, thence to Goodwood cemetery. Rev. Mr. Ostrum conducted the service.

The Irwin home at Island Lake was sorely saddened ten days ago when the baby son of Mr. and Mrs. Wilbert Irwin died suddenly. It was their first born and the little fellow suffered from convulsions, although previous to this was a fine healthy baby of six months.
