Ringwood

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph McKenzie are spending a few days with Mr. and Mrs. Don. Wilson.

The roads in this district are very icy and driving is most dangerous.

A great number of our citizens are confined to their beds with the flu.

Mrs. Ed. Logan visited her brother Job Scott of Toronto over the weekend. Job is a member of the Toronto police force.

Miss Norma Peck of Toronto spent a few days recently with her parents Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Peck.

Gormley

Mrs. George Watson of Buffalo, N.Y. is staying with her mother Mrs. Annie Storm who is ill at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Jones. Mrs. Rye of Toronto also visited her mother Mrs. Storm over the weekend.

Misses Evelyn and Dorothy Gooding of St. Catherines spent Sunday at the home of their parents Mr. and Mrs. A. T. Gooding.

Mr. and Mrs. Peter Stickley of Almira were entertained at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Roy A. Brillinger on Sunday.

Mr. Oliver Lehman a former resident of Gormley passed away at the Woodstock Hospital. The funeral service at Heise Hill Church Thursday afternoon at 2.00 o'clock. Mr. Lehman will be remembered by the older residents and is a brother of Mr. J. S. Lehman who is now residing with his son at Claremont.

Miss Mary Thompson is spending several weeks with her sister Mrs. Sutton of Mount Dennis since the recent death of their father Mr. Jabez Thompson.

Goodwood

Mr. and Mrs. E. Beacock are preparing to move to their newly leased place near Greenbank.

Mr. Wm. Henderson has had another slight stroke and has very little use of one of his hands, although able to be out around. Mr. W. Bryan is helping him attend to his poultry.

Mr. Thomas Dowswell has been under the weather since last Friday having suffered from numerous dizzy spells, but we understand he is improving and we hope he will soon be out around again.

Some more moving—Mr. Wilfred Hubbard who is drawing the Lindsay cream-truck is removing to Uxbridge and Mr. W. Bryant is moving into the house vacated by Mr. Hubbard.

Mr. Delbert Cooper took sick Sunday night with a heavy cold and is now confined to his bed. He is taking good care of himself and as he is young and full of energy he will soon be able to be out again.

Goodwood Red Shirts met their second defeat by a picked O.H.A. team from Oakwood and Lindsay and called Sunderland. The score was 7-3. Not so bad for the Red Shirts to be beaten by such a crack team.

Our township council consisting of Mr. Robert Ashenurst (reeve), Mr. Edgar Johnston, (deputy reeve), Mr. John Rae, Mr. Walter Beach and Mr. Fred Middleton (councillors) also Mr. Charles Lee, road foreman are attending the good roads convention in Toronto this week.

The funeral of the late Darius Fields was held on Tuesday with interment in Goodwood Cemetery. The sympathy of the community is extended to the relatives and friends. Mr. Fields lived in this vicinity for a considerable number of years.

Our town is reported to have the moving fever and Mr. Schuler will start the ball rolling when he moves into Mrs. Haynes house on the American side of the town. Here he may be more at home, as he was formerly an American citizen. Then Mrs. Willard Slack is coming to occupy the house vacated by Mr. Schuler. Mr. Leamon Clark will take over the residence vacated by Mrs. W. Slack and Mrs. Nettie James moves into the house vacated by Mr. Leamon Clarke. Mr. Edmond Whittleton's hired man is to take up Mr. Roache's house, formerly occupied by Mr. William Brown.

The auction sale at Joseph Norton's farm attracted a big crowd last Wednesday despite the cold weather and heavy roads. The sale totalled $3382.85, indicating good work on the part of auctioneer W. F. Marquis of Uxbridge who is perhaps the most experienced auctioneer in these parts. Billy Marquis has been wielding the auction hammer in the township for some 30 years, and is right in his prime.

CEDAR GROVE

Mr. Terry Lapp of Toronto spent the weekend at his home here.

Don't forget the skating party to be held at Cedarena on Thursday night (tonight). Miss Ella Drudge of Linwood visited over the weekend at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Elias Barkey.

Mr. Willis Reesor we are sorry to say is confined to his bed with an attack of pleurisy. We hope for a speedy recovery. Mrs. George Freeman has returned home from the Wellesley Hospital, Toronto, but we are sorry to learn that she is still in very poor health.

The Rev. Archer Wallace will give an illustrated lecture on "The Romance of Labrador," at Zion Church on Wednesday evening, March 1st, at 8 p.m., under the auspices of the Women's Missionary Society.

We understand that we are to lose one of our very fine neighbors in the near future, Mr. and Mrs. Alf. Wright. Mr. Wright has secured a position at Richmond Hill where he is to take up duties on March 1. We are very sorry to lose these folks from our community but what is our loss is another's gain.

Miss Blanche Atkinson was a weekend guest with Miss Ruth Oliver.

Our school boys hockey team was victorious Friday night playing with Pine Orchard boys score 5-2.

Mrs. Frank Oliver of Imperial, ask, who has been spending part of the winter with her aged mother in Newmarket, spent a few days calling on relatives here last week.

Sorry to receive word about Mrs. Charles Greenwood who fell in Newmarket, fracturing her leg in two places. She is in York County Hospital at time of writing. Mrs. Greenwood has our sympathy and our hope for a speedy mend.

The annual temperance meeting and oratorical contest will be held in Wesley United Church basement on Friday evening, Feb'y 24, at 8 o'clock. A good program will be provided consisting of orations from pupils of different Sunday Schools throughout Whitchurch Township. The winners of this contest may enter the county contest which will be held on Friday evening, March 3rd, at Queensville. Harry West's orchestra will provide the music at Wesley. Rev. Burton Hill of Newmarket will be guest speaker. Mrs. Hill and others will favor the audience with vocal numbers.

Pine Orchard

Mr. and Mrs. James Hope and Betty spent Sunday with Mr. Hope's sister at Willowdale.

Mr. Will Gilroy and nephew spent the weekend with his sister and brother, Mrs. W. Reid and Mrs. S. Gibney.

Mrs. Randall Chapman is visiting at Mongolia.

Mrs. Galley and little girl are spending a few days with Mr. and Mrs. McClure

The Institute meeting held at Mrs. H. McClure's home was well attended.

Mr. P. Hutchinson and Harry Brandon spent Tuesday in London, Ontario.

We are sorry to report Mr. Charles Brandon sr. is in the Newmarket Hospital suffering from severe cuts which he received from a horse when he slipped and fell on the ice.

Word was received on Monday morning of the death of Mrs. Byron Boake, who suffered a stroke while in Church in Stouffville on Sunday morning. Mrs. Boake's death came as a great shock as she was only 46 years, and had been enjoying good health. Our sincere sympathy is extended to Mr. and Mrs. Brandon and family in the loss of their eldest daughter and sister.
