

SPECIAL SPRING PAINT SALE

"A Paint That Suits At A Price That Suits"
UNION QUALITY

15 Colors-- Quick Drying Enamel
14 Colors--
Interior and Exterior House Paint
5 Colors--
Quick Drying Varnish Stain

SALE STARTS APRIL 13, and CLOSES APRIL 22.

SPECIAL PRICES

ENAMELS, VARNISH STAINS

Quarter Pints 15c, Half Pints 25c, Pints 40c
Quarts 75c, Gallons $2.75

HOUSE PAINTS

Pints 34c, Quarts 59c

Goudie's Hardware

Phone 903 Stouffville, Ontario

8th Line Markham

Mrs. Harry Spang spent a few days in Toronto this week.

The W.M.S. of Peachs Church met at the home of Mrs. Kirk on Tuesday afternoon.

Congratulations to Thomas Blizzard who now wears the smile--It's a boy.

Mr. Kergen, medical student of Toronto, and son of Dr. Kergen of Prince Rupert, B.C., is spending the Easter vacation at the home of his cousin, Albert Wideman.

Ivan Leadley moved to the house recently vacated by John Harris. We welcome Mr. and Mrs. Leadley to our community.

Mr. and Mrs. Allan Wideman and Wm. Wideman attended the service at Heise Hill church

Gormley Sunday evening when a visiting choir rendered special Easter music.

Many from this community attended the evangelistic services in the M.B.C. church at Mount Joy which were concluded Sunday night.

The missionary meeting in Wideman Church on Good Friday with services morning, afternoon, and evening was well attended at all the meetings.

A choir from Goshen, Indiana, of over forty voices thrilled a large gathering in the Wideman Church on Tuesday night with their outstanding musical ability.

Thos. Pike who has been employed with Nelson Smith of the 7th line have moved with his family to Hamilton. We are sorry to lose Mr. and Mrs. Pike from the community where they are so well and favorably known

Dickson's Hill

How does it feel to be locked out, Ken?

Miss Lillian Moyer spent the Easter holidays with her aunt Mrs. Abram Raymer in Box Grove.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Hicks, Margaret, Joan and Frank visited with Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Moyer on Easter Monday.

The buzz-saw was making delightful music in our neighborhood this week.

Mr. and Mrs. W. Brooks of Toronto were guests on Sunday at Roy Moyers.

Mr. Bill Grove we understand begun work in the mill this week.

Miss Zeta Burkholder spent a few days this week with her aunt and uncle, Miss Sarah and Mr. Joe Burkholder of Altona.

A few people from here braved the storm to attend Young Peoples' Meeting at Mt. Joy, on Monday evening and enjoyed a very interesting program.

A certain person in our community thinks that we all must have played Rip Van Winkle and slept the summer out. At any rate, we've had winter all over again this week.

Don Moyer and Percy Russell hitch-hiked from Hamilton on Good Friday and spent the day at Harvey Moyer's. Many of you will remember Percy, who spent a number of years in our community in days gone by.

Mr. and Mrs. R. Moyer and family were entertained at A. C. Barkey's on Thursday.

The Dickson's Hill ladies spent a very profitable forenoon one day last week when they held a bee to give the church a spring cleaning. We are glad to note too, some new curtains to divide the Sunday School classes in the gallery.

POTATO DEALER FINED

An Uxbridge potato dealer, who handles thousands of bags every year, was fined $10.00 and costs in Oshawa police court last week for selling potatoes below requirements of No. 1 grade. Inspectors are checking grades closely, hence dealers and farmers will all have to watch their step.

ELECTRIC WIRING

New work or repair jobs solicited—fully qualified electrician. Let us quote you on new work or repairing jobs, large or small.

H. WALSH

Church St. Stouffville
Phone 2704

Vandorf

Mr. Bert Dike visited with his mother on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Rose were Easter Sunday guests at the home of their son Carmon Rose and family at Holt.

Mr. Isaac Morton on 3rd line has sold his farm to a Toronto man, and possession will soon be taken.

We are pleased that no harm came to Mrs. Obee and her child when in Aurora last week. Mrs. Obee is the wife of Bud Obee. They were about to start for home and the horse ran away as she untied it, and dashed off with a screaming child in the buggy. The horse dashed madly up Wellington Street. All efforts to stop it failed until it reached the corner of Larmont Street, when Elmer Yake dashed out and grasped the reins, and after being dragged some distance, succeeded in bringing it to a standstill. It was a brave rescue and Yake deserves much credit for his bravery. The child and mother were highly excited but no damage was done.

Church Hill

Mr. and Mrs. Pope were delighted to have the children home over the Easter holidays.

Mr. Vines have moved down to Shadow Lake where he is employed.

Misses Marie and Grace Paisley are home for Easter holidays.

Mr. Ronald Duckworth of Toronto was spending Easter holidays with Hoyle Brethour. Maple syrup season is here with us again, and those who have tapped report a good run.

Mr. and Mrs. Percy Jake-man of Parry Sound visited relatives in the community on Saturday.

Considering the road conditions there was a good attendance at the Easter services on Sunday.

We expect a large congregation next Sunday to hear the "Gospel Songsters Trio" of Toronto, who will sing for us.

Christian Endeavour meeting this week will be held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. Lager on Thursday night. Topic to be given by Bruce MacLean. Everyone welcome.

Tribune's small ads are cheap and profitable.

Claremont

Staff Correspondent

Mr. Lionel Douglas, now of Toronto, was a weekend visitor at the Overland home.

Mr. and Mrs. Warden visited with Mrs. Warden's brother in Toronto on Saturday.

Mrs. Ed. Lewis has been laid up on the sick list for a few days.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Cooper of Waterford were home over the weekend visiting with their parents.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Mothersill and family were Saturday visitors with Mrs. Mothersill's sister in Toronto.

Mr. and Mrs. Elwood Elson vacated their Claremont residence this week, and will locate in Stouffville.

Mrs. Lou Dickinson, son and nephew from the States are visiting with Mrs. Dickinson's mother Mrs. Harry Thompson.

Mrs. Harry Thompson who has spent the winter with her son Walter in Markham returned to Claremont this week.

Little progress to better health is being made by Mr. Thomas Sanderson, who suffered a severe heart attack a few weeks ago.

An invitation was extended to the ladies of the Baptist Church here to visit the ladies of the Mission Circle at Whitby Church, this week.

Over a hundred of the district young people gathered at the home of Miss Maud Norton last Thursday to present this popular Uxbridge township girl with a linen shower.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Booth who have been living with Mr. and Mrs. Warden, since the hotel fire, moved this week to their new residence over the new restaurant at the corner of Main Street.

Rev. J. E. Glover addressed a special Easter meeting of the Woman's Missionary Society in Claremont United Church today (Thursday). A generous response to the appeal for an Easter Thankoffering was hoped for.

F. S. Loyst owner and operator of one of Claremont's two canning factories, shut down this week until the Easter slack season is over. Mr. Loyst's establishment turns out an average of 5,000 cans of chicken each year, besides a quota of tomatoes. Mr. Loyst reports the price of canned chicken as fair, compared with other years, while the surplus tomatoes are only bringing a nickel a can.

Large congregations were the order of the day at both the Baptist and United churches. Both local ministers were in their respective pulpits and were assisted on the Easter occasion by special music from the choirs. In the evening, a special Easter message was portrayed by lantern slides at the Baptist church.

Work is progressing rapidly on the new cabins being erected on the Col. Phillip's property just north of town. This 100-acre estate is fast becoming a popular ski resort and Mr. Phillips is building more commodious quarters for his next winter tourists. It is also reported that a private trout pond is contemplated. Frank Ward of Claremont has been employed on the building operations for some time.

Some sort of a record is being established this year by Jas. Dickinson, rural mail courier on Claremont R.R.1 whose route which carries him down the 6th of Uxbridge is still blocked with snow and mud on the 10th of April. A drag was hauled over the 5th of Pickering south on Saturday, and smoothed out a few of the holes, but the condition of the road from Claremont north is one that puts a rattle in the newest of cars.

Mr. Walter Hardy has taken up rooms this week at the Charles Derusha home. Mr. Hardy's house near the Baptist church owned by James Coates received new tenants this week in Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Beaton.

Although a good crowd was in attendance, prices were reported as very low at William Hopkins auction sale of horses, near Ashburn on Saturday. The fifteen head of stock offered by Mr. Hopkins were very good animals, but it seemed that the buyers were not prepared to pay any big money for high class stock.

CLAREMONT

Feasby-Norton Nuptial

A quiet wedding took place on Saturday, April 8th, 1939, at the united parsonage, Goodwood, by the Rev. J. W. Holmes, when Maude May Gertrude, only daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Mose Norton was united in marriage to Norman Stanley Feasby, eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. Russell Feasby. The bride wore a pale blue triple sheer dress with matching accessories and carried a bouquet of supreme roses & Easter lilies. She was attended by Miss Margaret Wilson, who was attired in turquoise blue crepe with accessories to match.

The groom was attended by Mr. Norman Franklin Smalley, cousin of the groom. Following the ceremony a wedding supper was held at the groom's parents with Howard Feasby, Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Wilson, Miss B. A. Smalley, Mr. Dean Alcock, as guests. The bride and groom left amid showers of confetti and good wishes for Toronto and Penetang. On their return they will reside on the 4th line of Uxbridge.

AUCTION SALE

Household Furniture including Electric Stove and Electric Refrigerator

The property of

MRS. CLARA WIDEMAN

GORMLEY

will be sold on

Wed., April 19

1936, on the premises of Mrs. Wideman, formerly known as the Ontario Bible School property.

- 3 Bedsteads, springs, and Mattresses
- Dresser
- 2 Washstands
- Davenport
- Centre Table
- Sewing Machine, New Raymond Refrigerator, Gilson Snow Bird (near new)
- Extension Table, 1-4 cut oak extension 12 foot.
- 5 Dining Room Chairs
- Arm Chair
- Morris Chair
- Wash Tub
- Kitchen Range
- Electric Range, E element with oven
- Rocking Chairs
- Vacuum, Ohio
- Hall Mirror
- Two Small Tables
- Bake Tray, large
- Number of Dishes
- Quantity Canned Fruit
- Small Churn
- Roasting Pan
- 2 Cream Cans
- Four Benches
- Wheelbarrow
- Set Platform Scales, cap. 240 lb.
- No. Chairs
- Garden Roller
- Many other articles
- Annex Heater
- Milk Pails
- Number Sealers
- Butter Bowl and Laddle
- Number of Crocks
- Robe
- Trailer
- Ironing Board
- Terms—Cash Sale at 2 p.m.
- A. S. Farmer, Auctioneer

MEMORIALS of MERIT

Having purchased the Century old Granite works from L. C. Wideman, we solicit a continuance of public patronage, and shall render the same careful service that has built up this long established business.

Call on us before buying or if you prefer telephone and we will submit designs and prices at your home.

P. G. TARR

Telephone 8002
Stouffville, Ontario
(Successor to L. C. Wideman)

USED FURNITURE Extra Good

- Dining Room Suite, 6 Diners
- Bureau, Table, 6 Chairs
- Bedroom Suite, springs, mattress, Dresser, in Walnut finish.
- Studio Couch
- Kitchen Cabinet
- Two Good Chesterfields.
- Several Odd Bureaus
- Electric Washing Machine
- One Bed and Mattress
- These goods must be sold Priced to sell quick
- BENJ. RAXLIN,
Phone 192
Stouffville.

Springtime Specials

SPRING IS HERE

With the advent of spring, there are many things about the home, and in wearing apparel that will need to be renewed, and throughout this store many inviting values are presented a few of which are listed below.

WALLPAPERS

More than anything else, new and attractive Wallpapers will add beauty to your rooms, and improve the appearance of your furniture and drapes. We carry a very large and exclusive stock of "Sunworthy" semi trimmed papers, suitable for every room in the house, ranging in price from 9c to 50c

RUG PATTERNS

A very large stock of Rug Patterns in a wide range of patterns. Two sizes. Priced at 20c to 29c

SPRINGTIME PRINTS

Gay, Summery Prints, in radiant colours, that will make lovely, smart frocks and aprons. They are all Tub-fast and sunfast. 36" wide, and real value at the price 16c, 20c, 25c, 29c

SPRING FROCKS

A remarkably attractive showing of street and afternoon dresses, which are very moderately priced, & yet have the style and appearance of much higher priced frocks. In a wide range of materials and styles $2.95 up

PRETTY HATS FOR THE SPRING SEASON

Variations of Sailors with high or low crowns, and with the new Springtime "prettiness" in realistic flowers, dainty veils, and crisp ribbon trim, mostly in black, rust, navy and suex. Prices are $1.95 to $2.95

BERETS

Smart little Berets in all colours and in sizes to fit all heads. These are all imported basque Berets, priced at only 45c

CHINTZ AND ART SATEENS

We have selected from stock these very attractive patterns. The quality is good, and the prices have been very decidedly reduced to ensure a quick clearance. Priced 15c to 32c

BLOUSES AND BLOUSETTES

Many new and interesting styles are presented for Spring wear, in the season's prettiest accessory colours, and in a wide variety of materials. Priced at $1.00 to $2.95

FLANNELTE PYJAMAS

Still a good selection of these warm and comfortable garments which we are clearing out at a reduction of 20 per cent. Supply your present and future requirements at these low prices.

HANDBAGS

A new Handbag is a necessary addition to a nice spring outfit, and there are some very attractive styles in the new spring stock. The quality is good and the prices are very moderate $1.00 up

SCARVES

New and unusually smart are the spring styles in Scarves, the patterns are new, and the colour combinations are delightfully springlike. You will want one of these for your new outfit. Reasonably priced at 59c up

PINK GLASSWARE

In an unusually attractive design features this smart glassware and the prices are decidedly attractive.

- 7 Piece Fruit Set 49c
- Large Bowls, each 19c
- Small Bowls, each 10c
- Cream and Sugar, pair 20c

W. H. SHAW STORE

(This Store Open Wednesday Afternoons)

Phone 9512