Don't forget the sale of house furniture belonging to Mrs. Wilson on May 20th.

Miss Beatrice Chapman has accepted a position in Newmarket for a time.

The Willing Workers at Mrs. E. Tooles' home on Wednesday was well attended.

We are glad to welcome Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Hawtin back home, after serving the Lord on the mission field in India for a number of years.

The Community Club was brought to a close on Friday night by their annual banquet. The hall was beautifully decorated with the club colors, mauve and yellow, the same color scheme being used for the tables and flowers. After a supper which spoke for itself and Pine Orchard cooks, a program was enjoyed by all consisting of orchestra music; duet by Betty Hope and Vivia Shropshire; readings by Mrs. Wicke and Alma Chapman; piano accordion by Douglas Hope; quartette and short address by Arthur Hawtin; returned missionary. Mr. Cockburn was the guest speaker and gave an interesting talk on "Our Community." God Save The King brought the evening to a close.

Baptist Convention of Ontario and Quebec will be a mammoth affair. This year it will be held in the Automotive Building at Exhibition Park, Toronto. Registration fee is one dollar before May 22nd. Plan to attend for entire period.

The Ladies' Aid held their meeting at the home of Mrs. Herb Percy. About forty ladies attended. This is a very worthwhile organization and just now we are anxious to receive new members. Our year begins with the May meeting when election of officers will be held. Plan to be in on the fellowship and cheerful enjoyment of this Ladies' Aid this year. One meeting each month. Yearly fee per member is 25c. Is it your wish to put in a new president, this year. Mrs. T. Williams completes her fifth year in May. Come and vote for your favorite ladies as officers. Mrs. Walt Booth will entertain and the date will be announced later. "Glory" is the answer to the roll call.

Claremont

Staff Correspondent

Mrs. M. Booth and son of Toronto is visiting with the Booth family.

There will be special Mother's Day services in both churches next Sunday morning.

Rev. James Grant, of Toronto was guest speaker in the Baptist Church on Sunday. Mr. Grant was pastor of the Claremont charge some 26 years ago.

This Thursday the Baptist ladies are accepting an invitation to meet with the W.M.S. of the United Church. Special speaker of the afternoon will be Mrs. Lepinki.

It is reported that Mrs. Jull, wife of Rev. Mr. Jull of Brooklyn, and frequent visitor to Claremont, is in very poor health.

Mrs. Soden who has been living for some time with her brother Will Harris in Toronto, is not much improved in health since her operation some time ago.

The handsome A. T. Button Badminton Shield was won for the second consecutive year, last week, by Betty Pretty, of Claremont and Thos. Jones of Uxbridge in mixed doubles competition.

The election of officers of the Claremont Bowling Club was held last Friday night with the following taking office: Pres., Alf. Pretty, Vice Pres., Ralph Miller, 2nd vice, Thos. Lye, Sec'y-Treas., I. F. Dopking.

Mr. Haig Dimerjon, popular young machinist in the McIntyre factory, left this week for the World's Fair. On his return he will be accompanied by his mother, who is coming from England to live with her son.

A party of young strangers who were reported to have embibed too freely were hauled out of the ditch last Saturday night by Mr. Jud. Ward, just east of here. It is understood that the "young soaks" were picked up with their feet dangling in a nearby creek, and it was thought by the rescuer that had their heads been in a similar position it might have proved more profitable.

An interesting letter was received last week by a Claremont resident, from Rev. Mr. Stephens, a former Baptist pastor in Claremont and a resident of Stouffville. Mr. Stephens moved to England three years ago owing to poor health, and has been in charge of the Union Church at Hanwell. It is seven years since the Stephens family left Claremont. Mr. Stephens said, in part, "There is much unrest over here, and much fear of war. We go for two hours in the morning for anti-gas training. This week we will wear our masks and go through the gas chamber. There are about fifty in the class. Daughter Muriel is going into training for a nurse, in a hospital for over three thousand patients."

The sympathy of the community is extended to Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Scott of Claremont in the loss of their son, Dr. W.J. Scott of Cookstown, who passed away in the Toronto General Hospital on Sunday. Dr. Scott, who has been a practicing physician in Cookstown for the last 20 years, was involved in a mysterious auto accident last week, near Alliston. Mr. Scott's car was found hanging over an embankment, while the doctor, himself was picked up in a helpless condition some distance away suffering injuries from which he succumbed on Sunday. Dr. Scott is the eldest son of a family of five boys and one girl, all of whom survive. He was in his forty-sixth year, and was born and went to school in Claremont. The only immediate relatives besides the parents residing in this locality is a brother Mr. Dave Scott of Locust Hill; also a beloved wife Agnes Boyle Scott. Interment was at Richmond Hill.
