Melville

Mrs. A. Duncan spent the weekend with her daughter Mrs. Alfred Smith and family. Mr. and Mrs. Day of Toronto visited their son and family, on Sunday. Mr. Edgar Steckley and family spent Sunday with Mr. Peter Steckley. Mr. and Mrs. Allen Heise and children were at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Heise on Sunday.

Mr. Bruce Lehman of Delhi spent Sunday under the parental roof, also Mr. and Mrs. Bernic Gayman.

Mr. and Mrs. W. Waterson and little babe of Toronto spent the weekend with Mrs. Waterson's sister, Mrs. Alfred Miller and family. Master Jimmy Miller celebrated his 11th birthday in a happy way Saturday when 23 guests met for jolly fun at the tea party held at his home.

Mr. W. J. Klees and family of Newmarket, also Mr. Ralph Arthur and Kenneth Honsberger were Sunday visitors at Mr. H. Houck's. Visitors to Melville on Sunday morning were Mr. and Mrs. T. Popham and Catharine from Toronto, Mr. and Mrs. K. Stots and Mildred of Brown's Corners, Mr. Archie Niel of Toronto and Miss Dorothy McEwen of Pine Orchard School staff.

The Ladies of the Melville W.M.S. are gathering in the basement of the church Wednesday, May 17th, where they will quilt two quilts for the ball of clothing to be sent out in June.

The school children are anticipating a look at the King and Queen on the 22nd. Let us hope this will be a realization for them all and quite possibly it will if the arrangements are being made for the schools as stated.

Mother's Day seemed to be a well spent day for many in this community as well as several visitors. The Sunday School hour was devoted to mothers in an efficient way and the story of The Golden Room was given by Mrs. McEwen. Once again the importance of Honorable Motherhood was stressed—Oh, for a world of Christian mothers—without which this civilization inevitably crumples.

Church Hill

Hark! listen, hear those wedding bells for June. Miss Ethel Thompson spent the weekend at her home. Ronald and Doreen Duckworth spent Sunday with Orvan Brethour.

Mr. and Mrs. Willis Harrison and family had tea with Mr. and Mrs. Lazenby on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Harrison of Toronto spent Wednesday with Mr. and Mrs. Lazenby.

Misses Grace and Norma Paisley spent the weekend in Toronto.

We observed Mother's Day at Sunday School with a good attendance to hear the message given by Mrs. Baker of Stouffville. Everyone enjoyed it very much. We trust she will come again. We also enjoyed the message given by our pastor, Mr. Vickers, as we always do. Mr. S. H. Cockburn will occupy the pulpit in the absence of Mr. Vickers who is supplying in his home church in Hamilton on Sunday.

VIVIAN

Seeding is completed here by farmers.

Mother's Day was celebrated in the McCormick Memorial church on Sunday. We heard some good singing.

Miss Margaret McCormack is at home again after spending a few weeks with her sister in Peterboro.

Mr. Geo. McCormack is preparing to shingle his house.

Mr. Shackman is commencing to build a dam on his pond, in preparation for his many summer guests, who visit him each year, and spend their holidays in his cabins and his home.

Mr. Wrightman is intending to remodel and finish his home at Vivian.

Peaches

We extend our sympathy to Mrs. Wm. Risebrough of the 8th line in the loss of her father.

Sowing mangolds is the order of the day on our line.

Sunday being Mother's Day many visitors called in the district.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Burrows and son Arthur of Pickering visited with Mrs. Burrow's mother, Mrs. Tennyson.

Mr. and Mrs. Upton and daughter Joan of Toronto were Sunday visitors with Mr. and Mrs. Painter.

Sunday visitors with Mr. and Mrs. Henry Walker were: Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Walker and son of Barrie; Mr. and Mrs. Brooks and family of Toronto, Mrs. Pendall and Kenneth of Toronto.

Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Miller of Toronto visited here over the weekend.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Wideman and family of Toronto called on Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Wideman on Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Nelson Smith and family were Sunday visitors with Mr. and Mrs. Robt. Smith, Markham.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Hoover and family were Sunday visitors with Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Hoover of the 8th line.

Miss Evelyn Spang was home for the weekend.

The Ladies' Aid of Unionville Anglican Church were entertained at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. Ferguson, on Wednesday.

Mrs. Ivan Walker is home again after spending two weeks in Toronto.

Jimmy Maynard jr. fell off the cultivator recently striking his eye on a piece of iron and is now nursing a black peeper and badly swollen face.

Church next Sunday at the usual hour 10 o'clock followed by Sunday School. Come and worship with us.

PROCLAMATION!

In accordance with a resolution passed by council I hereby proclaim Monday, May 22nd, 1939, to be a public holiday for the Village of Stouffville, in honour of the visit to Toronto of Their Majesties King George VI and Queen Elizabeth.

On Mother's Day the girls class brought a basket of flowers to decorate the Sunday School.

There were forty-nine at Sunday School on Sunday. The sing song was held this week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. Brown.

Sunday guests with Mr. and Mrs. A. Brown were Mr. and Mrs. Orval Wideman and Joyce, Mrs. Ralph Davis, Mr. and Mrs. Tom. Davis and June.

Sunday guests with Mr. and Mrs. O. Zeller were Mr. and Mrs. O. M. Madill, Olive and Marjorie; Mr. and Mrs. Frank Ward and Mildred of Claremont and Miss Alta Zeller.

Next Monday the school children are planning to visit the city to see the King and Queen. They expect to go in a body on the train with their teacher as chaperone.

Sunday guests with Mr. and Mrs. George Thompson were Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Mortson, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Carter, and Mr. and Mrs. Stiver of Unionville.

Congratulations are due Miss Edna Green for putting Mongolia on the map! Miss Green received a prize of ten dollars for the best joke submitted in the "Smiles & Chuckles" contest. It isn't every day one hears their name come over the radio. Congratulations, Edna.

Sunday visitors with Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Brown were: Mr. James Muirhead, Mrs. Ralph Davis and son Norman, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Brown, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Davis and daughter Junie, Mr. and Mrs. Orville Wideman and Joyce also Master Bruce Wideman, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Brown, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Brown and daughter Helen.

MRS. DAVID STODDARD FOLLOWS HUSBAND TO GRAVE

The funeral services for Mrs. Thomas David Stoddard were conducted on Tuesday last week. Mrs. Stoddard died in Toronto at the home of her daughter, Mrs. J. R. Greer, after four weeks illness. Her husband died Sept. 3, last.

Rev. A. J. Patstone conducted services at the Stoddard home at 59 Lorne Ave., and at Newmarket cemetery.

Mabel McCarthy was born in Beeton, and was married 44 years ago to Thomas David Stoddard. They farmed for some years, living near Bradford.

They came to Newmarket in 1910.

Mr. Stoddard served overseas, and after the war he and his wife were appointed superintendent and matron of the House of Refuge, Yonge St. They retired less than four years ago. Mrs. Stoddard was a quiet woman who loved her home and had many friends.

Surviving are two daughters, (Helene) Mrs. S. W. Otton, Newmarket, and (Moss) Mrs. J. R. Greer, Toronto.

WANTED
