Mrs. Helen McCague entertained several of her friends at a quilting bee one day last week. Mr. and Mrs. George Agar and family were Sunday visitors with Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Read.

We extend to Mr. and Mrs. Walter Ridley our congratulations upon their marriage last Saturday, June 3rd.

A joint meeting of the Mission Band and Baby Band was held in the basement of the church on Saturday afternoon. Mrs. Robert Beatty was in charge of the program and a most enjoyable time was spent by all present.

Work has again started on the highway from Victoria Square, north, when work was discontinued last year the pavement was completed only about 300 feet north of our village.

There is considerable talk in our centre regarding the proposed construction of a large water storage tank to be used in case of fire. It is said that the cost of such a tank would be around $500. A meeting to discuss the project is expected to be held in the near future.

At the meeting of the Junior Farmers Association in the Hall on Tuesday evening, June 6th, Mr. Jerry Walker spoke on the subject of "Pasture Management." Mr. Douglas Gee led a very interesting discussion on "How it Pays to Summer-fallow?" These meetings should prove helpful to all young men engaged in agriculture and the committee in charge cordially invite you to attend.

Bethesda.

Carl looks lonesome since Beatrice has gone.

Mr. and Mrs. McNichol, Roy and Irene of Newmarket had Sunday dinner with Mr. and Mrs. Fred Allin and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Wideman of Queensville had tea on Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Allin.

The Bethesda Junior Institute will provide the program at the Stouffville meeting next Wednesday.

Our little village was almost deserted on Tuesday when most everyone journeyed westward or north to see the Royal Train.

Remember Sunday School at Pike's Peak again next Sunday. There was a good attendance, but we missed you who were not there.

The tent meetings at Pike's Peak were well attended on Sunday, the first day of the campaign. Mr. Jesse Steckley of Gormley delivered the messages, in the absence of Mr. and Mrs. Grout the evangelists.

The foundation for Mr. A. B. Shaffer's new residence was constructed last week, and work is expected to progress with a rush on the super-structure.

No less than six washing baskets filled to the top with many fine gifts were presented to Mr. and Mrs. Lorne Hiese one evening last week, on the occasion of a shower in their honor. A hundred and fifty friends gathered to add their personal good wishes to this popular couple.

Vandorf

Mr. and Mrs. Chester Graham and son were weekend visitors with Mr. and Mrs. Rolia Scott.

Mrs. Edgar Rose spent a day last week with her son Carmon and family of Holt.

We hear Mr. Rolia Scott has been wired for hydro and is waiting for the line to come up from Ross Chapman's farm.

Mr. and Mrs. Russel Sproton and family had Sunday dinner with Mr. and Mrs. Frank Beilby of Locust Hill, and tea with Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Hoover, and Mrs. B. Hoover at Mount Joy.

The Ladies Aid monthly meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Kingdon on Wednesday of this week.

Our farmers have the root crop and their corn in and with the recent rainfalls the hay crop looks very promising.

Ringwood

Mrs. William Pipher is holidaying with relatives in Oshawa.

Miss Belle Mitchell is spending a week with relatives in London.

We are glad to know that Thomas Vague is able to go out again following his recent illness.

Mrs. Garnet Kirk and children of Markham visited for a few days recently at A. M. Grove's home.

Frank Pipher and lady friend of Toronto spent Sunday with his aunt and uncle Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Burkholder.

Edgar Brownberger and Arthur Bassett are erecting a cement foundation for a large poultry house 140 ft by 20 ft., north of Locust Hill.

Recent visitors at "Locust Lodge" with Dr. Thomas and Miss Belle Mitchell were: Mrs. Joseph Bere and daughter Dorothy of London; Professor Jackson of Toronto University accompanied by his wife and four children.

Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Baker Merlyn Baker and Miss Doris Baker are on a motor trip to Sudbury. Merlyn's brother Allin is on the engineering staff at that place.

Ross Breuls, son of Frank Breuls, sustained a badly broken arm which necessitated his removal to the Sick Children's Hospital, Toronto for setting. He was thrown from a pony which he was riding, to the pavement on the highway in front of his home.

Rev. Mr. Clements and son James of Swastika, Northern Ontario called on Mr. and Mrs. Roy Grove on Saturday. Mr. Clements was a former pastor on the Lemonville circuit.

Mrs. Gerald Burton and children spent a few days in Lindsay with Mrs. Burton's parents. We are sorry to report that Mrs. Burton's father is very ill.

Dickson's Hill

Mrs. M. Wideman is spending a few days with her daughter, Mrs. Schell in Mount Joy.

Miss Blanche Mortson spent Sunday afternoon with Miss Katherine Moyer.

Mr. Simeon Hoover, Martha and Edith, also Mrs. Clarence Barkey and Pauline visited with their cousins, Mr. and Mrs. Meyer in Zephyr on Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Walker enjoyed a trip to Guelph last week and visited the Ontario Agricultural College. Perhaps Ken got some new pointers on farming.

The girls had another baseball practice last Tuesday evening. The boys' team challenged us to a game—when we get some more practice. Shall we accept?

Some of the crowd from our town attended the wedding of Mr. Lorne Byer and Miss Joyce Cleare at Glasgow last Saturday afternoon. We wish the newly-weds every happiness for the future.

The young people of the community met at the home of Mrs. Harvey Moyer on Sunday evening. After singing 'till we could sing no longer, we answered questions from the book "Know Your Bible", by Amos R. Wells. Some of us finished up with a resolution to study more so we will not get careless on simple questions.

The neighbourhood was quite upset early Monday morning when several bombs exploded in our midst. Flashing through our minds was the question we dared not ask "Hitler?" Investigation soon relieved our troubled minds as we discovered that it wasn't Hitler, after all, but only Joseph Hoover blasting stones to make a rockery.

Our community was quite well represented at Young Peoples' at Mount Joy, Monday evening. The society from Bethel Chapel, Toronto put on a very interesting program. Two short messages were given by Mr. Howard Reichard and Miss Mae Tipping, who does mission work among the Jewish people. The male quartette gave two fine selections and Mrs. Shantz and Mrs. Bell sang a lovely duet. We enjoyed their visit very much.

Tribune's small ads are cheap and profitable.

Pine Orchard

Somebody says they still can hear wedding bells.

Miss Olive Shell spent the weekend in Pine Orchard.

We are glad to report Percy Hutchinson is able to be home. Mr. and Mrs. Ross Armitage spent Sunday at their summer cottage, Lake Simcoe.

A deep gloom was cast over our community on Wednesday, when a life long resident of Pine Orchard, Nelson Widdifield died. Although in his 79th year he enjoyed fairly good health until recently. His quiet manner won him many friends and he will be greatly missed by young and old in the community. He is survived by two daughters Minnie and Aleta at home, three sons, Walter in Timmins, Wilbert and Collin of Newmarket. The funeral was held on Saturday with interment in Pine Orchard cemetery. Our sympathy is extended to the sorrowing family.

Ballantrae

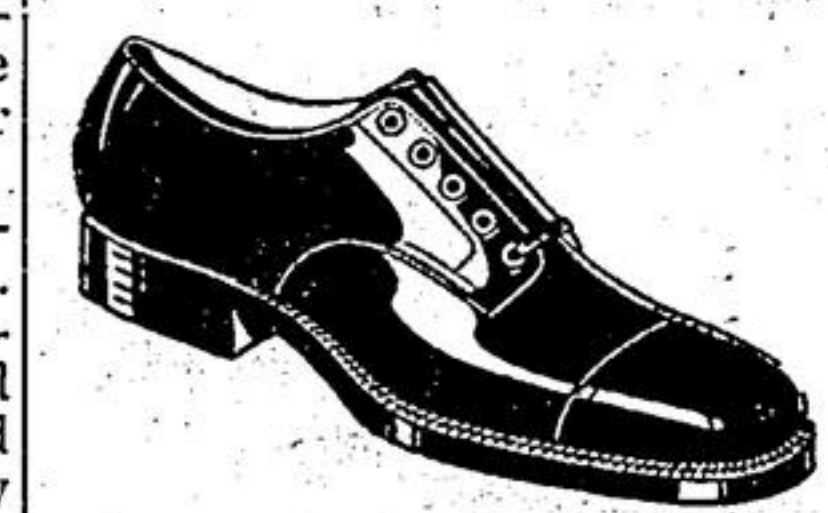

Early potatoes are looking fine.

Weldon's store is displaying the W. A. Quilt and our ladies hope to sell a liberal supply of tickets at 10c or 3 for 25c. It's a lovely hand made quilt anyone would be delighted to own.

One of our farmers Thomas Bingham living on the first farm west of the G. O. Wright corner, was rushed to the General Hospital suffering from appendicitis. The attack was so sudden that G. O. Wright rushed him down during Sunday night.

A man named Burchell living close to Robert Windsor's house cut a blood vessel in his hand on Saturday and was picked by Stover's bakery truck and taken to town for aid. While he was away his wife fell through a broken board on the cottage floor and received a nasty bump.
