Gormley

Five miles of road on the fourth concession are being treated to crushed gravel all being unloaded from cars at Gormley station. While we like the business—the heavy trucks certainly kick up an awful dust. The road will be paved from Victoria Square to Gormley, three and a half miles, the Jupp Construction Co., now being on the ground to do the work.

Rev. Elmer Steckley is home from Thomas, Oklahoma, where he is on the teaching staff of the bible college there. When Mr. Steckley left the south west harvest had just begun, and wheat was yielding 15 bushels to the acre. Naturally his mother Mrs. Jos. Steckley and all the old friends are delighted to see Mr. Steckley home again.

Mrs. Martha Hisey has been down in Markham village for a few days visiting with Mrs. Mary Ann Fretz. Old friends love to get together.

Our townline road is frightful again and homes are fairly destroyed from the dust, despite our effort to paint up and brighten up. We are glad to hear that Whitechurch council is buying a car of road oil. Hope it comes soon.

The Jabez Thompson estate sale here last week saw Auctioneer A. S. Farmer snap off sales totalling around $150 in short order for the household furniture belonging to this former resident. The house and lot also offered was sold to one of our residents Mrs. Levi Hoover. The sale price was $1425. This is the first property east of the railway tracks and for long years was known as the Forester place. The fact that a buyer was found at the public auction completed a smart afternoon's work for our auctioneer.
