BIRTHS

Tweedie — At The Brierbush Hospital, Stouffville, on Saturday, June 10th, 1939, to Mr. and Mrs. Wilmot Tweedie, R.R.1, Pickering, a daughter.

Goodwood

Miss Jean Slack left our city to reside in Hamilton for a time.

On Monday evening, June 12th, our soft ball team beat Markham 23-1 in 5 innings.

The library board meeting called for Wednesday night, June 14th has been postponed for a time.

Mr. and Mrs. Milligan of Eganville is visiting their daughter Mr. and Mrs. Norman Wagg.

Mr. George Brown is recovering slowly following a stroke he suffered a week or so ago. Mr. and Mrs. Donald Fines and children of Newmarket visited in Goodwood on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Leadbetter of Mount Albert visited with Mr. and Mrs. James Wagg on Sunday.

Mr. Leslie and Harold Meyers and Mr. Kenneth James spent Sunday afternoon in Toronto.

Mr. Harold Downswell of Toronto spent a few days last week with his parents Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Downswell.

Mr. T. J. Feren spent a few days last week around Bracebridge on business and renewing old acquaintances.

Mrs. Earl Tindall attended a trousseau tea on Saturday afternoon, given in honor of Miss Wilhelmine Lundy of Sandford and poured tea for the afternoon.

On June 6th, our soft ball team defeated Actons team of Uxbridge, 9-3, at Uxbridge. They met their first defeat on Thursday evening when Ashworth defeated them 8-2, in a hard fought game which drew the largest and most enthusiastic crowd of the season. The next game will be an exhibition with Markham on Monday evening June 12th, at Goodwood. On Thursday evening, June 15th another league game with Uxbridge tennis club at Goodwood. A silver collection is taken up at these games to assist in purchasing clubs and balls and you are expected to pay according to your enjoyment.

Everything has been set in motion for the big day in Goodwood on Civic Holiday, in August. A. E. Staley is general chairman, on sports we have John Ashenurst, John Rae, John Foskett and Robt. Sellers. Distin McDonald is in charge of the program committee and Morley Symes is to look after the dance sheets, and C. W. Watson decorations.

This district was shocked to learn that John Stewart of MacPeer was burned to death in a fire there. Word was received here by his brother Bert. John was a bachelor and had lived in the northern country for many years.

United church Strawberry Supper and Concert this Thursday night. We'll all be there sure.

Melville

Miss Mary Baker and Mrs. Clara Wideman were guests at Mr. Henry Hoover's on Sunday.

Mrs. M. Jewitt spent three days last week at Kitchener where she attended the Menonite Conference.

Mr. and Mrs. Carson Wideman spent the Sunday at Markham with Mr. and Mrs. R. Kirk.

Miss Mary Millen of Ottawa is back again at Melville staying with Mr. A. D. Bruce's for a vacation.

Miss Edna and Mrs. M. Houck spent the weekend at Maple with the daughter and family of Mr. P. Putebaugh.

Mr. and Mrs. Day and others from Toronto, visited with Mrs. Day's son, Mr. William Smith and family on Sunday.

Mrs. J. McEwen and Mrs. H. Houck represented Melville at the annual Rural W.M.S. convention at Sandford, Ont., on Wednesday. They report an exceptionally good convention.

Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Tidbury attended the Chadwick re-union at Cookstown on Saturday.

The W.M.S. met last week at the home of Mrs. Louis Brillinger with a good attendance. Mrs. Cale of Vandorf gave a very inspiring message. During the program an address was read by Mrs. William Burkholder, and Mrs. Shaffer presented Mrs. McEwen with a lovely quilt. Rev. and Mrs. McEwen are leaving shortly for their new field at Schomberg.

The meetings at Pike's Peak have been a great blessing to the large crowds which have been attending. On Sunday the grounds looked like a Camp Meeting, as many folks came in the morning, bringing their meals with them and remained all day under the pines and maples.

Dickson's Hill

Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. William Grove on the birth of a daughter.

Mrs. Harvey Moyer spent last Thursday afternoon in Newmarket visiting with her aunt Mrs. Stevens.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Moyer visited with Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Moyer of Stouffville one evening last week. Miss Leah Stewart of Toronto spent the weekend with Eleanor Moyer.

There have been some improvements made in the neighbourhood lately as a number of farmers have had their barn roofs painted.

Sewing Circle was held at the home of Mrs. Winfred Timbers last Thursday. The ladies spent a very profitable day with their needles and thimbles.

Miss Margaret Moyer has completed her third year at Markham High School and is now enjoying her summer vacation. Congratulations!

Miss Frances Elizabeth Wigman (otherwise Betty) was seven years old on Saturday and celebrated by having a birthday party. The guests were the girls in her Sunday School class and Phyllis Bruels. A number of the friends and relatives from this community attended the funeral of the late Abram Raymer at Markham on Saturday. To Mrs. Raymer and the family we extend our sincerest sympathy.

Mr. Eldon Gooding of Mongolla was the guest speaker at Young Peoples' this week. He told a very interesting story of "Dirty Old Red" a converted drunkard who spent the remaining years of his life bringing other drunkards to Christ. He based his remarks on John 3:16.

Mrs. Lehman addressed the Sunday School on Sunday and spoke about our ten obedient friends who are always with us, our fingers. We must be very careful that we don't tell these friends to do things that are wrong for they will get us into trouble. She also told the story of David and Goliath. Both the little children and the grown-up ones were interested and enjoyed it very much.

8th Line Markham

Mrs. Enj. Hoover has been on a visit to friends in Buffalo.

Mrs. Rose of Newmarket visited with her sister Mrs. Kirk. A number of the ladies of Peachs' congregation attended the district Missionary convention at Sandford.

The annual Cemetery Decoration Service will be held in the Church Hill Church on June 25th, at 3 p.m. in remembrance of those who have past on.

There will be no Christian Endeavour meeting this week owing to the Christian Conference at Bloomington, from Wednesday evening to Sunday evening.

Mr. Albert Clark and Ed. Davis left on Thursday for a motor trip to Manitoulin Island to visit Mr. Clark's sister-in-law and Mr. Davis brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. John Wagg.

About forty-five friends and neighbours gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Herb. Pegg on Friday evening with a miscellaneous shower for Barbara, a bride-to-be on June 17th.

The Church Hill Christian Church has just had the interior of the church re-decorated, the ceiling done in Indian Ivory, and the walls in buff. The top border is a rock garden and iris, with an arch back of the pulpit. These flowers are a present to the Oldham—Pegg, wedding couple, whose marriage ceremony will be the first performed in the church, built in 1872. Frank Mowder of Stouffville was the decorator and donator.
