We are glad to report that Mrs. Douglas Gee, Mrs. John Snider, Mrs. Egbert Avison and Mrs. Wilmoet Brumwell are all improving in health and will soon be able to enjoy life as usual once more. Several cars loaded with young people, left our church, last Sunday afternoon and journeyed north, with well-filled lunch baskets, to enjoy a few hours of social fellowship and recreation with the young people of Camp Ahshunyoong at Sibbald's Point, Lake Simcoe. In the evening all attended the inspirational service at the camp where these young people of Toronto East and Toronto North Presbyteries are spending a week of worship and study. Members of our J.F.A. visited "Klaymore Farm" for their regular monthly meeting on Tuesday evening, inspecting crops and livestock. On their return they joined the girls of the J. W. I. in the Community Hall where refreshments were served. The newlyweds Mr. and Mrs. Walker Ridley were presented with an address and a gift of beautiful table linen after which all enjoyed a few hours of games and dancing.

A number from Melville attended the annual decoration service held at Peachs cemetery at 2.30 on Sunday afternoon. The preacher for that occasion was Rev. Bert Turner of the Church of the Air. The floral decorations were beautiful. Melville seems to be a little busier of late. The Rev. Mr. Orr and his family moved to the parsonage on Friday. The induction service was held the same evening and the speakers were The Rev. Wilson of Mount Albert and Rev. Dicks of Scarborough United Church. There was a good attendance and both addresses were truly something to take home and ponder over. On Tuesday evening the Bethesda Young People's Union visited Melville giving the entire program which brought the Westminster Guild to a close for the summer months. A large attendance enjoyed an inspiring program after which all adjourned to the basement for a social time together. At this time presentations were made to Mr. and Mrs. McEwen. Mrs. McEwen has been a much appreciated teacher of the Melville Junior Bible Class and was presented with a very useful oak table by her class. The Bethesda Y.P.U. then presented Mr. McEwen with a Moffat's Translation of the Bible which was "just what he wanted." The couple then very graciously thanked the Young People and expressed their joy in working among them and their love for and interest in them all. Refreshments were then served, and farewells offered. The strawberry social was a splendid success. A large number gathered in Mr. Lotton's Park on Wednesday evening which was moonlight and perfect. After the rows and rows of red berries which decorated the tables had disappeared along with delicious pies and cakes, a good program of music was enjoyed. Both outside and home talent entertained in a delightful way. During the program Mrs. McEwen was asked to take her chair, along with Mr. McEwen on the platform. Mrs. H. Forrester president of the W. A. read the address of farewell and a presentation was made of two beautiful chairs from the congregation.
