On Tuesday, August 29, A. B. Sheffer will sell an auction sale of furniture before moving in to that fine new home. Brass kettles, antique clock and many useful articles are up for sale.

It's quite a spell since our corner has heard the "How much!" "How much!" from an auctioneer, so we will all be on hand that day. The sale list will be in the paper next week.

We suppose our township coucillors are entitled to wear broad smiles since we hear they struck a favorable tax rate on Saturday. The County, general and relief rates total 10 3/4 mills, which when the government subsidy of 1 1/2 mills is taken off gives us a rate of half a mill under last year. This is fine in view of the fear rates might go up when so heavy expenditure was made for road machinery.
