Residents of Stouffville fifty years ago, members of the McCarty family were in town on Tuesday afternoon. In company with Miss Ada McCarty who is a more frequent visitor was her two brothers Will and Walter. The latter is a resident of Chicago, and a real worker against the Roosevelt regime which he hopes will be wiped out in the next presidential election. The McCarty boys went to school in Stouffville, and played baseball here, games of which they were replaying on Saturday when they visited Frank Rae and James Ratcliff, both of whom recalled vividly memorable occasions with Walt. McCarty in uniform. The visitors were accompanied to town by Mr. and Mrs. Will Dixon of Oakville, Mrs. Dixon being the former Miss Vic. McCarty of Markham.

BIRTHS

Badgero—To Mr. and Mrs. John Badgero (nee Gladys Wagg) on Wednesday, August 9, 1939, a son.

GRACE BRADLEY BRIDE OF HARRY HOLDEN

(Continued from page one) roses, lily-of-the-valley and baby's breath. The groom's sister, Miss Erma Holden was bridesmaid, and was gowned in turquoise blue chiffon with tucked bolero jacket and pink velvet bows, matching head-dress of lace and net trimmed with blue and pink cornflowers, pink accessories and carried a bouquet of sweetheart roses and larkspur. The groom was attended by Mr. Oscar Bradley, brother of the bride. Little Eleanor Herancourt, niece of the bride was flower girl frocked in pale blue silk, and carried a nosegay of sweetpeas and baby's breath. Three year old Douglas Bradley, nephew of the bride was ring-bearer, dressed in black velvet trousers and white silk blouse. The groom's gift to the bride was a rope of pearls, and to the best man and pianist, monogrammed leather wallets.

At the reception following the ceremony, the bride's mother received, wearing a gown of black chiffon, large white hat, white accessories and corsage of talisman roses. The groom's mother assisted, gowned in queen's blue suede lace, natural picture hat, white accessories, and corsage of pink roses. Mrs. E. H. Bradley aunt of the bride also received, and wore a frock of navy and rose silk crepe with rose accessories, and corsage of roses. Following the reception the bride and groom left on a motor trip to Ottawa, Montreal, and points east. For travelling the bride donned a smart grey tweed suit with rust accessories. On their return Mr. and Mrs. Holden will reside on North Church Street, Stouffville.

Presbyterians May Call a Pastor

A congregational meeting in the Presbyterian Church on Sunday afternoon considered the possibility of closing the church for regular worship or extending a call to a pastor. No decision was reached and an adjournment was made in order to confer with the Markham congregation on Sunday, August 20 in Markham. Opinion was expressed that in all likelihood sufficient financial support would be pledged to warrant making a call to a minister.

Vivian

Miss Hollidge spent Monday with Mrs. A. Needler.

Mrs. Pollard is spending a few days with her sister in Peterboro.

It is reported that A. Needler has rented a farm of 100 acres on the 4th con. of Whitechurch.

A. Neeler threshed five hours on Monday, grain turning out very good. Rye averaged 20 bus. to the acre, oats about 40 bus.

An accident occurred here on Saturday afternoon when a Newmarket doctor travelling west collided with a cow belonging to Mr. Rumacher. Mr. Rumacher's boy was bringing the cows home to milk. The unfortunate animal suffered a broken leg and inward injuries and had to be destroyed.

There was a fine congregation at the church on Sunday night when Mr. Troyer of the Sixth Concession of Whitechurch occupied the pulpit and preached a very good sermon taken from St. John 6th chapter, verse 67. Mr. Rowan was absent on Sunday, being called to Oshawa where he preached in the evening.

COAL TENDERS AWARDED

Stiver Bros. were awarded the contract for a 50 ton car of stoker coal to be placed in the bins at the school house, at a meeting of the trustees on Friday evening. The contract price is $6.90 per ton, the lowest of three tenders received.

The meeting was the shortest held this year, and lasted only half an hour. A few general accounts were ordered paid. Members present were Chairman Dr. Freeland and Trustees L. Turner, J. W. McMullen and A. V. Nolan.
