Taking stock of all the jars

that have been filled with fruit and pickles, the silos filled with corn, and the root cellars that are receiving their bounty, man and beast have a fair chance of surviving the approaching winter.

A number from our community were present at Stouffville Baptist Church, Friday evening to hear Rev. O. A. Blumit, pastor of a Baptist Church in Latvia, speak on European conditions. It was a very enlightening and interesting address. Everyone should appreciate anew the national liberties we enjoy as British subjects. This would furnish the first item on our Thanksgiving list.

Mr. Clarence McDowell, our new president addressed the Young People on Monday night on "How to make our meetings a success in this new year."

Among the things mentioned was regular attendance, and in our society there are over one hundred young people who could attend. Our pastor spoke for a short while on Christian Leadership. Several musical selections were given by the quartettes. Next Tuesday night at Mount Joy we are to have a special Thanksgiving program with the Stouffville and Scott Young People present. Don't miss this service.

Victoria Square

A very dear friend here Miss Nellie Victoria Jennings died suddenly at her home on the Lake Shore Road on Sunday. She passed away without warning and was found dead in bed. The funeral was held at Victoria Square cemetery on Wednesday this week, and was largely attended. Deceased was a daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Albert E. Jennings and a sister of Mrs. R. F. Klinck; Mrs. C. J. Roesch; Mrs. W. T. White; Mrs. A. R. Cooper, and Marshall Jennings. Messrs. Del and Tom Jennings, Mrs. Edwin Forsyth and Mrs. Harry Spang all of Stouffville district were cousins.

Stouffville Junior Farmers and Institute clubs visited Victoria Square clubs, the visiting clubs putting on the program. The speaker of the evening was Mr. Reg. Button of Stouffville his subject being "Law." He explained all the different kinds of courts in Ontario and Canada, how they were
