Prominent Lawyer Buried at Sutton

On Thursday, October 12th, last was recorded the passing of Morley H. Greuls, Barrister-at-law, of Toronto, and a well known figure in the County of York.

The late Mr. Greuls was the descendant of pioneer stock that first came to this country from London, England well over a century ago and settled in the Township of Markham. He was the youngest son of the late James A. Breuls and Louisa Laura Breuls, (nee Mann) and was born in North Gwillimbury, July 21st, 1900.

In June 1939, he was married to Miss Violet Tingley of Toronto who mourns his loss with other members of his family, his sister, Miss Irene Breuls of Toronto, Mrs. Grover Morrison of Sutton, and his brothers Mr. Stanley Breuls of Sutton, Captain Carman Breuls of Brantford and Major Harold A.C. Breuls, Barrister of Toronto, former Conservative Candidate in North York.

BALLANTRAE

Gormley

Another local group of singers, the Henderson Trio filled a singing appointment at the Mennonite Chapel in Toronto on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Davis of Clarence, N.Y., also Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Davis and Howard of Stevensville, visited with friends here over the weekend. As young men both Albert and Alfred lived at Gormley for several years.

Jesse Steckley and Rhoda Winger both from Ontario Bible School, Fort Erie were at home for the weekend. Rev. Steckley brought the Sunday morning message at Heise Hill Church.

On Sunday morning the Steckley quartette furnished special music at the White Rose Church. The group range in age from seven to twelve years and are all the children of Mr. and Mrs. Levi Steckley.

Altona

Mr. and Mrs. H. McIntosh spent last week visiting relatives near Listowel.

Miss Edith Hughes of Watson, Sask., visited last Thursday afternoon with Mrs. Walter Carter.

A Harvest Home Service was held in the church on Sunday the church being decorated for the occasion.

The family of Mr. and Mrs. A. Davis gathered on Monday evening in honor of their 49th wedding anniversary. We wish them many more happy years together.

We wish to congratulate Allan Meyer on winning several prizes at the Provincial Ploughing Match held in Brockville last week, also at the North Ontario, held near Sunderland.

We are sorry to hear that Mr. Earl Howsam met with quite a serious accident cranking the tractor while it was in gear, pinning him between it and the wall. He was taken to the General Hospital, Toronto.

ROAD COSTS DROP SHARPLY IN WHITCHURCH

(Continued from front page) to come. Culverts and snow fencing were sought. Council told the agents they would carefully canvas the situation, and would buy for next year when the requirements were known.

Road accounts were the smallest passed at any meeting this year, which was attributed to the work of the new grader, which is proving a real money-saver. The accounts receiving the accent of council for road work were: R. B. Brown, general $2.01; General Supply Co., $90.94; Floyd Preston, operating grader one month $73.85; F. Ball, weeds $2; Jack Sheridan, weeds $6; H. Widdifield, supt. $111.00; Fred Woodhouse, weeds $18; div. 6, $6.35; div. 23 $6.50; div. 16, $5.70; div. 1, $16.60.

On resolution submitted by Councillors Kidd and Wells $25 was granted the North York Plowing Association.

General accounts were noticeably smaller, and included, Unionville Fire Brigade, 2 fires $80; Ontario Hospital, Woodstock, $46; Geo. Hunt valuing sheep $1.50; York County hospitalization $109.75.
