TORONTO- Goodwood FLASHES

The Davey family tested the cool breezes of Island Grove on Sunday.

Newmarket was represented at the library concert by Mrs. Donald Fines.

Mr. and Mrs. George Newman visited Mr. and Mrs. Fred Butler on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Art Latcham visited the Latcham home at Goodwood on Sunday last.

Mrs. Thompson, Mrs. Snider and Mrs. Bennett, daughters of Mrs. Joseph Middleton visited Goodwood on Saturday.

Pleased to hear Mrs. George Stewart was down to the W. I. convention. Hope she enjoyed herself and the Correspondents phone number is still Har. 3012.

Mrs. Harmon Yake and Mrs. Loss Hill spent a few days in Toronto with her niece and nephew Mr. and Mrs. William Gladwell and Mr. and Mrs. Robt. Feaster.

Mr. and Mrs. Diston McDonald spent Wednesday with Toronto friends.

Pleased to hear Marie Feren has again started school after a three week illness.

Mrs. R. Greenbury spent a day in Goodwood. Mrs. Greenbury now lives in Toronto.

Quilting is all the rage in Goodwood. They sure come handy during the months of January, February and March.

Mr. and Mrs. Russell Feasby visited with Mr. and Mrs. Rastus Smalley on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Wellington Smalley, Miss Bertha and Mr. Dean Alcock visited Mr. and Mrs. R. Feasby on Tuesday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Norton also Mr. and Mrs. N. Feasby spent Tuesday at George Wilson's on the 4th.

Oh, oh so sorry to hear my friend Charles Lee has been on the sick list with a cold in neck and back.

Some talk of a change to pictures instead of the usual Christmas entertainment. Well it is pretty hard to beat the old Christmas tree with the children entertaining.

The Correspondent is very sorry to report to the many friends of our beloved friend George Morganson that he was overcome with a stroke on Tuesday morning last at his home at 92 Birch Avenue.

The Correspondent has had many enquiries as to skiing this winter. Too many young folks here Goodwood is better known than ever since this sport has been advertised. Here is hoping for a still better winter this year on the hills.

Birthday greetings to George Evans, Myril Baston, Edna Baston, Walter Brown, Walter Todd, Leslie Myers, Walter Hope, Donald McGillivray, Mable Scott, Roy Schular, Harrison Crawford, Charles Forsyth, Tedd Kidd, all of Goodwood, and Garfield Kellington of Stouffville.

ROSEVILLE
Miss Noreen Brown and Miss Josephine Stiver were the collectors for the Bible Society for Siloam and Roseville, which showed over 1938.

Mr. Will Wagg is sporting a new Dodge car. Right up-to-date eh!

Markham Tp. Council

The annual bylaw providing for the nomination meeting and an election if one is demanded, was passed at the regular session of Markham Township council held at Unionville on Monday. Nomination day will be Friday, Dec. 22nd from 1 to 2 p.m. with election if necessary on January 1st, 8 a.m. to 5 p.m.

Polling booths and officers to man the same were named and are as follows, Findlay's Hall, Thornhill, N. J. Smillie, J. A. Francis; Elgin Mills, Mrs. Allen's house, George Topper; Buttonville, C. Burr; Victoria Square Community Hall, James Smith; Unionville, James Gibson, Wm. Noble; Cashel, Herb. Spofford; Lot 5, Con. 7, George Cowie; Lot 16, Con. 8, Alvin Wideman; Dickson's Hill, Ed. Brownsberger; D. Raymer's house; Mongolia, Wm. Rennie.

T.T.C. report for the month showed an operating profit of $12.36 and a passenger revenue increase of $8.

The report of the school attendance inspector James Gibson was received. Mr. Gibson travelled 152 miles during the year in performance of his duties, which covers the 23 schools in the township. He stated that little trouble had been experienced, and only in the case of two or three schools had it been necessary to make any repeated calls.

A.W. Milroy and James Offen waited on council with regard to assistance in procuring additional snow-fence for their section of the 10th concession. Mr. Butcher of Langstaff requested the inspection of a water course adjoining his property which he claimed gave him a wet cellar at certain periods of the year. Messrs. Morris and Ward who have sought an improved roadway into Lot 2, Concession 5 east, on several occasions were promised an inspection of the same by the road superintendent and an estimate of the cost of improvement. Complaints were lodged against two farmers, one at Dickson's Hill and concession 7, who permit their weeds to grow and become a menace to their neighbor's properties.

Claim was received for $15 for two pigs allegedly killed by dogs, and followed closely a claim made last month for goats killed by dogs. No action will be taken until legal advice is received as to council's right to pay for animals killed other than sheep or cattle. Claim was also received for $8.00 for one sheep killed belonging to C. McCullough.

Relief for the month was $425.33. General road accounts totalled $1,010.12 which included $646.90 for snow fence. Road Foreman's accounts were as follows: J. G. Wideman $42.05, D. Boyd $1.65, L. Grove $10.75, D. Brown $14.55, R. J. Cunningham $203.06, W. B. Heise $91.20, T. Canning $112.77, W. Allchurch $49, E. A. Buchanan $120.70, W. J. Stonehouse $22.05, A. W. Milroy $204.50, C. Wideman $174.88, J. Shadlock $40.05, J. Jones $11.28.

Rt. Rev. A. R. Beverley, suffragan Bishop of Toronto, visited St. Paul's Anglican church at Uxbridge one evening last week to administer the rite of confirmation to candidates presented by the rector, Rev. P. G. Powell.

Sunday School Lesson

LESSON for December 10th
REACTIONS TO THE GOOD NEWS

Golden Text—Come unto me, all ye that labour and are heavy laden, and I will give you rest. Take my yoke upon you, and learn of me; for I am meek and lowly in heart; and ye shall find rest unto your souls. For my yoke is easy, and my burden is light. —Matt. 11:28-30.

The Lesson as a Whole

It has often been remarked that the same sun which softens the wax hardens the clay. So it is with the preaching of the Gospel: some respond to it with gratitude, and enjoy its blessings; others turn from it in unbelief, and so are hardened in their sins. To the one, says Paul, we are a "savour of the life unto life," to the others, "of death unto death" (2 Cor. 2:16). It was so when the Prince of preachers was here. There were those, chiefly among the poor and the outwardly sinful and degraded, who received the message eagerly and found life and healing. But the proud, self-righteous religionists, who did not feel their need of God's grace, spurned the message and the messenger, even blasphemously declaring that the Lord himself was an agent of Beelzebub, the prince of the demons.

Verse 17—"Ye have not danced; ye have not lamented." Neither the glad note of the Gospel nor the solemn call to repentance seemed to have any effect on the great majority of the people.

Verse 18—"John came neither eating nor drinking." John was an ascetic, a man of the wilderness, who denied himself all ordinary comforts. But they declared he was a demoniac.

Verse 19—"A man gluttonous, and a winebibber." Jesus was a man of the people. He moved freely among them and participated in their feasts. But his very geniality was misinterpreted. They accused him of pampering his appetites.

Verse 20—"They repented not." The very cities which had been most privileged by hearing his word and beholding his works of power, refused to change their careless attitude and so continued in their sins.

Verse 21—"Chorazin... Bethsaida." These cities were situated near the northern end of the Sea of Galilee, the one a little to the west, and the other on the shore. Chorazin is today an almost unidentifiable ruin; Bethsaida is a very poor little village.

Verse 22—"More tolerable for Tyre and Sidon." These were Phoenician cities, noted for their wickedness, and destroyed centuries before. But their people are still awaiting the day of judgment. Note that there will be degrees of punishment according to the measure of light rejected.

Verse 23—"Exalted unto heaven, brought down to hell (Hades)." In privilege, Capernaum was blessed above all other cities of Galilee, for the Lord chose it as "his own city" and in it wrought more mighty works than in any other place. In this sense it was indeed exalted. But it was condemned to utter ruin because it knew not the time of its visitation.

Verse 24—"More tolerable for Sodom." Sodom had become a synonym for the vilest and most unnatural sin. But the people of Capernaum were guiltier, because they had much greater light and far more privileges.

Verse 25—"I thank thee, O Father." At the very time when our Lord was experiencing the bitterness of a man's opposition, he turns in worship and praise to the Father, rejoicing that though the great ones in Israel rejected him, the humble received his words.

Verse 26—"Even so, Father." It is the language of complete submission to the Father's will.

Verse 27—"No man knoweth the Son, but the Father." The mystery of the incarnation, God and man in one person, is insoluble and past human comprehension. "He to whomsoever the Son will reveal Him." The Fatherhood of God, unknown by human wisdom, is revealed by the Son. He has made God known to those who receive his words, as the Father of all the redeemed.

Verse 28—"I will give you rest." Jesus speaks in the consciousness of his full deity. Who but God himself could meet all the yearnings of the human heart and give perfect rest? Verse 29—"Ye shall find rest unto your souls." This is that rest of heart and mind which the trusting soul enjoys, who submits to the yoke of Christ.

Verse 30—"My yoke is easy, and my burden is light." A yoke is designed to curb the will and bring one under control. He who exchanges his sin's heavy burden for the glorious burden of submission to the Lord finds it blessed indeed to serve so good a Master.
