Ringwood

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Tate of Baker Hill and family entertained a number of relatives and friends during the holidays. They were Mr. John Houck of Cashel, Mrs. Alex. Tate of Markham, the Misses Edna and Bertha Tate, Montreal, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Byer and family, Mr. and Mrs. Puterbaugh and family of Maple.

Over a hundred head of cattle are being fed at the Burnbrae barns on the Ringwood farms of George Rodanz. That amount of stock would consume a few hundredweight a day with ease. Only cattle are fed on this farm, hogs all being on the former Timbers place. Operations on the big Ringwood farm is most interesting, to folks interested in stock.

David Harris is our No. 1 bricklayer, who has laid more brick this winter without mortar than anyone else within a big radius. He has completed a second well, for the two houses recently erected by Ratcliff, and in each case the well was dug 25 feet, then bored a short distance when good flows were obtained. Dave put in the brick curbing and appears to have

REGINA TURKEY GRACES GOODWOOD TABLE

Twenty-six friends and relatives gathered at the home of Mr. Edmund Whittleton at Goodwood on Saturday, Jan. 6th to celebrate his 80th birthday. The occasion was marked by a surprise turkey dinner, the turkey being sent from Regina by his eldest daughter, Mrs. J. Adams.

The afternoon was spent in games and music then a buffet luncheon was served when Mr. Whittleton cut his birthday cake which was made and decorated by his granddaughter Lillian Bacon. Mr. Whittleton has spent practically all his life on the farm where he now lives, moving there at the age of six from the farm on the 4th concession of Uxbridge now occupied by Mrs. Bentley.

Despite his declining years this pioneer farmer enjoys fair health and is quite active. He loaded some fifty loads of hay last summer. He has a family of 10 children living, Mrs. J. Adams (Bertha) of Regina, Roy of Sandford, Man., Russel of Fusilier, Sask., Mrs. J. James (Nettie) of Goodwood, Mrs. J. Brown (Elizabeth) of Claremont, Mrs. F. Gostick (Hattie) of Pickering, Ella, Wm., of Calgary, Mrs. S. Bacon (Flossie) of Gariabaldi, Mrs. T. Bowman (Beatrice) of Winnipeg, also two brothers, John of Toronto and Wesley who lives at home.

Green River

Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Michell spent a week recently in Detroit.

Miss Margo Wilson, the artist who makes a specialty of painting animals, has gone to Florida. Miss Wilson plans to visit a few other artists whom he met at the New York studios and in Europe enroute.

Cottage prayer was held on Wednesday this week at Mr. T. Williams.

Our pastor Mr. Brubacher has gone to Colbourne to hold meetings in the mission for two weeks.

Mr. Perry Edwards who has been in a Toronto Hospital has been moved to Hamilton so let us keep him in touch with Gormley as news from home is cheery to those who are away.

We wish a speedy recovery to Mr. Delbert Baker who has been spending a few days in bed. Mrs. David Snyder has been visiting with Mrs. Ernest Hunt for a few days.

To those who may not know the Mennonite People are having services every Sunday night instead of every other Monday night. Come along and join us.

Mr. and Mrs. Brubacher had tea with Mr. and Mrs. George Baker Tuesday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Willis Lehman, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Lehman and son also Mr. Harmon Lehman visited Mr. and Mrs. George Baker on Thursday evening.

Last year the Gormley Institute sent a copy of The Tribune as a gift to two of the local boys one in the San at Gravenhurst, and the other in a similar institution in Hamilton. From Gravenhurst comes word that the paper is so much appreciated the patient, Elwood Fisher is making the editor a pair of gloves as a gift for continuing the weekly news to him. When one is tied up with ill health, it must be a glorious feeling each week to receive the home news in detail, such as one could scarcely send any other way. Well, Elwood is sure of his paper, so see that you supply plenty of news to your local scribe or direct by phone to the office.

We were all glad to hear that Mr. and Mrs. Elgin Brubacher had arrived safely in England en route to Africa where they are going as missionaries.
