WOOD-LOTS AVERAGE NEARLY $100 ACRE

The big crowd attending the wood lot sale on the Henry Hoover farm, corner of the townline and sixth concession of Markham, was like that seen at farm stock sales. Six acres of standing timber was knocked down to the highest bidders, the top price obtained for quarter acre lots being $40, with the six acres averaging close to $100 an acre. This piece of bush had not been cut in fifty years. Mr. Hoover told The Tribune, and while the price ruled high, he thought it was a very fine section of timber he disposed of. Buyers came from considerable distance.

BUTCHERS DISSOLVE PARTNERSHIP

Messrs. Lou Tindall and John Carr who opened a butchering business in the block west of the Mansion House a few months ago, have dissolved partnership, and the business will be carried on by Mr. Carr and his son who recently joined him in Stouffville.

VETERAN PUBLISHER DIES IN NEW LISKEARD

Elijah F. Stephenson, dean of Ontario newspaper publishers died at his home in New Liskeard, on Saturday, at the age of 94 after a brief illness. In 1904 Mr. Stephenson came here and founded the New Liskeard Speaker, which only recently left the Stephenson family control and became the Temiskaming Speaker. Born near Newmarket, he moved to Aurora as a boy and later published the Aurora Banner.

Miss Hazel Brander spent the weekend in Toronto, visiting her uncle Herbert Lager.

MARRIED 57 YEARS MRS. SAM HOOVER DEAD

Lydia Cleaver beloved wife of Samuel Hoover passed away at her late residence, O'Brien Ave., on Sunday afternoon, Jan. 21, in her 86th year. Mrs. Hoover was born in Pickering Village where her parents located when coming from North Hampshire, Eng., 92 years ago. On March 15, 1883 she was married to Mr. Samuel Hoover by the Rev. W. Percy. On April of the same year they located on Lot 5, Con. 8, Whitchurch where they lived for 34 years. They then went to live with their daughter Mrs. Percy Brown and then came to Stouffville 17 years ago where she has resided till her death. She is survived by her husband who is now blind and in poor health, one daughter (Myrtle) Mrs. Brown, and five grandchildren. An only surviving sister Mrs. Isaac Boadway of Stouffville and three brothers John Cleaver of town and Wellington and James of Tara. Mrs. Hoover was a member of the Christian Church, Bloomington for 71 years where her daughter and son-in-law are still members, and the service on Wednesday was conducted by Rev. E. Morton, and S. H. Cockburn. Interment was made in Stouffville Cemetery.

FORMER PASTOR BUYS UXBRIDGE RESIDENCE

The Angus McDonald home in the town of Uxbridge adjoining the park bridge in the south part of the town, has been sold to Rev. W. W. Fleischer of Fenelon Falls, and one time pastor of the Baptist church in Stouffville. This is a fine old home, with the pond at its southern boundary. There are three acres of land, and a large frame house with ample trees about. The house overlooks the famous park bridge so familiar to trout anglers and a very popular place every first of May especially.

THE LEMONVILLE AUCTION

The peaceful simplicity which usually prevails over the village of Lemonville is to be broken this Friday afternoon when the shouts of the auctioneer's "How much" will be heard from the farm of Roy Morley, where the goods and chattels of the late John Phillips will be offered for sale by auctioneer A. S. Farmer. Besides the furniture and other articles the property belonging to this estate nearby the scene of the sale will be offered. See the display adv in this issue for all particulars.

UXBRIDGE BIBLE CLASS TO HEAR FINN SPEAK

Friends in Stouffville of the Uxbridge Business Men's Bible Class who would like to hear a first hand description of Finland and its present life and death struggle, are invited to the annual banquet of the class to be held in the neighboring town next Wednesday evening, January 31. A Finnish speaker familiar with his country, its aspirations and determination, will describe conditions few others could do. Pictures of Finland will be shown. This banquet begins at 7 p.m.

The War Branch meeting will be held on Thursday, January 25, in the Municipal Hall, at 3 p.m. Donations are gratefully acknowledged from Mrs. C. Stouffer $1, The Stouffville Jr. Institute $5, and the Sr. Institute $25.00.

8th Line Markham

Miss Evelyn Byer of Toronto was home over the weekend. Mr. and Mrs. Carson Wideman of Almira were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Wideman on Sunday. Miss Myrtle Miller of Portland, Oregon, and Miss Marjorie Snyder of High River, Alta., were visitors last week at the homes of Mr. and Mrs. William Wideman and with Mr. and Mrs. Allan Wideman. With the prevailing cold weather of last week, people were pretty well confined to their homes and the traffic on this busy highway was considerably slowed down. Near zero temperature in the far away Southern States, reminds us that this part of Old Ontario is not so bad after all. Delegates from all the neighboring Sunday Schools, have been appointed to the annual convention which will be held on Thursday of this week. The morning session which opens at 10 o'clock will be held in the M.B.C. church north Markham, the afternoon and evening sessions in the United Church in Markham.

Stouffville Church Marks Progress

The Stouffville United Church raised $4,877.41 for local expenses, thank-offering, and Missionary and Maintenance, it is disclosed by the annual year book issued this Wednesday for the annual meeting. While $1232 was raised for the M. and M. fund, it is expected that with later contributions this amount will reach over $1,300. The Sunday School contributed $75 to the fund. The Women's Missionary Society raised over $500, including a bale packed during the year and valued at $161.57. Another large organization, the Women's Association showed receipts of $436, including a balance on hand from the previous year of $267. All other organizations showed good reports for the year. The annual meeting this Wednesday evening will take the form of a pot luck supper, to be followed by the reading of reports and other business. The total membership of the church is 348, a slight advance over the previous year, after allowing for deaths and other removals. Twenty were received into the church during the year, by profession of faith and by certificate from other charges.

Mr. Martin Reesor was 75 years old on Tuesday. He's seen many ups and downs since that day three quarters of a century ago, but is an active smart man despite it all. The family honored him on this natal occasion, at his home opposite the public school. The regular monthly meeting of the Young Women's Evening Auxiliary was held at the home of Miss Gertrude Todd, Main Street, on Wednesday of last week. A stimulating talk by Mrs. Hastings was a high light of the evening. Erma Holden ably took charge of the worship period, assisted by Janet Button and Helen Rowbotham. Misses Anne Lehman and Eva Hoover provided a musical number. Eva Hoover and Anne Lindsay were tea hostesses.

Mr. Rutledge, charged with practicing dentistry in Newmarket without the customary license from the Royal Dental Society, was fined $100 with the option of two months in jail, in police court at Newmarket on Tuesday. The dentist is said to have declared he would spend the time in confinement rather than pay the shot. The annual license fee is very small, but a continual refusal to pay would bring about the situation. ENGAGEMENTS Mr. and Mrs. N. B. Henderson announce the engagement of their daughter Myrtle Irene to Mr. John S. Scharback son of Mr. and Mrs. S. J. Scharback of Cargill. The marriage to take place early in February.
