

TOWN TOPICS

Mrs. Benj. Burkitt has just been advised of the death of her brother-in-law the late Alex. Morrison of Vancouver, who retired at the coast Mr. Morrison for many years was the postmaster at Coleman, Alta., where the town flag was flown at half-mast in solemn recognition of the passing of a former leading citizen. Mr. Morrison was 62 years of age.

Thirty-one below zero is reported for New Liskeard by Mrs. Dora Smith, a former resident of O'Brien Avenue, now living in the northern town. That was an exceptional dip, Mrs. Smith explains, but all along the weather this winter has been nice, and being very dry it does not penetrate one so readily as the damper old Ontario weather. Glad to learn Mrs. Smith is retaining her health.

Mrs. Jos. Kirk was a caller at the Tribune on Saturday, and we were sorry to learn from her that Mrs. Kirk is suffering quite severely from heart ailment. Mr. and Mrs. Kirk have been on the 8th of Markham for 33 years, and the friends everywhere will be sorry to learn that illness is becoming such a handicap to a faithful tiller of the soil.

Fresh from the Barbering College in Toronto, Mr. Jack Pennock is home again, having completed his course, which qualifies him to practise the tonorial art in all its nicety, deftness of touch, and delicacy. Jack will not shrink from a Blue Beard or a dusty thrasher with beards in his "alfalfa" and whiskers, much less the sweet damsel whose every curl must be exactly placed. He has taken a position at Snowball's barbering shop in the Collard block.

The Stouffville Junior Institute February meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. H. O. Klink on Thursday of next week, February 8, at 2.30 o'clock. Rev. C. I. Cullen, returned missionary will speak on the Customs of the Bantee Tribe in Africa. The roll call will be answered by an old valentine. There will be a meat cooking demonstration by Miss Marjorie Mertens. Miss Laura Hill will conduct a valentine contest.

The World's Day of Prayer will be recognized in Stouffville by a public meeting this Friday afternoon at 3 o'clock in the Presbyterian Church, where all local women are asked to assemble and offer their support in this great world movement. Prayer is the soul's sincere desire,

There is a growing mixup about the Wednesday half holiday for the winter season. All grocery stores, barber shops, hardware, gents' furnishings and the Dollar Store close every Wednesday at noon. For the most part all other lines or stores are open, druggist, butcher, feed stores, Shaw's, post office, banks and restaurants.

Do not forget the concert of the Uxbridge Choral Society. Mr. Fletcher, conductor, on Friday evening, under the auspices of the Sr. Women's Institute. The proceeds are for war work. An excellent program has been prepared which will include orchestra selections, electric brass quartette, choral numbers, motettes and operetic numbers, male choruses, violin solos by the celebrated violinist, Anthony Remouch, and reading by Miss Ida Fallowdown. The orchestra will play from 7.45 to 8.10.

Last Wednesday one of the Toronto evening papers reported that the Stouffville Board of Trade provided the program at Aurora for an organization there. This, of course, was an error, as Stouffville has no Board of Trade, and the names of those supposed to have participated in the meeting from this village were not local people at all. Try as they may, newspapers will make errors, but this one caused no harm to anyone. Some years ago this town did have a Board of Trade in which the late Dr. Ira Freel was one of the prime personages and its president for some years. It is the kind of organization that can do a lot of good in any town, and its revival here would be an advantage to the business men especially.

Mrs. Alf. Hoover entertained the Women's Association of the United Church at her home for their January meeting—Miss S. Daly presided. Mrs. R. Young conducted the worship period and Miss H. Rowbotham gave a short talk on "Why I Go to Church." Mrs. H. W. Sanders and Mrs. C. Pipher sang a duet. Rev. L. E. Atkinson installed the following officers: President, Mrs. J. Blake Sanders; 1st vice-pres., Miss S. Daly; 2nd vice pres., Mrs. Elmer Still; rec. sec'y., Mrs. D. Cook; financial sec'y., Mrs. J. R. Hodgins; treas., Mrs. Levi Hoover; parsonage committee, Mrs. I. Barkey, Mrs. K. G. Tarr, Mrs. J. R. Hodgins; kitchen committee, Mrs. A. Hoover; flower committee, Mrs. W. H. Shaw, Mrs. F. L. Button; pianists, Mrs. G. R. W. Thomas, Mrs. L. E. Atkinson.

Two grandchildren of Mr. and Mrs. George Austin of Stouffville had rather a thrilling day recently. Little June and Peter Ellis, children of Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Ellis of R.R.1, Orangeville, were among the small children hurriedly paraded from the school building in their township when the furnace shot flames through the floor register. It was some excitement the youngsters had to tell about on reaching home. However, at six o'clock the pipes in their own home caught on fire and the danger was fought for two hours. The children ran out in the cold without their shoes on, but suffered no serious harm. Some folks would remember a fire they experienced all their lives, but here is an instance where two youngsters on the threshold of life, went through the experience at school and at home within a few short hours, and according to their mother the former Lillian Austin, they were more than excited.

The lenten season began yesterday with Ash Wednesday.

Mrs. S. J. Clarkson, Toronto, was in town last week visiting her sister Mrs. D. H. Cook.

Mr. Edward R. Good, Kitchen-er, embalmer for Schrieter-Saudrock Funeral Home, spent the weekend at home with Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Good at the Brierbush.

Bruce Clark of Peterboro who is attending Pickering College, Newmarket, was here over the weekend visiting at the home of his aunt Mrs. F. C. Rowbotham.

Snip out the program for Friday night's concert in the United Church and bring it along. You will find it convenient. The Uxbridge Choral Society promise a worth-while entertainment here under auspices of the Senior Women's Institute. The advance ticket sale has been good, so come on time and secure your seat.

Mr. Delbert Holden, quite ill for the past three weeks, is getting around again, and was out on Monday for the first, when he took his seat at the village council meeting that evening. Mr. Holden is in the midst of a building program at his newly acquired Mansion House property which is being renovated to suit the needs of the Ford agent and his service station.

There was a good crowd at the skating carnival on Wednesday night last week, under auspices of the War Veterans. Music was supplied by the Stouffville Band, and prizes were won as follows: Men's race, Randolph Forsyth, Norman Steckley; boys race, Grant Turner, Fred Cunneyworth; ladies' race, Betty Williams, Mary Davis; mixed race, doubles Claude and Eulah Brillinger, Alfred Thomas and Betty Williams.

The weather man has been acting rather peculiar this winter all over the world. France and England have experienced the coldest spells in years, while away up on the Arctic circle where the Finns are battling for their very existence against the Russian invader, it has been colder than at any time in 60 years. Even the more favored people who enjoy the winter down in California and Florida were touched with frost when it should have been warm nights, and as a result the beautiful foliage was frozen. Imagine a frost in Ontario during August and you have the situation facing them down South. The Buttons from Stouffville in cards sent to friends tell of the havoc frost caused around their magnificent Sans Souci apartments where they are now staying in St. Petersburg. Some day the clamps will be put on Hitler and Stalin for the havoc they bring to the world, but the weather-man, never!

Following within a week the death of her brother-in-law Frank Flint, Mrs. Paul Flint passed away at her home, Beaver Lodge, Alberta, on January 30 in her 82nd year. Her maiden name was Jane Elizabeth Kell, and while not a native of Stouffville, her husband who survives her was a member of a well known family here. Mr. and Mrs. Paul Flint went to Western Canada years ago, where he finally was appointed to the Government Experimental Farm in the Peace River District. Mr. Flint is still active, although he is a man of probably 86 years. Besides the husband there survives two daughters and two sons, Mrs. Sydney G. Green, Ida, George and Victor Flint. Mrs. Frank Baker, who is a niece of Mr. Flint, with Mr. Baker attended the funeral in Toronto last week of Frank Flint, when Paul's two brothers, Matthew of Toronto, and Simco of Rochester were both present.

Mrs. Leslie Hodgson is visiting her sister in Aurora, Mrs. Auburn.

We would advise merchants to place orders for counter check books and guard against advanced prices. The Tribune is in a position to quote the lowest prices possible obtaining for any style of books required.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack O'Neill have moved to Belleville where he will be engaged with the oldest undertaking establishment in that city. Mr. O'Neill served his apprenticeship with his brother L. E. O'Neill here, and passed his examinations as an embalmer with honor standing. Mrs. O'Neill is the former Nelda Lehman, who with her husband, have the best wishes of their friends here for a happy time in their new surroundings in the beautiful Hastings county centre. Their household effects were shipped on Monday.

Mrs. Louisa Taylor, aged 71 years, passed away at the home of her sister Mrs. Elizabeth A. Wilson, Victoria street, on Monday, and was taken back to Toronto for burial. Deceased was not widely known in town, having come here six years ago following the death of her husband in Markham village at that time. She had been in declining health for a long time and this probably kept her from being active in the community. For years Mrs. Taylor had lived in Toronto, before she came to Markham with her husband. They had no children. Death was due to a stroke. Friends of Mrs. Wilson who for a long time was housekeeper for Mr. M. T. Leavens, extends their sympathy in her irreparable loss.

HIGH SCHOOL NOTES

The Stouffville High School hockey team defeated the Markham puck chasers last Wednesday by a score of 4-2. In the first twenty minutes of play Bob Abell scored for the local team and Watson for the opposing squad, making the score 1-1 at the end of the first period. Bob Abell scored two more goals in the second session from assists by Cadieux and Schell. Markham however took advantage of a major penalty to Cadieux in the last period to get their second counter. With only a few minutes to go, Cadieux scored the last goal from Abell to make the final score 4-2.

The next game is scheduled to be played on home ice this Friday against Scarboro Collegiate.

Last Friday afternoon the High School Literary Society held their first meeting of the new year. The school sang "O Canada" and after business proceedings Jim Abell took the chair. The program which was judged by the critic to be the best of the term, was directed by Mr. Bailey and put on by the students of Grade XI. Gordon Baker read the school paper which included the prize poem by Muriel Jones and the prize essay by Mary and Helen Burkholder. "Tres Mures," a song in latin was sang by the entire form, after which Vern Davies gave a talk on harmony. Joyce Ball and Elaine Baker sang "Santa Lucia" and eight of the students recited the "Ballad of The Captains." Stringed instruments were discussed by Hazel Brander and facts about the euphonium were given by Murray Vague. Following these talks Ted Cadieux, Gordon Baker and George Smith played two selections on violins and guitar and Wilbur Smalley played a number.

Concerning the late William Hasting who died in Bradford as reported in our last issue, the Bradford Witness has this to say:

"The death of William Hastings' last Wednesday, Jan. 24th, about the noon hour, occurred most unexpectedly. The previous week Mr. Hastings had returned home after spending eight weeks in Newmarket Hospital, ill with pneumonia, and appeared to be convalescing most satisfactorily. He was able to sit up for short periods and move about his room, and on Wednesday, following his lunch,

● To make profits from hogs, feed Quaker Pig Starter, and get them ready for market at 200 to 220 pounds weight at the age of about 5 to 6 months.

Quaker Pig Starter is built around oatmeal, and research farms have definitely proved that oatmeal makes pigs grow faster, develops big strong frames, and increases resistance to disease. Because oatmeal is 94% digestible, there is less waste, and the pigs convert it into meat far more quickly and economically.

Scientifically correct, Quaker Pig Starter contains all the 17 ingredients required to give best results in developing strong, fast-growing hogs from the third to tenth week; including iodine to prevent goitre; iron to prevent anemia!

For finishing after the tenth week, feed Quaker Pig-N-Hog Maker.

he took a little walk about his room, and after sitting down, was seized with a heart attack, from which he passed away a few minutes later.

The late Mr. Hastings was born in Markham Township 82 years ago and was the last surviving member of a family of nine. He grew up and was educated in the Markham district, and, as a young man, went as a pioneer farmer to Western Canada in 1882, residing at Virden, Man. In 1917 he retired from farming and came to make his home in Bradford, residing with his sister, the late Miss Hastings, who predeceased him two years ago last September. For a number of years his niece, Miss Dorothy Noble, has resided here, first with her aunt and uncle and latterly with her

Mr. Hastings, who was of a quiet and retiring disposition, made many friends among his fellow townsmen, who learned with much regret of his sudden passing. He was a member of the Presbyterian Church and until the last few months of failing health, was regularly in attendance.

The funeral, which took place from his late residence on Friday afternoon at 2 p.m., was private. A friend of the family, Rev. Dr. T. H. Mitchell of Ringwood, conducted the services, assisted by Rev. Graham, of Bradford. Interment was in Melville Cemetery.

The pall-bearers were Messrs. Thomas Hastings, of Markham; Garnett Francey, of Gormley; James Noble, of Toronto; Isaac Cairns, Harry Wilson and Geo. Morton, of Bradford.
