S. S. Classes Picnic

The Sunday School classes of Mrs. Fred Ward and Miss Kathleen Beelby were guests on Saturday of Mrs. Ross Farr's Jolly Juniors, in the flats on Roy Brighall's place south of the village. The afternoon was spent in fishing and hiking through the woods. A picnic lunch was served to a most tired but happy group of boys and girls.

Trustee Attempts Resignation

One of the local village trustees, William Thompson tendered his resignation last week to the secretary of the trustee board, Mr. Alf. Pretty. However, Mr. Pretty refused to accept the document on the grounds that it should be filed with the clerk of the Township Council. It is unofficially reported that Mr. Thompson holds different viewpoints to the other members of the board and this it is said led to his resignation being drawn up.

7th Line Son Takes Green River Bride

In the prettily decorated Green River Baptist Church on Saturday evening, May 11th, at 7.30 p.m., Julia Lois Marjorie, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Mel. Draper of that place became the bride of John Blake Lehman, son of Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Lehman of the 7th Concession, Pickering. Rev. H. Wilson officiated. The bride in a dainty gown of blue satin with a white veil and carrying pink roses was given in marriage by her father and was supported by Margaret McLeod of Vancouver, a cousin, wearing pink satin and carrying red roses. Bruce Lehman, brother of the groom acted as best man.

Miss Julia Wilson played the wedding music while her brother Benson Wilson sang "I Love You Truly" during the signing of the register. Ushers were Ross Carter and William Sadler.

Following the ceremony a short reception was held, at the home of the bride's grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Wilson, Mrs. Draper received, gowned in white with pink corsage.

The couple left by motor for a honeymoon in the north country, the bride travelling in a navy blue suit with pink accessories. On their return they will reside at Wilson's Park, Green River.

Mrs. Jas. Stephenson Buried Monday

The death occurred in St. Michael's Hospital, Toronto on Saturday, May 11th, of Mrs. Jas. A. Stephenson in her 67th year. Mrs. Stephenson whose maiden name was Mildred Lorraine White, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lorenzo White of Greenwood passed away after a lingering illness, and although she has spent some time now in the hospital her death came as a distinct shock.

Married 39 years ago, Mrs. Stephenson has been a native of Pickering Township, all her life, coming to their present farm on the 9th concession three years ago. She was a member of the United Church and was very active with the choir of Brougham church while a resident in that district.

This mother leaves to mourn her loss a sorrowing husband, three sons, Elmer of Kingston, Rex in Toronto and Oscar in Toronto, two daughters, Mrs. Levi Norton of Uxbridge and Mrs. Thos. Harper at home, also one sister Mrs. Frank Smith of Toronto.

The funeral service was held at the late home on Monday with interment in Claremont Union Cemetery. Rev. McVeigh of Mt. Zion officiated. Pall bearers were the three sons, Levi Norton and Fred and Harold Wilson of Oshawa.

Trappers Got Good Prices

It would appear from the reports of several of the local lads who engaged in trapping muskrats on some of the creeks just north of the village, that the season which closed last week has been one of the most profitable seasons in many a year. Prices are understood to have been good, with buyers offering $1.40 and over for prime skins. A few buyers in Toronto it is said offered as high as $2.25. No large scale spring floods hampered the trappers and conditions were ideally suited.

For that light ready-to-wear suits or those sport trousers see F. E. Rae, tailor. His prices will please you.

Home Improvements Please Your Family

RUNNING water under pressure to all parts of your house will make possible the installation of those modern conveniences so necessary to the health and enjoyment of your family and increase their pride in their home.

A woman spends a good part of each day in the kitchen. It should be Emco equipped throughout to lessen her work and make it a pleasure instead of drudgery.

For the health of your family a modern bathroom is necessary. One fitted entirely with Emco Fittings and Fixtures will give you most pleasure, service and value.

To allow installation of these improvements a

Duro Water Supply System

will pump, under pressure, all the water needed. In addition, it can be piped to barns and any other needed outlet.

EMCO products are very reasonably priced.

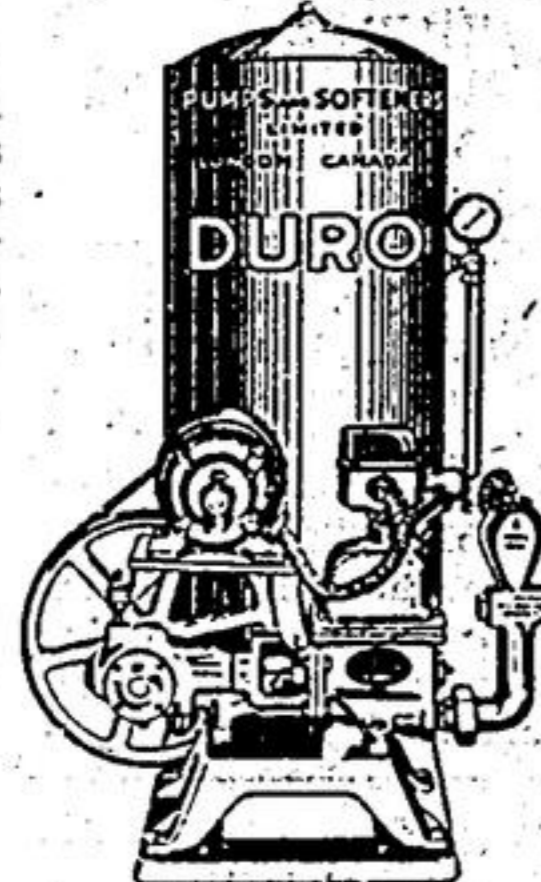

The Snow-white 20" x 42" Enamelled Sink, illustrated above, including faucet ready for installation, costs.....$32.90

Sink and Cabinet with faucet.....$61.30
(Trap, iron pipe and fittings extra)

The Duro Special Pump has a capacity of 250 gals. per hour; is supplied with a 25 gal. tank and 25 or 60 cycle motor. It costs only.....$86.00
