

Crosse & Blackwell's Soups

Chicken Broth, Vegetable, Beef, Cream Celery, Cream Tomato, Cream Mushroom, Scotch Broth.
2 med. tins 25c

Crosse & Blackwell DATE & NUT BREAD

delicious and different per tin 15c

- Kellogg's All Bran, 2 small pkgs. 25c
- Maple Leaf Baking Powder, 1 lb. tin 15c
- Wax Paper, 40 ft. Rolls 10c
- Vanilla, 16 oz. jug 23c
- Paterson's Fruit Flavoured Gums, lb. 15c
- Sweet Mixed Pickles, large jar 25c
- Zest Plu mJam, 32 oz. jar 25c
- Guest Jelly Powders, assorted, 6 pkgs. 25c

FRESH FISH EVERY TUESDAY MORNING
Fresh Fruits and Vegetables

Ratcliff & Co.

Town Delivery Stouffville, Ontario Phone 7112

CEDAR GROVE UNITED

Cedar Grove United Church invites you to attend the Golden Jubilee Services of the present church building on Sunday, June 16, 8nd Sunday, June 23rd. The guest preachers are: June 16th, 2.30 p.m.—Rev. Robert Martin, D.D., 7.30 p.m.—Rev. Charles Malcolm, M.A.

June 23rd, 2.30 and 7.30 p.m., Rev. E. Leslie Pidgeon, M.A., D.D. of Montreal.

On Thursday, June 20—A Service of Memories and Communion Service at 8 o'clock. Preacher—Rev. W. R. Auld, B.A., B.D. Loud speaker arrangements for church grounds.

Victoria Square

In the absence of Rev. Mr. Macdonald on Sunday, Rev. Mr. Moore, was the guest speaker at the United Church.

Charles Stansbury has accepted a position with Mr. Egbert Avison.

On Sunday next the Sunday School will hold special anniversary services at 2.30 and 7 p.m. The guest preacher will be Rev. Mr. Rumbley of Agincourt and there will be special musical numbers.

The baseball game scheduled for last Friday night between Victoria Square and Mount Pisgah had to be postponed on account of wet weather.

Several of the young farmers of this community attended the York County Livestock Judging Competition held at Richmond Hill on Wednesday of last week. None, however, were listed among the prize winners for judging.

The Y. P. U. on Sunday evening was quite well attended. The program was in charge of the Missionary Convener, Bonnie Robertson. Boyd Mount gave the topic on the subject "Honour Thy Father." There were also special musical numbers.

The Junior Farmers Club has accepted the kind invitation of the Stouffville club to meet with them on Tuesday, June 18, in Ratcliff's Hall. As these inter-club gatherings are always very interesting, it is hoped the local club will turn out in full force.

On Friday evening, June 14, the W. M. S. will hold their regular monthly meeting in the church. The meeting is of special interest to all members, both present and past, as it marks their 43rd anniversary of the society. The special speaker will be Rev. Mr. Irwin, a former pastor at the Square but now stationed at Lemonville. Everyone is cordially invited to attend.

On Friday evening last the pupils of the Square school held their annual at-home and exhibition of work which was very fine indeed. Owing to conflicting entertainments the crowd was not as large as it otherwise would have been although a good number was present. The debate between Victoria Square and Buttonville pupils on the subject "Resolved that travelling is more interesting and of greater educational value than reading," was won by the Square who had the negative side.

On Friday night of last week the local Junior Farmers and Institute were hosts to one of the Toronto Kiwanis Clubs at a Garden Party and Dance at the home of Mr. Dalton Rumney. Owing to wet weather some of the games that had been arranged for had to be withdrawn, but nevertheless things kept humming throughout the late afternoon and on into the night. The Unionville J. F. Club, presented the play "Brothers in Arms," The Kiwanis Boys Band was in attendance and played several selections. Dancing in the barn concluded the program. The Junior Farmers and Kiwanis Club are both very grateful to Mr. Rumney for permitting the use of his property for the occasion.

UNIONVILLE ANNOUNCE FIRST FESTIVAL

Strawberry Festival, the first to be announced this season is being planned for Friday, June 28, by Central United Church, Unionville. Details as to just where the festival will take place will be announced in our next issue.

TENT MEETING NOW IN PROGRESS

Despite the wet weather tent meetings at Pike's Peak continue to attract crowds nightly. Rev. R. P. Dittmer of Ohio is bringing messages each evening that are creating a profound impression, while Mrs. Dittmer is a lovely soloist whom all should hear. Meetings each evening at 7.45, and three services on Sunday. Pastor Rev. I. Brubacher is anxious for everybody with an open evening to visit his camp.

Marriages

BEARE—HEISEY

St. Andrew's United Church, Markham was the scene Wednesday, of the marriage of Norma Lorraine Heisey, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Norman L. Heisey, Markham, and Russell John Thomas Beare, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Beare, Armadale. Rev. B. E. Newham officiated, assisted by Rev. J. T. Hicks. The church was decorated with spring flowers, Mrs. A. J. Woods played the wedding music and Miss Margaret Woods sang. The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of net and lace with finger-tip veil caught to the head with orange blossoms. She carried roses. The bride was attended by Miss Thelma Bowser, of Mount Dennis, and Mrs. Roy Soper, Toronto, the former in turquoise blue flowered organdie with rose velvet trimming and the latter in rose flowered organdie with blue trimming. Myrna Heisey, Toronto, and Ruth Bowser, Mount Dennis, were flower girls, in rose and blue organdie. Gordon Clayton was best man, and the ushers were Ernest C. J. Bowser, Austin Baker, Lloyd Coxworth and Ray Coxworth. The reception followed at the home of the bride's parents, the bride's mother wearing dusky rose sheer with corsage of blue flowers, and the groom's mother in powder blue sheer with corsage of rose flowers. The couple left for Quebec City and eastern points, the bride travelling in royal blue coat with white accessories. They will reside in Armadale.

Mrs. Mahon 83, Last of Family of Ten

Mrs. Mahon of Bloomington, aged 82, whose sister just died in South Buxton Township, near Chatham, is the last surviving member of a family of ten children whose parents came to Bloomington from the old land sixty-seven years ago and first took up a home right in the hamlet in the spot now occupied by Richard English. Mrs. Mahon was the youngest child, and her sister who just died was Mrs. Isabella Hill. The Merlin Standard reports her death as follows:

"The death occurred at her home, South Buxton, on Monday night, May 27th, of Mrs. Isabella Hill, widow of the late John Hill, at the advanced age of 86 years, 2 months and 23 days.

Mrs. Hill leaves to mourn her loss, one daughter Miss Cassie M. Hill at home, two grandchildren, Mr. Lewis King, Treasurer of Raleigh township, and Mrs. John Roe of Merlin, and one great grandchild. A

CEDAR BEACH LAKE MUSSELMAN

JUNIOR FARMERS' PICNIC AND DANCE

Friday, June 14th
A GRAND ORCHESTRA

"Man, oh man, how my Pigs are coming along on Master Pig Starter. It sure saves a lot of time, money and feed."

Master Pig Starter 50lbs. per pig is all you need!

Central Feed Store

Phone 277

For Service

KING'S BIRTHDAY

Today, Thursday, is being observed as the King's birthday, and on this occasion the banks are closed, also the post office and schools throughout the country. All other lines of business will be carried on as usual in Stouffville. The wicket at the post office will be open from 9 to 10.30 in the morning, as a special accommodation.

BARN DANCE

On the farm of FRANK BROWN of UNIONVILLE
Tues., June 18
8.30 standard
Auspices of L.O.L. 228, Unionville
Pring's Orchestra
Admission 25c

PICNICS, A SPECIALTY AT "RIVERSIDE PARK"
2 1/2 Miles East of Markham, and 1/4 Miles North of No. 7 Highway
J. L. Pike,
Stouffville R.R.1.
Markham: 1513.

STANLEY THEATRE

Phone 100
Showing each night at 8.15, (s.t.)
Saturday and Holidays 7.00 and 9.00

THURSDAY, FRIDAY, 13-14
TWO NIGHTS ONLY

"Flying Ducees"
(Laurel and Hardy)
ON THE STAGE
"The Swingcopators."
Stars of Stage, Screen, Radio.

SATURDAY, JUNE 15
ONE NIGHT

"The Old Maid"
Bette Davis - George Brent
Comedy and Short Subjects

JUNE-17-18-19
"U-Boat 29"
Conrad Veidt Valerie Hobson
Sebastian Shaw.

Going Somewhere?

BUSES LEAVE FOR TORONTO
a 6.15 a.m.
b 8.25 a.m. c 2.45 p.m.
b 8.40 p.m.
a daily except Sun. & Hol.;
b Sun. & Hol.; c Sat. only.

BUS TRAVEL INFORMATION AT BROWN BETTY TEA ROOMS
Phone 198

GRAY COACH LINES

Church Hill

Christian Endeavour meeting is cancelled for this week.

Mr. John Graham visited with Mr. C. Degeer on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Vaughan visited at Bond Head recently.

Stanley Martin of Detroit spent the weekend at the Martin home, Mr. J. Martin returning with him to Detroit for a holiday.

Mrs. G. Thompson and Roy were spending a few days with friends near Newmarket.

Mr. and Mrs. W. McKeown and family visited with Mr. and Mrs. Vaughan in Bloomington on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Herb Pegg attended the wedding Saturday of Andrew Pegg's daughter near Green River.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Beach visited at Will. Beach's on Sunday.

The sympathy of the community is extended to the Conner family in the death of Mr. Malcom Conner, who was laid to rest in Church Hill Cemetery on Wednesday.

Miss Hazel Pegg employed at Dr. S. S. Ball's home was taken to Toronto General Hospital last Friday morning. We are glad to say she is some what improved.

Bloomington

Mrs. W. H. Jones attended the wedding of her niece Miss Pegg at Kinsale on Saturday.

The Misses Pat. and Gloria Over of Toronto were callers at O. H. Tramer's on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. M. Lemon of Belleville were weekend visitors at his brother's home.

Mr. and Mrs. E. Morganson of Goodwood were at Miss Hill's on Sunday.

Miss C. M. Hill of Merlin, Ont., visited at Mr. O. H. Tramer's this week.

Dr. and Mrs. Matheson of Toronto spent Sunday at E. A. Storry's.

The Bloomington tin band mustered all their tin instruments and serenaded Mr. and Mrs. W. Tramer on Friday night.

A large number of the community and friends gathered at the Tramer home on Monday evening and presented Mr. and Mrs. W. Tramer with a miscellaneous shower. The chirivari boys gave the gift of a mantle clock.

A band of willing workers met at the church on Thursday and proved the old adage true, "Many hands make light work." As a result the interior of the building is spotless, and the lawns are in fine condition. The pot luck dinner was super-excellent.

The class of which Mrs. B. Morton has been a faithful teacher met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. S. H. Cockburn, Ringwood, on Friday night and presented Mrs. Morton with an electric lamp. Lunch was served and the social time was enjoyed by all. We regret very much losing such valuable helpers in our church and community. Mr. Morton is at Ottawa and Mrs. Morton is soon going to join him.

Ringwood

Mrs. Don. Wilson spent the weekend with her parents Mr. and Mrs. Fraser of Cremore.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Grove attended the Decorator Day Service at Utica last Sunday.

Miss Jean Baker of Toronto is spending some time with her grand-parents Mr. and Mrs. Sylvannus Baker.

Work has commenced removing earth from under the north end of the church to make ready for the installation of a furnace.

Mr. and Mrs. Ira Grove and Carl had the thrill of seeing a young deer cross the road in front of their car one night last week, while driving a few miles north of Holt.

Sunday School will be at 9.30 next Sunday morning instead of usual time because of the Christian Church Conference in session from Wednesday evening to Sunday night at Altona. There will be no church service here on that day.

Eavetroughing

and SHEET METAL work

Orders quickly executed at our store. Get in touch with us if you have any work in this line. Our prices on fence wire will interest you.

See our Gasolne, Oil and Electric Stoves for summer

W. F. RICHES

Stouffville, Ont. Phone 283
Successor to Button Harware

Melville

The Rev. Robert Young of Stouffville preached to a large congregation at Melville last Sunday. We are always glad to welcome Mr. Young back again to our church.

The Newtonbrook Y. P. U. presented a Comedy entitled, "Look Who's Here" before a good audience on Friday last, and the play was enjoyed by all. The W. A. served a dainty lunch to the players at the close.