We hasten to correct a mistake in last week's issue concerning our Log Cabin Soap Dealer. The item originally read that he was selling soaps of various colors, perfumes and uses, whereas the printers made it "soaps, perfumes and rouges." This is to inform you that Gordon Schell is not in the cosmetic business, never has been and never expects to be. So if during the past week you have been inquiring for the said commodities, you will understand why he has not been able to supply you. Sorry, Gordon.
