Mrs. Grove has received interesting information from a cousin in England indicating the brave spirit of the people there in this war. He says in part:

The prices of foodstuffs have not increased very much, and there does not appear to be a shortage. Various commodities are rationed, but no one minds, as the quantities allowed are quite good. The quality of stockings is not good and a decent pair cost $1.50. Black currants are selling at 16c pound, I know, as we are doing some down. Bacon is 44c pound, butter 38c lb. and eggs sell at 52c a dozen.
