Helped Star Fresh Air Fund

Al. and Bob Harvey, recently returned from England, were residents in Pickering when their father Bert Harvey kept the store at Greenwood. Now they are top notch entertainers doing their part for the boys at war in keeping up the spirits of everybody which is so essential to success. Their remarkable talent may well be attributed to their father who is no mean entertainer himself, and many's the time he filled in the breach and talked for an hour at some county affair making the crowds laugh until their sides were sore. —Today Bert Harvey could dop-

it again if called on at his home in Brougham.

Lately so many trips have been made by Al. and Bob to England that they are now called the pond jumping Canadians. Last night they appeared at the Eaton auditorium in the interest of the Star Fresh Air Fund for the first time since returning from entertaining the troops in England. A serious emergency exists in Ontario at the present time, the Department of Labor at Queen's Park points out, which is due to enlistments and the stepping up of factory work. Because of this the decision has been reached to delay the time of reopening all schools, that those on the farm now and others may offer their services in the harvest fields. It is expected that the time lost in reopening schools will be made up during the term.
