Miss McLeod of Toronto spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. M. Draper.

Misses Dorothy Cloakey and Edna Edgar of Toronto spent the weekend with Mr. and Mrs. T. Williams. George Loree, Don and Frank were also at home.

Mr. Wm. Sadler was one of the first visitors to the new Stroud home of Mr. and Mrs. Woodcock.

Miss Margot Wilson recently gave a shower in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Syd Davies of Toronto. Most of us knew Mrs. Syd as Miss Grace Smith, a frequent visitor at the Park.

Mr. (Uncle Josh) Lehman of U.S.A. has been visiting with Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Lehman here.

The Ladies' Aid will meet at the parsonage on Sept. 25. Bless is the word.

A large number were out to church on Sunday evening attracted by the McMaster Band, who have been holding special meetings at the church this past week. This coming week they have been invited to Oshawa. Now we have got away to a good start going to church in large numbers, is there any paltry excuse that can keep us home the rest of the year. However there will be no service here next Sunday, Sept. 22nd, as it is the anniversary Sunday for the Whitevale Baptist so you will be very welcome there.

Bethesda

Mr. Luther Allin spent last week with his sister Mrs. Violet Graham at Aurora.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Chapman and Rita of Aurora had tea on Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Burkholder and Alma.

Monday visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Atkinson were Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Tidbury, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Scott and Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Gordon.

Sunday tea visitors with Mr. and Mrs. Percy Allin were, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Powell, Miss Lottie Atkinson, Miss Jean Powell and friend all of Aurora.

The United Church Anniversary on Sunday was attended by very large congregations both at the morning and evening services. Music was supplied by the local choir and the Gormley Quartette. Rev. I. G. Bowles of Toronto, a pastor on this charge 40 years ago brought the inspiring messages, which in the morning was based on the "Transfiguration of Christ," and in the evening from the most important question in the world "What Will Ye do with Jesus?" Many old friends were present at the services to hear again the pastor who had endeared himself to hearts here years ago.

Marriages

RATCLIFF—BAKER

The marriage was solemnized on Saturday at Baker Hill Baptist church, of Miss Doris Clarice Baker, daughter of Morgan Baker, M.P.P., and the late Mrs. Baker, to Floyd Grenville Ratcliff, son of Robert Ratcliff and the late Mrs. Ratcliff. Rev. W. S. Whitcombe officiated assisted by Rev. S. E. Medhurst, with Clarion Baker at the organ. Miss Edna Foskett sang. The bride appeared against a setting of gladioli, asters and fern on the arm of her father. She wore white chiffon over taffeta made with high neckline, long full sleeves and long full skirt which fell from a tight-fitting waist. She wore her mother's full-length veil of white net with coronet of seed pearls and carried roses and white lilies.

The bride was attended by her sister, Miss Mary Baker, as maid of honor, and Miss Elaine Baker, a cousin, as bridesmaid. Little Herberta Simpson was flower girl. The senior attendants wore similar gowns of turquoise blue chiffon over taffeta made on princess lines with short puff sleeves, sweetheart necklines and long full skirts. Their bouquets were red roses. The flower girl was in pink taffeta made on similar lines and carried roses. Howard Ratcliff, brother of the groom, was best man and the ushers were Alan Baker, brother of the bride, and Charles Ratcliff, brother of the groom.

The reception was held on the lawn of the bride's home, the bride's sister, Mrs. James Oldham, receiving in a black wool dress trimmed with Persian lamb, black and white accessories, corsage of red roses. The groom's grandmother, Mrs. Lemon Baker, 83, also received, gowned in black with black and white accessories and a corsage of sweet peas. Present at the wedding were the bride's two grandfathers, Seneca Baker, who is 90, and Ezra Clubine, 86; the bride's grandmother, Mrs. Clubine, 80.

The couple left for Quebec and the maritime provinces, the bride travelling in a smart navy blue sheer dress with white trimming, navy English wool serge coat, navy accessories, corsage of red roses. They will reside on the groom's farm near Stouffville.

Church Hill
