The idols we worship in our country are not images of wood or stone, but anything we put before God. Young People are exhorted to place God first in their lives.

Vocal selections given were "God leads his dear children along," by Mr. and Mrs. Lehman, and "The Heavenly Train" by Mrs. Hawkins and Miss Edith Raymer.

Special to The Tribune from Weston—We have heard of the newly invented shell that when fired at a boat is drawn by magnetism to the mark, no matter how zig-zag the course, but we didn't know until Sunday that Clarence had his Chev. so equipped. It seems that Katherine and her sister Margaret were spending the weekend at Weston and although the Chev. had never seen Weston, it was drawn right to the house where the girls were staying. However they all report a lovely time, having visited the Malton Airport and other places of interest.

Mr. Dow Sargeant, who has been assistant pastor on the Markham circuit here of the M.B.C. Church was appointed to the pastorate of two churches on the Shrigley charge, in Dundalk district, and will be in charge of his own churches the second Sunday in October. At the same Conference, Mr. Cecil Brown, formerly of Mount Joy was appointed pastor of Grace Chapel, Jones Avenue, in Toronto. Rev. W. Brown, formerly pastor of the Markham Circuit has retired from the active ministry, and has taken up permanent residence in Stayner, Ontario.
