TO RESIDE AT CASHEL

The marriage took place quietly on Saturday, October 19, of Miss Kathleen Beatrice Stots and Mr. Stanley Albert Powell, both of Melville district, Markham. The ceremony was held at the United Church Manse there, the Rev. A. J. Orr officiating. The bride wore a very graceful gown of plum velvet with matching hat and accessories. The wedding dinner was afterwards held at the home of the bride's brother at Brown's Corners, and the happy couple left later for a trip to Northern points. On their return they will reside at Cashel.

Melville

The Peaching Mission at Melville Church will begin on Nov. 4, with the Rev. L. E. Atkinson of Stouffville giving the first address. The meetings will continue each evening except Saturday, beginning with a song service at 7.45. Other ministers who have consented to take part are, the Revs. B. E. Newham of Markham; A. E. Owen of Unionville; J. R. Bick, of Whitevale; W. A. Westcott of Aurora. On the Sunday evenings Nov. 10 and 17, the Rev. J. A. Cranston, D.D. of Toronto. Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Houck and Miss Edna Houck visited friends and relatives at Delhi. Mr. and Mrs. Frank Beattie of Toronto were visitors at the Mause over the weekend.

5H UXBRIDGE

Mr. and Mrs. Everett Hockley spent a day last week in Toronto. Mr. and Mrs. Irwin Kydd, Marina and Earl of Sandford visited at Alvin Redshaw's on Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. Norman Feasby of the 4th line spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Harold Norton. Miss Janette Bennes of Pickering is spending a few weeks with her grandmother Mrs. T. Bennes. Mr. R. A. E. Read of Isabella and Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Stewart of Toronto spent Sunday with their aunt Mrs. E. W. Evans. Mr. and Mrs. Ross Redshaw visited last Thursday with Mr. and Mrs. Talbert Evans of Glasgow. Mr. and Mrs. Bert Jones of Ashburn and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Scott and Lorna of Hamilton spent a day recently with Mr. and Mrs. Ross Evans. soldiers who were treated to a glimpse of the "Five Wonders of Canada."

2nd Line Uxbridge

A number on our line are used up with colds and sore throat. Mr. and Mrs. Albert Brown and family spent Sunday in Toronto. Sorry to report Robert Hope is under the doctor's care. Mr. and Mrs. Albert Taylor, Dick and Dorlene had tea in Oshawa on Sunday night. On Friday night of last week around sixty-five neighbours and friends gathered at the home of Albert Brown and had a real old fashioned party. The evening was spent in games and dancing, after which lunch was served. Congratulations go to Kenneth Bacon, Leslie Meyers and Morley Haynes on their prizes at the plowing match held at Sandford. This will surely put 2nd line on the map.

Goodwood

All roads will lead to the Taylor farm on Thursday, as it will doubtless be one of the largest auction sales ever held in this vicinity. Mrs. Louisa Natress of Illinois, and her sister Mrs. Watson, also Miss Myrtle Watson spent Sunday at Charles Watson's home. We congratulate Leslie Meyers at this time for having won prizes at the Sandford plowing match. Viola Todd, who has had such a long illness and convalescing period has returned to the T. Eaton Co., where she has been for fifteen years, to resume her duties. Don't forget to starve yourselves well so you will be able to get a good feed of fowl at the church supper to be held on Nov. 13th. Vandorf will bring a play. Mr. Richard Taylor, Miss Belle Clancey and Miss Annabelle Clancey visited Mrs. Andrew Taylor on Sunday. The play, "Look out Lizzie," which has been given with great success in the past will be given at Bogertown next Friday night, October 25th, by the Goodwood Dramatic Club. Morley Haynes was one of the competing plowmen at Sandford. A quiet wedding took place at the United Church parsonage, when Miss Irene Thurlwell of Toronto was united in marriage to Ernest Pike of Oshawa on Saturday evening, Oct. 19th by the Rev. J. W. Holmes. After a short honeymoon the couple will reside in Oshawa where Mr. Pike is employed in the Safety Glass Works. The best man was Mr. Roland Thurlwell, brother of the bride, the bridesmaid was Mrs. Roland Thurlwell wife of the best man. The regular meeting of the Goodwood Women's Institute met at the home of Mrs. Sheehy on October 16. Meeting opened with the Opening Ode and the Lord's Prayer. A grant of ten dollars was voted to send to British Relief Fund. Arrangements were made to attend the convention on November 5-6-7, in Toronto, by as many as can find it convenient. We then had a splendid program put on by Mrs. Ted Hall and Grace Wagg on "Health and Child Welfare." Meeting closed with the singing of God Save the King.

Bloomington

Miss Beatrice Davis of Minnesing is visiting with Miss Margaret Brown. Mr. Bill Tranmer was home from Toronto on Sunday. Bill is a 2nd year University student. Mr. and Mrs. T. Warden of Kitchener are visiting at her home here. Mr. and Mrs. S. Rose and daughter Elaine of London were visitors at his grandmother's, Mrs. J. Storry on Saturday. Mrs. Robert Winterstein of the 6th Line, entertained the Bloomington Ladies' Aid on Thursday afternoon. Owing to the illness of the president, Mrs. Fockler, Mrs. Morton took the chair. The Lemonville W. A. were guests and furnished a very uplifting program. Mrs. S. Foote dealt with the subject of "Thanksgiving" and enlightened her audience with a view of world events summarizing all by the dynamic statement, "Let us be sure we are on God's side." Solos were given by Mrs. Roy Morley, Miss Clarke and Miss Fockler. A reading "Myself," by Mrs. R. Winterstein. Lunch was served. Mr. and Mrs. H. Clark of Mimico were calling on friends here recently. Mrs. Hassard and son Robert were with her aunt Miss H. Fairles for a day or two. Mr. E. Storry, Miss Ruth and Mrs. Tranmer spent a day in Durham. Miss Card of Toronto was the guest of her sister Mrs. E. Fairles. Mr. and Mrs. C. Winn of Toronto were in our town one day recently. Miss G. Tranmer spent Thanksgiving at Kitchener. Mr. and Mrs. C. Cowie, Mr. F. Cowie and friend of Matachewan have been spending a week at their parental home here. Mr. and Mrs. A. Smith and Miss Audrey attended Erin Fair on Monday. Silo filling is finished in our neighborhood for 1940, namely, C. Lemon, E. Storry, O. Tranmer, W.

Fairles and W. Ferguson.

The corn crop is somewhat below average. The Junior Institute held their monthly meeting at the home of Mrs. Wm. Morris. Mrs. F. Fairles presided. The Goodwood Institute ladies were guests and provided the program. Mrs. Harper, the president taking charge. Two humorous and splendidly rendered readings were given by Mrs. Hall. Music by Mrs. Dowswell and a paper by Mrs. Norman Wagg, "What is a Canadian." The usual social time and lunch was enjoyed and everyone present felt that it had been both a profitable and pleasant meeting.

Victoria Square

Mr. and Mrs. John Snider, Miss Mabel Sanderson were visitors of the International plowing match. We are very glad to hear that Mr. Harold Hendricks is out of the hospital again. Earl Empringham and Miss Doris Knapp called on friends in Newmarket on Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. Hart, Marjorie and Leslie visited with Mr. and Mrs. Schmidt and Mr. Totten of Kettleby.

Gormley

Anniversary services are announced for Gormley M.B.C. church on October 27. Rev. C. N. Good, of Kitchener, has been secured for the morning at 10.30 and evening at 7.30 o'clock. A children's service is arranged for 2 p.m. and at 3 p.m. Rev. Mr. Dudgeon of Woodbridge will preach. Gormley quartette, Henderson Sisters, and the Kinsmen quartette will assist respectively at each service. Special evening meetings all this week.

The Institute are having a hot dog stand at Mr. Reid's sale. The W. A. met at the home of Mrs. Harold Morton for the monthly meeting. Mrs. McKay gave a splendid talk, Mrs. Stong of Edgely sang and Mrs. Trussel gave a reading. Miss Mabel Sanderson was in charge. The Executive of the Institute met at the home of Mrs. M. Jarvis Monday evening. On Wednesday evening, October 30th, the Institute and any women who would like to help sew for the Red Cross will meet at the home of Miss Mabel Sanderson. Bring thimble and scissors.
