SEE "CHALLENGE OF EMPIRE" ON NOV. 1st

The concert, "Challenge of Empire," now being prepared by the Canadian Girls in Training and the Junior Band, will be presented this coming Friday, Nov. 1. The program will be given in Ratcliff's Hall, commencing at eight o'clock with a fifteen-minute band concert. In the play that follows you will see many of Britain's heroes live again—Drake, Nelson, Wolfe, Laura Secord and others. You will also see these young people's interpretation of modern English music, recitations, drills, and costume dances will round out the program. The whole entertainment has been written, planned, and acted by local talent. The net proceeds of the above entertainment will be given to the Canadian Red Cross Society under the provisions and regulations of the War Charities Act, 1939.

During the intermission the girls will sell candy to help defray expenses. The quilt, now showing in A. E. Weldon's window will be displayed and the lucky number drawn—As no tickets will be sold at the hall you are urged to buy yours now—The proceeds from the quilt will go to the work of the War Branch of the Women's Institute.
