CARD OF THANKS

We wish to express our appreciation to the many kind friends and neighbours for fruit, flowers and cards sent to the hospital and the home during the illness of Mr. Bridges.

Mr. and Mrs. H. Bridges

Melville

The Preaching Mission will begin at the Melville Church on Monday evening next, November 4th at 7.45. There will be a 15 minute Song Service each evening and helpful and searching messages will be given by the following ministers, Rev. L. E. Atkinson, Rev. A. E. Owen, Rev. W. A. Hunnissett, Rev. B. E. Newnham, Rev. J. R. Pick, Rev. W. A. Westcott.

The Rev. and Mrs. A. J. Orr, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Henry Walker of the 7th Line, Markham, were visitors at Nottawa, near Collingwood, over the weekend, where Mr. Orr conducted Anniversary services on his former charge.

The Rev. W. E. Smalley of Stouffville preached in the United Churches on Sunday last and his helpful messages were much appreciated. Miss Alice Munns, missionary from Central India was a guest at the Manse on Friday.

Mrs. Jas. Oldham Buried at Hartman

Mrs. James Oldham of Mount Albert passed away at the Brierbush Hospital, in Stouffville last Sunday, in her 78th year. She had been in declining health for some time. The funeral on Wednesday afternoon took place from her late home at Mount Albert to Hartman cemetery.

The late Mrs. Oldham whose maiden name was Emma Jane Cleverdon, was a native of Devonshire, coming to this country when a girl of only ten years. The family first settled at Cayuga, but later came on to Mount Albert where she met her future husband. Mr. Oldham died seven years ago.

A family of three sons and three daughters survive, namely, Garfield, Stanley and Grant Oldham of Mount Albert, Mrs. Wm. Meek of Scott Township, Mrs. (Dr) S. S. Ball of Stouffville, and Mrs. Allen Mustard of Toronto.

OUTSTANDING SERVICES MARK ANNIVERSARY

The Church's authority is the word of the Living God, and its source of power is in the indwelling Holy Spirit of God.

The minister was assisted at this service by Mr. Andrew McMullen of Knox College, Toronto, and the choir of St. Philip's Anglican Church at Unionville, provided special music under the leadership of Mrs. A. K. Harrington and the organist, Miss Ila Weighill, A.T.C.M.

At the morning service the Rev. Mr. Rayner's sermon was "The Valley of Berachah," appropriate to both the Harvest Home and Anniversary, in which he insisted that we are all dwellers in the Valley of Berachah, which is the Valley of Blessing. Our lives, our homes, our churches and our country are all veritable valleys of blessing. Markham choir provided the music. Large congregations were present at both services.

On Monday evening the supper and entertainment was enjoyed under the auspices of the Band of Willing Helpers, when cordial greetings were given by the Clergy of Stouffville: Rev. F. Herman, of Christ Church, Anglican; Rev. L. E. Atkinson, of the United Church; and Rev. R. K. Vickers of the Christian Church; while regrets for absence coupled with cordial good wishes, were received from Rev. Duncan Macgregor, of the Baptist Church, and Rev. H. Shantz, of the Mennonite Church.

The programme was given by Markham talent. The minister, the Rev. T. DeCourcy Rayner, president and the Clerk of Session, James Rennie, expressed the thanks and appreciation of the congregation to all.

INVITING TROUBLE

A chap living on a side street straggled into the local newspaper sanctum on Wednesday morning and asked us to warn the boys against kicking up any capers this Thursday evening, such as carting off his steps. Of course if we mentioned his name, there wouldn't be enough steps to accommodate all the gangs that would sally forth to move them. If this chap who believes in warnings knows the boys like the editor, he will thank us for not giving out his name. Anyway for the most part the kids have been very good of recent years. We hope they won't carry out capers that will cost money to put right. How about the old-time hallowe'en party to keep them out of mischief?

Altona

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Storry, Mrs. Jarvis Storry, and Mr. and Mrs. H. Burnett and Elmer were all at the William Clarkson home here for Sunday last.

Charles Barkey has disposed of several hundred bushels of his apples from the famous old Barkey orchard here. The fruit this year in this part of Ontario was feared to have been ruined by the incessant rains early in the season, but the crop finally came out very good, although not by any means first class.

Ollie Madill took in a banquet given by Georgina Lodge of the Masonic Order one night last week in Toronto. Since he stepped off the pedestal at the head of Richardson Lodge O. M. has been enjoying the side lines thoroughly.

EVER SEEN A RODEO ?

Fresh from their success in the Motion Picture Industry's "Win the War" Campaign in July, the theatre men of Ontario are again mobilizing their forces for a war effort. In the War Stamp campaign, nearly 1,000 theatres from coast to coast cooperated to roll up a sale of three-quarters of a million dollars of War Savings stamps. This time, 350 theatres in Ontario have set themselves the task of selling 24,000 tickets to a Rodeo.

Late News Items

Mr. George Baker of Gormley has the cellar excavation finished for a new house just south of Mrs. James McCullough's on O'Brien Avenue. He expects with anything like favorable weather to rush up the frame so that he can carry on inside all winter.

Mr. and Mrs. N. W. Byer and Margaret accompanied by Mrs. Gowland of Markham were in Toronto one day last week attending the farewell party given for Mrs. Byer's niece Thelma Liberty who expects to sail for overseas soon with the R.C.A.M.C.

One of our former boys, Mr. Roy Strong has been appointed as service manager for Forbes Bros., Ford motor sales in Brantford. This is a big firm, but we predict that they have a first class man to look after service department. Mr. and Mrs. Strong are now located in their new home at Brantford where they were accorded a splendid welcome by a host of people.

As may be seen elsewhere in this issue, the liberal prizes are well up to any former years, keen interest is being displayed judging from the enquiries received for prize lists issued last week. Excellent lands are available, so that all that remains is for the weather man to do his part. Supper will be served in Ratcliff's Hall in the evening at which time the prizes will be awarded. Now turn over and read the prize list on page two.

Former Pastor Will Return For 92nd Anniversary

Next Sunday, November 3rd the Second Markham Baptist congregation will celebrate the 92nd anniversary of the founding of this congregation, being the second Baptist organization in Markham township. There will be special services morning and evening, the preacher for the day being Rev. Wm. Miller, pastor of the church here over a quarter century ago. He is now the minister at Boon Avenue church in Toronto.

Special music is being provided in the morning at 11 o'clock by the Ladies' Double Quartette and in the evening at 7 o'clock by the Gormley male quartette. The officials anticipate a large crowd and hope to welcome many former people who worshipped here in the past, as well as any friends who care to join in the occasion of worship.

DR. THOS. MITCHELL TO SPEAK AT ANNIVERSARY

On Sunday, November 3, the Stouffville United Church will observe another anniversary. Rev. Dr. Thomas Mitchell has been secured for the morning service at 11 o'clock and Rev. Dr. John Coburn will be in charge at the evening service at 7 o'clock. Dr. Mitchell needs no introduction, and is always welcomed by a large congregation, while the evening speaker too is widely known and an outstanding orator. Dr. Coburn is president of the Toronto Conference.

At both these services special music will be rendered and all friends and strangers are cordially invited.

DR. WILL JAMES MARRIED

The marriage in Toronto last Saturday of Miss Dorothy Ruth Anderson to Dr. W. A. James is of local interest through the fact that the groom is a son of Mr. Marvyn James formerly of this town, and who has been a frequent visitor here at the home of his aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Burkholder. Dr. and Mrs. James will reside at Arvida, Quebec, where the doctor is identified with a large Canadian concern established here.

Hens Produce Profits
The "Shur-Gain Way"

YOU WANT: Steady Production.
High Production.
Low Feed Costs.
SHUR-GAIN gives you all three.

Because of much low quality grains this year, this will not be a "Concentrate year". Most persons will be well advised to feed a good Laying Mash, at least over the high egg price period. For why gamble with your profits.

SHUR-GAIN LAYING MASH
Is the surest way to profits. Selling costs are pared to the bone on this product, top quality Western Grains are used exclusively and there is no better balanced mash than SHUR-GAIN. Throughout Ontario more SHUR-GAIN LAYING MASH is now being sold than all other brands combined.—There's a reason. Order your supply to-day.

Now selling @ $2.25 cwt.
