Vandorf

Miss Harriet Starr spent Sunday at her home.
Sorry to report Miss Lottie Atkinson of Aurora and well known here is ill in the York County Hospital.
Owing to bad weather the play was postponed and was presented Tuesday evening of this week at the Hall.

Our S. S. attendance was down owing to weather and road conditions we hope next Sunday it will be up again.

Several in this vicinity have had the flu and ended up with a cough. We hope all will be well for the Christmas season.

Next Sunday will be the White Gift Service, also a guest missionary speaker.

Mr. Bert Dike is suffering from torn ligaments in his right shoulder from a fall. Bert had this shoulder injured before this accident and never had the full use of it since. So we hope when this is mended he will be better off.

Our men are beginning to talk about the two year term for councils. It seems that we usually give our councils even more than two years by extending acclamations. We suppose it is nice to hold on to the right to do this instead of making the term hard and fast.

Pine Orchard

Wedding bells are ringing again! Miss Vivia Shropshire and friend spent Sunday with the former's parents.

Miss Jean Stevens was a Toronto visitor on Saturday.

Sorry to report Mr. Bert Dike was involved in an accident with his team. He injured his arm.

Ken. Crittenden who has been employed with Ed. Johnston the past summer has taken a position at St. Catharines. And Len Wagg who was with Sam Gibney has gone to Kirkland Lake.

Send The Tribune to absent friends.

Eat at the Brown Betty, Stouffville, next Thursday, Christmas market day. Hot roast fowl dinner.

Additional Locals

Have your fowl dinner at the Brown Betty next Thursday, Stouffville Christmas market day.

Pte. Leslie Meyers and Pte. Clifford Morgason of Newmarket camp were home over the weekend.

Kenneth Bacon is employed at Edward Taylor's for a time.

Stewart McGuckin has secured a position in Toronto on one of the mail order delivery trucks.

Congratulations go to Charles Forsythe, Leslie Meyers, also little Jackie Knight who celebrated birthdays recently.

Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Taylor and Glenda also Willis Taylor of Oshawa were at their home over Sunday, Mrs. Taylor and Glenda remaining in Goodwood for a few days.

Do not forget to mark your calendar and plan to let us see you at the Second Line School Concert on Dec. 18, when you'll be entertained for a full evening of music and fun.

And so we close this weeks news with a little poem,
Now that winter is here, and the snow sure has come,
Just a word to you skiers, who like lots of fun,
Be up! and be ready, put on your warm cap,
And strike for the Second! We're still on the map!

TOWNSHIP SCHOOL AREA
ADVOCATED BEFORE LIONS

Stouffville Lions Club at their monthly supper Monday evening in the Village Inn, heard Mr. Charles Lapp, Inspector of Public Schools for South Simcoe, stress the advantages of the Township School Area for all Ontario. Under the plan now operating in many townships, a School Board of five members elected by all the ratepayers, conducts the school business of the whole township, displacing the present school trustees entirely. Public School costs under the new scheme are equal over all the school sections, while it is claimed that the pooled resources of the township educational system has many advantages. Bradford Lions Club were guests of the local Lions, and brought along Harry Bugler, professional magician, who did some tricks that the boys are still trying to explain.
