Gormley

Congratulations Councillor Leary and Deputy Reeve Hooper.

Miss Clara Steckley of Tilsonburg was with her family over Christmas Mr. and Mrs. Wilmet Milne and family of Angus and Miss Vera Hills of Gormley and Miss Myrtle LeBeck were guests of Miss Elva Heise on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Scott Merrill entertained the Heise family at Victoria Square on Christmas Eve. Carols and songs were sung until a late hour.

The long looked for Christmas season has come and gone, and may each one of us, as we look forward to 1941, resolve to make it the best year of our lives.

Many visitors were in town over the holiday season, Miss Myrtle LeBeck of Buffalo was the guest of Mrs. Jos. Heise, also Mr. and Mrs. John Hall and son Alvin, of Tilsonburg.

Friends who were at Heise Hill Church on Sunday came from various parts of the country and the places included were: Ohio; Buffalo, N.Y.; Fort Erie, Ont.; Tilsonburg; Angus; Collingwood; Stayner, Toronto and Welland Port. Thus we see that a "church set on a hill cannot be hid."

If winter is here, spring can't be far behind as Mr. Groundhog has been seen taking a general survey of the countryside and the first robin of the season was seen at Victoria Square last week. Perhaps we will have winter when spring comes. The Place—Heise Hill Church. The time—7:30 weekday nights—11 a.m. and 7 p.m. Sunday. The Evangelist—Rev. E. J. Swaim, of Duntroon.

Ballantrae

William Card, member of the Home Guard, was home from Nova Scotia for the holiday season.

Gordon Mairs left this week for Alberta where he will enter the air force. His brother Ivan is serving at St. Thomas.

Col. Hollingrake and family were in residence here over the holiday week.

TWIN COLTS SURVIVE

Since the survival of both of twin colts after birth is given only one chance in 500, John Stone, Melancthon Township farmer, believes he has right to pride in the announcement that Minnie, his stocky farm mare, has successfully mothered her twins, Maude and George, through six months of regular farm life without an unusual incident. "They were born the middle of June," said Mr. Stone, "and I found them alive and well when I went out to tend the stock. George outgrew Maude for some weeks, but lately she has been catching up."

Started Knitting at Age of Eight, Now is Seventy-two

Knitting isn't a woman's monopoly! Nehemiah Ogden of Unionville says so. He is a 72-year-old man who has been knitting for 64 years and can outknit most of the women in the locality, it is alleged! And most of the women admit it! "I started knitting when I was a boy of eight," said Mr. Ogden. "But I had to teach myself. I hid in the barn while I was doing it, because any boy caught knitting in those days would be severely disciplined. Why even today the women seem to think they should do all the knitting. Personally, I think machines would serve just as well and have time."

Mr. Ogden spent most of his life as a farmer in the Unionville area. Knitting has been strictly a sideline. He is turning over his present knitting output to the local Red Cross organization. "They sent me an instruction book but I can't follow it," said Mr. Ogden. "I taught myself to knit and I have a system all my own. When I start reading the book I don't know how to follow it. So I just keep on knitting in my own way."

Until two years ago, Mr. Ogden was active in farm work and even now takes care of an acre plot with chickens and other small stock. His wife does the housework at the cosy home, and both are keenly interested in current affairs. Knitting is easy on the nerves, this male expert admits. But he says it hasn't lengthened his life. "Fresh air and lots of work did that."

The work of this branch of the Red Cross is representative of the activity in all units throughout the township. Mrs. Ellen Kemp Little, Mrs. G. C. Murphy, Mrs. Howard Atkinson, Mrs. B. Snowball and Mrs. A. L. Brown assisted with the recent Unionville display of work.

24th, from his late residence. The service was conducted in the home by the Rev. A. J. Orr of the Melville United Church of which the deceased was a member. The sermon was preached by a former pastor, Rev. John McEwen of Schomberg, and the Rev. Dr. T. Mitchell of Ringwood, also gave a brief address. Interment was made in the Melville cemetery, and a large number of friends gathered to express their respects to an honored resident. To Mr. Robert Francy, the only surviving member of the family and to all relatives we extend our deepest sympathy.
