"Enclosed find for the renewal of the grand paper," writes Mrs. D. A. Galloway, former resident. The Galloways who live at 1770 Queen E., Toronto, are just recovering from the flu.

Sorry to read about the tragic death of "Cuffy" Johnson, whom I remember living in Stouffville over 20 years ago," writes Mr. Charles A. Vanzant of Banff, Alberta, who himself has just lost his sister through death. The editor of The Tribune recalls meeting Mr. Vanzant at the home of the late Wm. Mathers in Banff during the summer 1938, at which time we enjoyed a pleasant visit with these former residents.

Mrs. McNeely who is spending a few weeks at the home of her sister Mrs. James Mowat, spent a month down in Charlottetown, P.E.I. just prior to coming to Stouffville from her home in Markham village. While at the home of her son in the east he suddenly became ill and passed away with shocking suddenness, leaving a wife and small family.

A young fawn was seen racing down the main street of Mount Albert last week with what seemed all the dogs in the village in full pursuit. Some men rescued the frightened thing, and took it into the barber shop, where if the young deer had only known, it had the closest shave of its life. With its strength exhausted the young animal was found to have been wounded by a shot from a gun received before it reached the village, and it soon died. One can hardly imagine anyone mean enough to shoot at an animal so innocent and harmless. Of course this sort of individual wouldn't respect the game laws either, for shooting deer as everybody knows is out of season at this time.

On Friday Dr. Herbert Freeland left to take a short course at the Polyclinic Hospital in New York City.

Arthur Swift, former Stouffville garageman, and whom we reported last week as having been moved from his army post in Toronto to Niagara Falls, has just received his sergeant's stripes.

Stouffville curlers carried off the third prize money at the Agincourt bonspiel last week, prize being given in war-saving stamps. The local rink was skipped by H. W. Sanders and comprised also, Chris. Armstrong, Wm. Armstrong and Harry Stouffer.

All radios in the district were turned on Sunday afternoon to hear the speech of Prime Minister Winston Churchill who spoke to the nations of the world from the British Isles. Churchill has played many parts—soldier, journalist, polo player, orator, politician, statesman, writer, painter, bricklayer (at one time he held a union card,) but the role he plays today is the greatest of them all. Winston Churchill holds the hopes of the democratic millions as no man ever held them before.

Rev. W. M. McGuire, pastor of First Nazarene Church, Toronto, who is at present conducting an evangelistic campaign down in Akron, Ohio, has been invited by his church to remain as their pastor for another three-year term. A former Stouffville pastor, Mr. McGuire's success will be noted with keen interest by his many friends in this district. "Mac," as his intimates call him, is a lover of clean sport and never fails to enjoy the opening trout season in local waters, and he was one of the enthusiastic pheasant hunters in the district last fall.

Mr. E. A. Grubin, R.O., will be at his office in Stouffville on Monday, February 17th.

Carswell's Economy Store this week point out the certainty of increased prices on many lines before long as so much of their stock cannot be replaced. Notwithstanding the big corner store is offering some interesting price quotations in this issue, that it will pay you to look over.

In a car of lumber arriving in Brantford came a hen. The lumber was shipped from Mississippi, and the distance was 1,185 miles. The weather was of the below zero type on arrival, but the hen had laid a couple of eggs on the way up. On a trip of that length we suppose she had to do something to put in the time as there was no chance to look out the train window.

Once more the value of advertising is demonstrated. Last week Dent Law announced the loss of nine dollars, rent money for his landlord. He dropped it on the street, but could find no trace of the missing bills. After the notice in the paper, Bud Vanzant, son of Wm. Vanzant and a pupil of C. E. Watson at the public school, promptly turned over the cash which he had picked up, and wondered who it belonged to. Dent Law's wisdom in coming to the newspaper office to advertise, plus Bud's honesty made the Law family extremely happy. "No time was lost in getting the money paid over to the landlord, after that experience," said Mr. Law.

Mayor Cunningham of Alliston has refused to sign a bylaw duly passed by the council over which he presides, designed to introduce daylight saving in that town. It appears that the town was on daylight saving during the summer, and ignoring the government order or request that all places on daylight saving should remain on it throughout the winter, reverted to standard time. Now the whole council, excepting the mayor, wants daylight saving. Just how the mayor of any municipality can refuse to sign a legally passed bylaw is something to conjure with. It would appear that the head of the council is duty bound to sign such bylaws as may be passed by the council whether he is in favor of their contents or not, providing, of course, that the bylaw is legal and properly passed as it appears to be in the case of Alliston.

"BROOM RACKET" MIGHT BE TRIED IN STOUFFVILLE

Citizens Warned to be on Lookout for Salesman Claiming to Represent Canadian Institute for Blind. Has Been Chased Out of Several Surrounding Ontario Towns Already.

There is a new "racket" being worked in this section of Ontario, a salesman making a canvass selling brooms which he says are being sold for the benefit of the Canadian Institute for the Blind, and which society he claims to represent.

"The person or persons conducting a sale of brooms and other articles, alleged to be made by the blind, have no connection with the Canadian Institute for the Blind, which is the only organization equipped to render services to the blind of this district. It should also be noted that suitable action will be taken against anyone who is guilty of misrepresentation in this respect."

One day after Mrs. Mary Forsyth and family vacated their house on Tenth-street to locate in Toronto, their premises were reoccupied by Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Williams who had been farming just east of town.

Postal records cause us to wonder how bright we are. In the month of November there were 3,911 letters so poorly addressed that but 63 of them could be delivered to the soldiers overseas.

Mr. Eli Stouffer was removed from his home to the Brierbush Hospital last Saturday. Although 84 years of age Mr. Stouffer weighs 260 pounds, thus when his lower limbs became helpless, it required professional skill to handle a patient of his size.

Cutting down trees in the bush Mr. Joe Byer of Atha fell and suffered a broken collar bone on Wednesday last week. Mr. Byer had felled a tree which became lodged. He climbed up to cut the limb which held the falling tree, and was in some way slipped, losing his grip and falling to the ground.

The smallest crowd this winter was seen in town on Saturday night. Instead of the usual crowded thoroughfare, there was not more than a dozen cars on Main street at nine p.m. This was due to the winter's worst storm, which blockaded lanes, and left most roads rather dangerous for motor traffic. A brisk trade was noted all afternoon and seldom have we seen so many horse vehicles on the street in recent years.

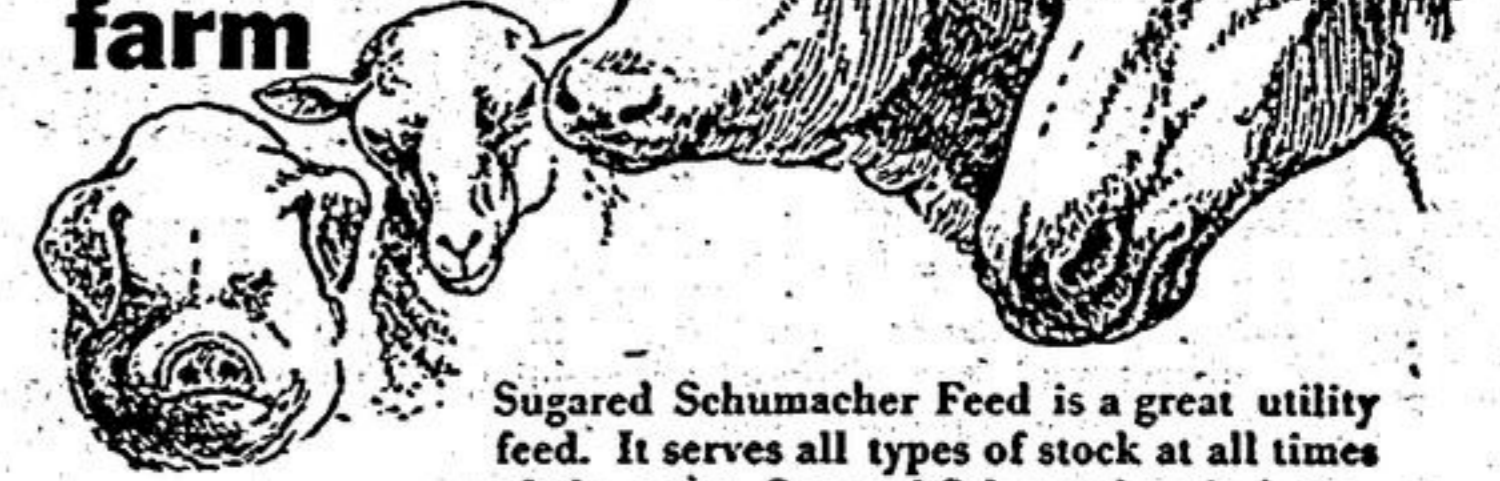

The Senior Women's Institute will meet at the home of Miss Mae Mowder, Albert St., on Wednesday, Feb. 19th, at 2.30 o'clock. Motto: "Fill your life with love and scatter sunshine." The worldly possessions of the late Fred Johnson were sold from his humble home on Friday afternoon to a half hundred people gathered at the property in the park district. After everything inside the one-roomed home was sold, the building itself was disposed of to Sid Schmidt for $10. The theatre man intends to convert it into a chicken house after moving it to his own premises. The next largest sale of the afternoon was the bicycle for $7.50, then went the violin for $5 and still another fiddle for $2. The guitar sold for $3.50, but anything else for the most part went for so many cents each, consisting of 60 pounds of coal, a few dishes, stove, washing machine for 50c and so on. Proceeds of the sale, less auction fees, will be entirely devoted to the purchase of a marker to be placed on Fred Johnson's Grave.

WOOD SALE CANCELLED

Owing to the blocked condition of roads and the raging snow storm last Saturday, the auction sale of wood lots at the rear of lots 25, con. 7, Pickering, on the Lorne Bath farm, was postponed and will now be held on Tuesday, February 18. There are five acres of heavily wooded bush to be sold in small lots, containing much desired fire wood of beech and maple. The sale opens at two o'clock, and as wood lots to be sold this winter are very scarce buyers will be on hand promptly.

Sugared Schumacher Feed is a great utility feed. It serves all types of stock at all times of the year. Sugared Schumacher is better than corn, better than oats, better than barley, better than wheat feeds, because it is a blend of all four of them—plus minerals, molasses and iodine.

Not only has the Canadian Fellowship Service approved subscriptions of Friends, Tunkers, and Mennonite members to a special Dominion loan but the organization will conduct a campaign urging adherents of these three denominations to support it. The loan is for funds expressly designated to finance expenditures to alleviate distress or human suffering due to the war.

The objective is $1,000,000. Certificates are non-interest bearing. Small denominations will be sold to Mennonite children as war savings stamps are sold in other schools.

The campaign will get underway as soon as application forms are received in sufficient number. Rev. J. B. Martin, pastor of Erb Street Mennonite church, reports Rev. Mr. Martin is chairman of the fellowship service which was organized at a recent meeting of representatives of the three denominations in Waterloo.
