Married 60 Years

MR. AND MRS. JOSHUA LEHMAN

Mr. and Mrs. Joshua Lehman celebrated their diamond wedding anniversary last week. They enjoyed a party at their home on Westwood avenue, East York, when some 20 friends gathered to bring them best wishes.

Mr. Lehman was born in Pickering township, Mrs. Lehman in Markham township. They are 89 and 76 years of age, respectively, and were married on Manitoulin Island in 1861.

Mr. Lehman spent his active years as a lumberman, farmer, railway roader, carpenter, and miner. With his wife he has farmed in and worked in lumber camps in Ontario and Alberta, railroaded in British Columbia and Alberta provided him a place to be a coal miner. They spent some years in the United States.

"We've had a happy time," Mr. Lehman said. "We've always worked hard with our hands, but we've enjoyed it. I still do as much as I can." He showed the reporter a fine store house and coal bin he had completed.

There have been days of grief in their lives too. Four sons and a son-in-law went to the last war. Only three sons returned. They have three daughters, two sons again in the army, and a son who has never been heard from in many years. The daughters are Annie Lehman, Toronto; Mrs. (Dr.) J. M. Shiners, Edmonton; Mrs. O. Thomasson, Entwistle, Alta.
