Dickson's Hill

Presiding Elder M. Bricker, was with us on Sunday for the Quarterly Communion Service. We were also pleased that Rev. Henry Goudie was able to be present.

We have had a chance to realize the asset of a chopping mill in the community this past week. The local mill suffered a break in the machinery which took several days to repair. Meanwhile farmers had to haul their grain elsewhere to keep the cows and pigs from going hungry over the weekend.

The Harmon sale has been a long looked-for event to the farmers in general and a number of school boys in particular, who are very much afraid, played hockey on Tuesday, and helped to swell the crowd at this scene of interest.

This is your invitation to the Candlelight Service which will be held Sunday evening at Dickson's Hill. A number of children will assist with the program. A guest missionary will be present and Mr. Lehman will bring a message. This is under the direction of the Sunday School Missionary Superintendents.

Rev. Peter Cober of Kitchener passed away on Sunday at his home and was buried on Wednesday. The late minister was known in this district having served as pastor and Presiding Elder on this field in by-gone days.

Mrs. Wes. Wideman has been having a series of quilting bees this past week to work at a pretty log cabin quilt. Besides the neighbours and relatives of this community, Mrs. Clare Bolender of Bethesda, Mrs. J. Sider of Gormley and Mrs. Charles Hoover of Unionville, all contributed a few stitches.

We are glad to hear Mrs. E. Steckley is steadily improving although still in bed at the time of writing. Mrs. Steckley expects to be able to be up soon for a few minutes each day.

Mr. and Mrs. John Brillinger and Ina had dinner with friends at Markham on Monday.

The W.M.S. Easter meeting will be held next Wednesday, April 2nd, in the church. All ladies of the community, old or young are invited to attend.

This Sunday is missionary day at school, Mr. Bob. Simpson of Toronto will be the special speaker. Everyone will want to be present.

The prayer meeting usually held on Wednesday evening will be held this Friday evening at the home of Mrs. Pike.

On Sunday, our pastor Rev. A. J. Orr concluded a very interesting series of sermons on the Book of Revelation. Arrangements are being made for special services during the Easter season, which should be the happiest of all the year. Plan to attend church service next Sunday.

Ringwood

A number from here attended the funeral of the late Jesse Cook on Tuesday afternoon. Mr. Cook was a former resident north of our village.

Truman Grove has commenced to remodel his house south of "Locust Lodge".

George Harmon's sale was well attended on Tuesday. Fair prices were realized.

Bruels & Black are gathering about 800 eggs per day at their poultry farm here.

An interesting party was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Alex. Ratcliff a few days ago when they entertained to dinner Mrs. Ratcliff's two sisters, their husbands and her parents Mr. and Mrs. Truman Grove. It is a fact to note that three of the couples were observing wedding anniversaries. Mr. and Mrs. T. Grove marked their 39th, Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Steckley their 8th, and Mr. and Mrs. Stewart Stouffer their first. The only grand child, Bernice Steckley was also present.
