Mr. Bruce Lehman of Delhi was home for the Jarvis-Stickley wedding last Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Jim Painter had supper with Mr. and Mrs. Herb Spofford on Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Ben Gayman and son Lawrence of Unionville spent Sunday at the Lehman home.

JARVIS-STECKLEY

Spring flowers and fern decorated the home of Mr. and Mrs. Peter Steckley at Almira, on Wednesday, May 7th, when their daughter Mary Ruth became the bride of Norman Robert, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Jarvis of Agincourt.

Bishop Alvin Winger of Gormley officiated.
The bride given in marriage by her father looked charming in a heavenly blue dress and orange blossoms in her hair and carrying a bouquet of sweetheart roses and baby's breath. Her bridesmaid Miss Betty Hoover of Markham, wore a gown of dusty rose with nosegay of red roses.

The best man was Richard Jarvis brother of the groom. The flower girls, Marjorie and Marian Conner, twin girls of Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Conner wore long frocks of yellow voile and carried nosegays of pink roses.

After the ceremony a dinner was served to 85 guests.

The happy couple left amid showers of confetti and good wishes for a trip to Montreal and Quebec. The bride travelled in a grey dress with black and white accessories.

Among the eighty-five guests were some from Stayner, Collingwood, Delhi, Cheapside, and Toronto.

Dickson's Hill

Mrs. Lehman gave a beautiful Mothers' Day object lesson to the Sunday School this week.

Have you noticed Mr. Anthony Hoover's fine cabbage patch?

Mrs. Arthur Barkey, superintendent of the Cradle Roll has recorded a new name on the list, Gordon Elmore, son of Mr. and Mrs. Elmore Barkey, who made his first appearance at Sunday School this last Sunday.

The cemetery committee met for business connected with the upkeep of the cemetery at Simeon Hoover's Monday night. They are doing all they can to keep the grave yard attractive, or rather, in good condition.

The women met twice this week to improve the appearance of the church: first, last Wednesday for a scrubbing bee, and again Monday afternoon to clean up the rockery. If too much labour were not entailed the whole bank from the church to the mill would be a mass of flowers.

A musical programme was presented at Young People's Monday night under the leadership of Miss Edith Raymer. Mary McKinnon read the Scripture lesson about "making a joyful noise unto the Lord." The first essay by Herb Stover was "Music and Religion" Ruth Thompson took the second part, "Music in the Bible" and President Clarence McDowell "Admonition to singing." These were interspersed with congregational singing of hymns and choruses, a solo by Mr. Meno Grove, "The Model Church" and the playing of several records, "Beautiful Isle of Somewhere", "Tell Mother I'll be There" and "The Holy City." This last selection was illustrated by beautiful coloured slides.

Bethesda

Mrs. Fred Hoover of Newmarket spent several days last week with Mrs. Louis Brillinger.

We are sorry to lose from our community this week Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Tidsbury and baby Allan. The Tidsburys are moving to their new home in Markham village on Thursday.

There was a record attendance at the Sunday School for the Mothers' Day Service. If we honour our mothers by attending the house of God why not attend every Sunday?

This Friday afternoon the Bethesda W.M.S. are joining with Melville and Peachs in a joint service in Melville Church, to which gathering Mrs. J. McEwen will speak.

Mrs. E. Steckley was able to go for an auto ride on Mothers' Day. This was the first time Mrs. Steckley has been able to be out for several months, although she can make her way about the house on crutches.

The W. M. S. met last Wednesday at the home of Mrs. J. Gibson with a good attendance. The Study Book was taken by Mrs. Hicks. Several readings were given and Mrs. Burnett sang a lovely solo. At the close of the meeting, Mrs. W. Empringham read an address and Mrs. Fred Allin presented Mrs. Gordon Tidsbury with a bedroom lamp, to which Mrs. Tidsbury replied very fittingly.
