

2nd Line Uxbridge

Glad to welcome the holidays for this season but sorry to lose our teacher Miss Paisley who so faithfully filled the position for the last four years.

Mr. and Mrs. Taylor attended the shower in Claremont on Wednesday night given in honour of the marriage of Miss Edna Taylor.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom McChesney and family spent Sunday at the Ed. Taylor home.

Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Taylor and Glenda spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Murray Stewart.

Mr. and Mrs. Hollowell of Toronto spent the weekend at Charlie Forsyth's.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Snyder and two children of Sask., have been visiting with Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Forsyth for a few days.

Mr. and Mrs. Norman Wagg motored to Eganville where they visited with the latter's brother. They also called on other friends during the trip.

The storm which passed over our section on Monday was certainly appreciated as the hay and grain crops were burning up badly.

Charlie Forsyth had the misfortune to lose one of his valuable heifers last week.

ATHA

Mrs. A. Draper visited with Mrs. A. Carruthers one day this week.

Mr. Featherston, Ernie Carruthers, also Walter Draper spent Wednesday afternoon in Toronto.

Mr. and Mrs. F. Draper and Eileen had Sunday dinner with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. Wagg, Altona.

Rev. Arthur and Mrs. Greer and son John, also Rev. G. Brown, spent Wednesday, on the Carruther's farm drawing hay.

Mr. Murray Dunkeld, his mother, Mrs. G. Dunkeld, Miss Jean Melton, Melton family at Blackstock on Sunday. Mrs. Dunkeld will remain for a week's holiday.

Mr. and Mrs. Russell Morrison of Beaverton, newlyweds, visited with Mr. and Mrs. Joe Tran one evening last week.

Mr. Silverthorn and Rev. Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Atkinson had tea at the Tran home one evening last week. Carolyn Doris, little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jos. Tran was christened.

Lightning struck Peter Ferguson's barn just north of town on Monday afternoon, and while it sent up a puff of smoke, the building did not take fire. There was a load of hay entering the doors when the bolt struck.

Mongolia

Mr. and Mrs. O. Zellar and family attended the Ball-Burnham reunion on Wednesday, at Arthur Wagg's at Leaskdale.

Mrs. B. Burnell and baby of Claremont spent a week with her parents. Mr. Leland Fairles had tea with Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Wideman last Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Wright and Margaret motored to Bala recently and spent a few days with Mr. and Mrs. E. Gooding.

A number from this community took in the Pugh-Evans Re-union on Saturday afternoon at Uxbridge Park, it was an ideal spot for a hot afternoon.

Miss Lakey of Goodwood has been engaged as teacher for the next year. We are sorry Mr. Fairles is leaving us. He had a very successful year. All the pupils were promoted to a higher grade.

Visitors with Mr. and Mrs. A. Brown on Sunday were Mr. and Mrs. Chester Brown of Toronto, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Brown of Toronto, also Mr. and Mrs. Jim Muirhead of Todmorden were recent guests.

Altona

The Twinkling Star Class held their regular monthly meeting at the home of Irene Crosier on Friday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. E. Howsam and family were visiting his brother Charlie Howsam on Sunday.

Mr. Gordon Bolender has been engaged to teach for another year, we are glad to learn.

A number attended the field day and concert in the Arena at Stouffville on Tuesday.

Our school closed last Friday, and a picnic was held in the afternoon, which proved a pleasant finishing touch to their year's work.

A very welcome rain was enjoyed in this vicinity on Monday evening, the previous showers having missed us, and everything was very badly in need of moisture.

The annual picnic of the W. I. will be held in Stouffville park on Thursday, July 10th. A hearty invitation is extended to the men to come after their day's work and enjoy the supper with the ladies.

Carl Sellers of Brown's Corners won the quilt made by our school pupils, the sale of which netted $35 and was sent to the B.W.V.F. We extend thank to the teacher and pupils for the thoughtfulness of doing this project for so worthy a cause.

Mr. and Mrs. N. Bunker and family, Mr. and Mrs. O. Madill and family attended the Burnham and Ball re-union held at Arthur Wagg's Leaskdale. A good time was enjoyed by all present in spite of the extreme heat.

Bethesda

Helen and David Ratcliff were guests of Mr. and Mrs. A. Steckley here for a day.

Frank Atkinson of Richmond Hill visited with Misses Selina and Flossie Atkinson last Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Gordon of Queensville spent a day here with her parents.

The Junior Institute will meet on July 9 at the home of Mrs. Earl Hisey. The roll call will be answered by a cool drink recipe for summer.

Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Herb. Nelson (nee Janette Empringham) on their marriage last Saturday.

Haying is well advanced and the crop while short is good quality. Those farmers with a mow left over are very fortunate. Monday's rain came just in time to save other crops from serious drought.

Vandorf

Mr. Art Starr of Parry Sound was home over the weekend.

Miss Ruth Oliver and friends motored to Ottawa over the weekend.

Many from here attended the decoration service at Pine Orchard on Sunday afternoon.

Miss Marion VanOstrand has secured Lemonville school for next term.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Avis and Misses Audrey and Grace Sproston attended the wedding of their niece and cousin Saturday in Toronto.

Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Pearson of Toronto visited relatives on Sunday. Our farmers have been making hay fast the last week while the sun shone.

In this district the wheat is turning fast and the spring grain is nearly all in head, although short compared with other years.

The Y.P.U. will hold a social evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Morley on July 9th.

Our picnic will be on July 8; at Island Grove. Bring a basket and everyone come. Truck will leave Wesley Church around 9 a.m. for those that have no other conveyance.

Ballantrae

Ballantrae and Lemonville congregations said farewell to their minister and his wife, Rev. and Mrs. W.S. Irwin on Sunday, June 29, at the morning and afternoon services respectively.

Immediately following the service at Lemonville, the congregation presented Rev. and Mrs. Irwin with a lovely end table book trough. Miss Margaret Emmerson very beautifully read the address, and Mr. Hermon Burkholder, elder of the church, made the presentation.

Mr. Irwin thanked the friends, in a few well chosen words, for their gift. "Blest be The Tie That Binds," was feelingly sung by everyone, followed by a farewell prayer by Mr. Walter Gray.

Mr. and Mrs. Irwin will be sadly missed in this community, where they have labored faithfully for the Master for the past three years.

Green River

We mourn with the rest of the world the passing of the great pianist, Ignace Paderewski.

We are sorry to hear Mrs. H. Wilson is on the sick list. We hope she will soon be well again.

The girls' Mission Circle met on Monday evening at the home of Miss R. Hutchings.

Mr. and Mrs. John Nighswander are entertaining friends this week.

Relatives from Detroit are with Mr. and Mrs. Henry Shank this week. The outside of the church was freshly painted as an additional sign of welcome to the Association meeting.

Mr. and Mrs. E. Forsythe and Miss Sweetzer motored to St. Mary's for the weekend.

Many happy returns to Mrs. Wm. Booth who was 83 years young on June 30th.

The proceeds from Mr. Roy Sebeck's barn dance sent to the Telegram War Fund was $38.00. Hurray for Roy!

Mr. and Mrs. E. Kennedy of Toronto called on friends here on Friday. Mr. Arthur Mollett of Toronto called on relatives here on Sunday.

With the closing of schools, the park is again going full blast. This park appears to be a favorite camping spot for parents with small children. The "no mosquito" slogan is a great inducement too.

The Whitty-Lindsay Association of Baptist churches held their convention here on Wednesday and Thursday last week. We extend our gratitude through the press to Mr. R. G. Clendening who loaned us his chairs, to Miss Margo Wilson who renewed with paint the church sign, to Mrs. Shank and Mr. Wm. Sadler for painting the banner, to Mr. R. Beckett for free parking space, to Mr. J. B. Wilson for free use of park and pavilion, and to all those others who in any other way, great or small, helped to make this one of the best meetings on record in fifty-four years.

Almira

Miss Joan Upton of Toronto, is spending a week with her grandparents Mr. and Mrs. Jim Painter.

Mr. Len Black of Guelph and Mr. Richard Jarvis of Toronto spent last Thursday night with Mr. and Mrs. Donald Jarvis.

Mr. and Mrs. Herb. Spofford and Edith also Mr. and Mrs. Brandon Henry of Toronto spent the weekend at North Bay.

Visitors at Mr. and Mrs. Donald Jarvis' home on Sunday were Mr. and Mrs. Nelson Rayner of Milliken, Miss Emma and Mr. Joan Rayner of Toronto also Mr. Melvin and Miss Kay Homes of Nova Scotia.

Mr. Bruce Lehman of Delhi was home for the holiday.

Bloomington

Mr. and Mrs. S. Rose and daughters of London were guests at A. W. Storry's on Monday.

Miss Margaret Brown of Vandorf was home over Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Davis of Toronto were at church service Sunday morning.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Dennis of Toronto visited with his sister Mrs. J. Storry on Sunday.

The Christian Endeavour held a social evening at the home of Miss Margaret Topper on Thursday. Ice cream, strawberries and cake were served.

Mr. and Mrs. Leask and family of Greenbank were with her father Mr. W. A. Fockler, on Monday. Miss Margaret who has been visiting with her grandparents returned home with them.

Ringwood

Mrs. Alvin Hoover of Green River spent Monday with Miss Ada Barkey.

Charles Stouffer of Newmarket was a visitor with his brothers Stewart and Bruce on Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. S. H. Cockburn moved to Toronto on Saturday.

Mrs. Bruce Morton of Ottawa is spending some time with her mother, Mrs. Maria Quantz.

Miss Margaret Forsyth, daughter of Mrs. Edwin Forsyth of Stouffville has been engaged as teacher in our school to succeed Miss Janet Button who has resigned.

During June Ringwood knitters working for the Stouffville Red Cross handed in the following: Mrs. J. M. Grove, 3 sweaters, Mrs. Cockburn, 1 turtle-neck sweater, Mary Burkholder, 2 pairs socks, 1 pair gloves, Mrs. Thos. Vague, 1 sweater; Mrs. Toppling, 1 pair socks, Miss P. Eipher, 1 pair mitts, Mrs. Ralph Burkholder, 1 pair socks, Mrs. Ross Vague, 1 sweater, Mrs. Roy Grove, 1 sweater.

Mr. and Mrs. Dodge of Durant, Mich. were here last week, visiting Delos Graham's and other friends. Mrs. Dodge was a member of the Durling family of Church Hill.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Bailey of Bancroft, near Durant, accompanied them and attended the Graham reunion at Musselman's Lake on July 1st. Another guest for July 1st was Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Graham and two children from Toronto.

Ringwood School Promotion Results for 1941
Names arranged alphabetically
Entrance to High School (term's work): Marion Ferguson, Georgina Myland, Pete Peck, Douglas Ramer. Gr. 6-7—Leonard Black (hon.), Helen Fockler (hon.), Stewart Vague Gr. 5-6—Betty Black (hon.), Hazel Fockler, Bernard Fockler. Gr. 3-4—Clarence Fockler (hon.), Gr. 2-3—Bernard Fockler, Jessie Harding (hon.), June Steckley, (hon.), Bruce Timbers. Gr. 1-2—Roger Black (hon.), Mildred Fockler, Arthur Harding (rec.) Lorne Mortonson, Phyllis Paisley, Beryl Topping.

—J. A. Button, B.A.

Dickson's Hill

Weekend company with Mr. and Mrs. Jos. Hoover was, Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Byer and the twins, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Grove, Mr. and Mrs. Ed. McDowell and Mr. Stan McDowell.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Raymer of Winton, Mrs. Abraham Raymer of Ontario and Mr. Russell Raymer of Toronto had Sunday supper with Mr. and Mrs. R. Moyer and family.

Miss Eleanor Moyer and Mr. Annie Reid spent a few days at former's home this week. Sunday evening both girls took the train Port Arthur where they will be gaged in Sunday School Miss work for the summer.

Mr. Don Moyer and his mother motored to Hamilton Saturday for wedding at which Don had the honour of being best man. They visited with the Hick's family.

Thursday evening are baseball evenings for the girls now. So along to the school yard to-night and have some fun, girls!

The church was beautifully decorated with delphinium and Madon lilies for the decoration service Sunday afternoon. Rev. T. Rayner, pastor of Markham Presbyterian church gave a splendid address on the subject "Stones of Memorial" and Gormley male quartette sang couple selections. The good crowd which gathered to honour the deceased showed that the successful efforts of the board to keep the cemetery beautiful are appreciated.

Gormley

Mrs. Clara Wideman of Stouffville spent the holiday among friends. Miss Farquerson and Miss A. Clelland had tea with Mr. and Mrs. Lorne Baker on Wednesday evening.

Mr. George Baker & Sons has been busy at Cashel where they have been building a dam for Mr. Mert Brown of Toronto.

Mr. Joe Sider made use of his holiday by planting his cabbage patch after the fine rain which left the ground in good condition.

Mrs. George Bell who has been patient at the Convalescent home was removed to Sutton on Tuesday where we understand she has entered a private home.

Gormley people will miss the familiar whistle and song of Mr. F. Siler since he has gone to Whitby with the former occupants of Brookside Convalescent Home.

Misses Doreen and Ruth Good have gone to Lakeview House, Jason's Point, to work for the summer months where their sister Dorothy has been employed since Mr. Thomas Johnson, merchant has completed his new basement room where he has installed modern egg grading and candling equipment.

Gormley people are rejoicing over the beautiful rains we have received this week. Things were badly dried in places but now have taken on new life.

Miss McClelland and Miss Farquerson who conducted nursing home here have gone to Whitby where they are opening hospital. We are sorry to see them leaving us but wish for them the very best in their new community.

Mr. Frank Harvey has completed the installation of a new set of scales at the Gormley elevate. These are much larger than the one he had before and it has made big improvement since they are completed.

Miss Ruth Hoover is staying with her brother Charles at Unionville where she is convalescing from a recent operation. We are so glad to hear she has made such a rapid recovery.

Gormley Summer Bible School commences on July 21, continuing through to August 1st. Those wishing to send their children are asked to co-operate with Mr. Will Paisley at Bethesda, or Mr. Frank Harvey at Gormley so transportation may be arranged.

Suggestions For the Hot Weather

(C & C)

Shredded Wheat 2 pkg. 23c

Orange Marmalade 32 oz. jar 25c

Chocolate Drop Cream Sandwich Biscuits lb. 17c

Tiger Catsup large 32 oz. bottle 15c

KELLOGG'S 8 oz. pkgs.

Corn Flakes 3 for 25c

Newport Wheat Fluffs 8 oz. pkg. & tumbler 19c

Bright's Peaches (choice) 15 oz. 2 for 25c

Delicious Peanut Butter 20 oz. jar 25c

SHIRIFF'S FANCY ASSORTED

Puddings 3 for 25c

Pilchards 1 lb. tin 15c

Brunswick Sardines per tin 6c

Poulton & Noel's Meat Paste per tin 5c

Toilet Tissue 4 rolls for 19c

Stouffville Groceteria

Self Serve

Phone 280

We Deliver

Phone 3501

For Prompt Delivery

Shortening 2 lbs. 25c

Sausage 1b. 15c

Stewing Beef, 1b. 15c

Brisket 1b. 11c

Sirloin Steak 1b. 28c

Cottage Rolls 1b. 29c

Rib Boil lb. 12c

Pot Roast Beef lb. 16c

Shoulder Pork lb. 18c

Round Steak lb. 25c

Hamburg lb. 15c

Pure Lard 1b. 10c

O'Boyle Meat Market

Phone 3501

Stouffville

HEADQUARTERS FOR

Paints Enamels Varnishes

When you are redecorating your home, be sure that you get colors you like. Paints not only protect and preserve, but they should be cheerful companions. We invite you to make free use of our new C-I-L color combination selector.

Steel Shovels, Garden Sets, Hoes, Wheelbarrows Spading Forks, Steel Spades

Save on Mowers and Bambo Rakes

RICHES HARDWARE