Planes like this equipped with deadly "tin fish" like this, have in recent days attacked and badly damaged a German, pocket battleship off the Norwegian coast and then hit and probably sank a 6,000-ton supply ship sneaking down the coast of the Netherlands, adding further to the laurels of the Coastal Command. In this branch of the air

PRETTY BETHESDA WEDDING

A pretty wedding was solemnized at the home of the bride's parents, Bethesda, on Saturday, June 28, when Jeanette Louise, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Empringham became the bride of Herbert Frederick Nelson of Gormley.

The ceremony which took place under an arch of evergreens with a background of canterbury bells, delphinium and daisies, was conducted by Rev. A. J. Orr of Unionville.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a white sheer gown and carried a bouquet of briarcliff roses and baby's breath. Her fingertip veil was arranged in a halo and caught with white blossoms.

Miss Ethel Empringham was her sister's bridesmaid dressed in pink sheer crepe and carried briarcliff roses and cornflowers. Jean Empringham, niece of the bride was flower girl wearing a frock of yellow silk and carrying a basket of pink and white canterbury bells.

Mr. Harry Nelson, brother of the groom was groomsman.

Mrs. Wm. Empringham played the wedding music and during the signing of the register Mrs. Roy Morley, aunt of the bride, sang "I Love You Truly."

After the ceremony the guests retired to the lawn, where the wedding luncheon was served.

The couple left amid showers of good wishes on a motor trip. For travelling the bride wore a powder blue dress with white accessories. On their return Mr. and Mrs. Nelson will live at Gormley.

Lions Draw Crowd of Nearly 1,000 for Holiday Concert

Although the Stouffville Lions Club will meet little if any profit from Dominion Day celebration, the members are more than gratified, because they gave a tremendous crowd of people a first rate concert that really pleased everybody. They started cramming into the arena at 7.15 and kept it up until nearly a thousand people were there, and how they stayed to the very end at 11 o'clock, despite the heat. Three intervals were provided to give the happy throng time to visit the booth in the building and be refreshed.

Bandmaster Ridley brought out from Toronto one of the finest arrays of talent yet heard here. You scarcely could pick a star for every number had his favorites. There was pretty Patricia Bailey, radio star singing and dancing; Arnett the funny magician and clever too; Jack McCraith, zylophonist; the Chansonettes, beautiful accomplished singers and Audrey May, drum majorette who was mighty popular. Bandmaster Ridley made an excellent master of ceremonies.

M. E. Watts, president of the Lion Club officiated for the lucky draws and little Fay O'Neill drew the tickets from the barrel. Results giving number of the lucky tickets were:

- 642—Electric Lamp
- M. Crickmore, Musselman's Lake.
- 856—Electric Toaster
- Mary Stinson, niece of Dr. Weatherill
- 10—Ton of Coal

Miss Flossie Barkey.

1031—Ton of Coal

Almer Fockler.

835—Casserole Dish

Mrs. Jack Barkey.

785—$5 War Saving Certificate

Mrs. W. Jack.

722—Flower Container

Miss Ruth Walls.

.68—Shell Oil

Lloyd Hill, Richmond Hill.

927—$5 War Saving Certificate

Ted Boadway

749—Electric Clock

Mrs. Wilson, Victoria Street.

A draw for quilt done by the pupils of Miss Leta Bunker's Home Economics Class went to Mrs. Richard Ward of Stouffville. The class sold tickets totalling around $20 for the B.W.V.F.

The C.G.I.T. girls sold badges and during the afternoon earned some $30.00.

In view of the fact that a high class entertainment was provided, plus entirely free entertainment in the afternoon at the park, the Lions are grateful they "made ends meet."

A detachment of the Queens' York Rangers under Lieut. Bales was on the grounds in the afternoon and gave a military display which proved instructive to the onlookers. Stouffville Junior Band provided music all afternoon and assisted in the evening at the concert. Their part in the parade in the afternoon and throughout the day was a great credit to the organization.

MIDDLETON CLAN HOLDS REUNION

Gather From Many Canadian Points

More than 200 attended the 10th annual reunion of the Middleton family held Tuesday in the Woodbridge park. Games and races for old and young were contested.

William Middleton, 85, of Toronto, was the oldest gentleman present, and Mrs. Thos. Hamilton, 82, of Weston, the oldest lady. Baby Rum-ball was the youngest. Mrs. John Middleton, Calgary; Mrs. Charles White, Moose Jaw, and Mrs. J. Adamson, Ernfold, Sask., travelled the longest distance to be on hand for the event.

Peterboro, Orillia, Huntsville, Toronto, Carryville, Markham, Claremont, Ringwood, Detroit, Calgary, Fort Erie, Elmvalle and Woodbridge were well represented. Officers elected were: President, Armour Middleton, Toronto; vice-president, Geo. Hewitt, Peterboro; secretary-treasurer, Mrs. Gordon Middleton, Huntsville. Program committee, George Hewitt and Adam Spears, Whitevale.

CEDAR GROVE NUPTIAL

Lion Baptist church, Cedar Grove, Ontario, was the scene of the marriage on Saturday of Helen Jean Little, Elm Rouge Farm, Agincourt, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Little, to Frederick Carleton Johnston, of Toronto, son of Robert J. Johnston, of Creemore, Ontario. Rev. W. R. Auld officiated and Miss Dorothy M. Little played the wedding music.

The bride was given in marriage by her father and wore a gown of white English suède lace made with a basque bodice and gored skirt. She wore a French pearl Juliet cap with finger-tip veil and carried a cascade of white sweet peas and Bermuda lilies.

Miss Audrey K. M. Little, the brides only attendant, wore a gown of white chiffon with a garland of apricot African daisies in her hair to match her bouquet. William A. Jackson was best man. The ushers were T. Harris Little and J. Morris Darby.

At the reception held at the home of the bride's parents, Mrs. Little received wearing a gown of Queen's blue with a large white hat and a corsage of roses. Miss Mary E. Johnston, sister of the groom, also received wearing a gown of flowered crepe with a white jacket and hat and corsage of yellow and mauve flowers. The couple then left on a trip to Northern Ontario, the bride travelling in a rose printed silk dress with white straw hat and accessories.
