Wells of Bloomington, Ill.; Miss Anne Wells and Mr. Tricker of Peoria, Ill., also Mrs. Watson and Miss Myrtle of Stouffville. Mr. and Mrs. Watson enjoyed a visit with these American cousins some eighteen years ago on their honeymoon.

Decoration day at the cemetery is over once more, and it is with deep satisfaction because the whole affair was most successful. Mr. Harris presented a seat and Mr. and Mrs. Davey gave the cemetery a reading desk. The service was taken by Rev. J. Bushel, and the singing was fine, leaving us deeply indebted to all these people for their goodness. The beautiful decorations on the graves were still an inspiring sight the next day and were admired by motorists passing by. Mr. Walter Davey is deserving of special praise for having gathered together the singers and all the detail he handled.
