STRANGE FORMATION
KILLS 14-YEAR-OLD HORSE

A fourteen-year-old horse belonging to Harry and Walter Brillinger is dead. The cause of death is rare among animals, according to Dr. S. T. Bodendistel, veterinary surgeon, who conducted an autopsy and discovered a enterolith weighing 2 pounds, 6 ounces, in the animal's bowels. The rock like mass was brought to The Tribune office in a sealed candy jar and is here for farmers and others to view for a few days. It is interesting.

Dr. Bodendistel said the formation is extremely rare, and is caused by an accumulation of phosphate of lime and magnesia in the colon. This one obstructed the dorsal colon, and caused the animal's death.

Although going on his 12th year in practice, Dr. Bodendistel never before encountered a similar case. Indeed veterinaries have been in business fifty years and never removed such an obstruction.

HOOK FAILED SO JACOB
DIVED INTO THE DEEP

Brought Out The Biggest Speckled Beauty Caught in Local Water in Many Years.

Jacob Meyer, retired farmer, and altogether an industrious man, is seldom reported in connection with any sporting event, but this time he is right in the centre of a fish yarn that will make the angler green with envy. Last Monday morning he cast a line into the creek that crosses the 9th concession of Pickering by the Reesor sideroad and which also crosses the farm of his son, Allan. Scarcely daring to hope for even a bite, his hair fairly stood on end when one of those big speckled beauties usually seen only in pictures started to flirt with his hook in a most determined manner. It gave one yank that fairly pulled Mr. Meyer into the narrow stream, but one big tug from the angler lifted the wiggling shining beauty clear out of the water.

Like all big fish, the speckled beauty got away. It got off the hook, and fell backward into the stream. Mr. Meyer was fairly excited by this time from the very sight of the thing, and throwing all discretion to the winds he lunged into the stream as he saw his prey swiftly darting into deeper water, and perhaps to hide behind a rock. The dive was well aimed, and the fight increased in its intensity. The fish darted, but the keen eye of the fisherman enabled him to grab it by the tail. This hold slipped, and a second attempt nabbed the fish by the gills to throw it high and dry on the bank. It measured 14 inches long

AN INVALUABLE SERVICE

It is doubtful if in any other line of business the man at the retail end renders as technically expert and helpful service to his customers at so low a cost as does the local Implement Dealer. This, while it has always been so, has greater significance in these days of more highly mechanized farming, calling as it does for training and experience in the servicing of modern machines.

His experience with machines enables him to give time and money-saving service in the speedy furnishing of the correct part when repairs and replacements are required—for delays in seeding, haying and harvesting may result in substantial loss to a farmer. In those critical seasons his warehouse is open practically at all times, and he is untiring in playing his part to prevent farmers suffering from delays.

His accumulated knowledge of methods being used and of the experiences of the many farmers he calls on and associates with makes his advice helpful and valuable.

Since the early pioneering days, through all the vicissitudes of farming, the Implement Dealer has shared the hardships as well as the fortunes of farmers rendering a worth-while service and establishing a well-founded place for himself in our economic set-up.

TRIBUTE TO MARY

"Every duty, well and honestly done, is a contribution to victory."
THE PRIME MINISTER OF CANADA.

Mary is the "voice with a smile". Mary is the efficient person generally known as a telephone operator. As an operator she knows much about telephone equipment—how it should be used and handled.

But Mary is best known for her personality—for her coolness in emergencies—for the grand things she has done time and again, ignoring her own danger, intent on one thing only—to keep the standard of telephone service high.

We pay respectful tribute to Mary and all the girls who work with her. Her devotion to her job sets a standard of public service. Tactful, patient and courteous, Mary is the medium through which this Company and its public are always in touch. She plays a vital part in Canada's war effort.
