

STANLEY THEATRE

Phone 100
Showing each night at 8.15, (s.t.)
Saturday and Holidays 7.00 and 9.00

Thursday, Friday, Saturday
OCTOBER 9-10-11

"Hudson's Bay"

Paul Muni, Virginia Field
Comedy and Short Subjects

Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday
OCTOBER 13-14-15

"Laddie"

(Gene Stratton Porter Novel)
with
Tim Holt, Virginia Gilmore
Comedy and "Information Please"

Thursday, Friday, Saturday
OCTOBER 16-17-18

"SUBMARINE ZONE"

Pat O'Brien
Also
"CANADA CARRIES ON"

Gormley

Norman Carrington started work at Pickering on Tuesday morning.
Mr. George Hillis is busy these fine days taking up his gladioli bulbs.
Mrs. Storms is spending a few days with her sister, Mrs. J. Doust.
Little Mary Smith visited with her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Will Dennie over the weekend.
Mr. and Mrs. Will Wilson of Washago spent the weekend here among their many friends.
Mrs. Thos. Johnson enjoyed a visit with Mr. and Mrs. Frank Thompson of Mount Dennis.
Mrs. George Baker spent last Thursday in Newmarket with her daughter Mrs. Will Klees.
Murray Baker has secured a position at the Newmarket Office Specialty.
We are pleased to report that Miss Vera Hillis seems quite well again. She started back at her stand in the North Toronto Market on Saturday.
Clarence Helse, Streetsville, has sold his house and lot in old Gormley to his brother William who just sold one of his farms at the Square.
Mr. and Mrs. Frank Harvey, Lloyd and Joyce spent the weekend in Springville with Mr. and Mrs. Geo. French and Mr. and Mrs. Roy Nigh and four daughters.
Mr. Frank Rowbotham of Stouffville has purchased the house and lot here where Mr. Thos. Lyons lived, and they have been busy cleaning and fixing up around the premises.

ATHA

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Tran visited her mother in Stouffville on Sunday.
Mr. O. Hyland, Blackstock, spent a day with Ernie Carruthers.
A shower and a musical evening were two interesting events for the newly weds Mr. and Mrs. Kennedy.
Several from here attended the hot supper at Claremont Baptist Church on Monday night.
Misses Audrey and Lois Hoover and friends from Toronto are spending a few days at the former's home here.
Rev. Arthur and Mrs. Greer and two sons from Newmarket spent Thursday afternoon and evening at the Carruthers home here.
Mr. and Mrs. Murray Dunkeld, Mrs. Tom Dunkeld, Miss Jean Milton, motored to Blackstock on Sunday and spent the day with Mr. and Mrs. James Milton.
Congratulations to the Misses Whitson on their recent wins with their fine string of cattle, also to Mr. and Mrs. Murray Dunkeld who won seven first and seven seconds at Markham Fair.
The home of Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Lehman was the scene of a quiet wedding on Wednesday, Sept. 24, when their daughter Mary became the bride of Harold Kennedy, son of Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Kennedy of Toronto. Rev. Arthur Lehman, brother of the bride officiated.
The bride was given in marriage by her father, and her only attendants were Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Kennedy from Toronto. The happy couple will leave for their new home in Colborne on Thursday where Mr. Kennedy is stationed. Best wishes from the community go with them.

Melville

Mrs. J. Breckon left on Sunday to spend a few days in Toronto visiting relatives and friends.
Anniversary services will be held in the Melville United Church, Sunday, October 19th. The Rev. H. J. McKay of Victoria Square will preach at the morning service and the Rev. R. W. Rumley of Agincourt at evening service.
Thanksgiving services will be held at all appointments next Sunday, Oct. 12th.
Miss Milne of Ottawa who has been spending several weeks at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Bruce returned on Friday last accompanied by her cousin Miss Nettie Bruce.

Church Hill

Mrs. W. Cockerill, resident of Musselman's Lake for many years, has gone to Toronto for an indefinite time.
Phone 18402 and make a reservation for your Thanksgiving Dinner to be served on Sunday, October 12, at the Village Inn.

Victoria Square

Mr. John Williamson, R.C.A.F. at Manning Pool, Toronto, visited with friends here on Sunday.
Mrs. Charles Smith visited with Miss F. Smith at Aurora on Wednesday of last week.
Mr. Andrew Forsam is now taking a course on mechanics at night school in Toronto.
Mr. and Mrs. Marcus Jarvis visited on Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Herb Jarvis and Jean, Locust Hill.
We are pleased to report that Mr. Bert Sanderson is feeling much better and is able to be up.
Miss Mable Caseley and Mr. Bruce Anderson visited with Mrs. Meryl Morris and family of Bradford on Sunday.
Mr. Charles Smith and Walter had dinner with Mr. and Mrs. Fraser Smith of Bondhead on Wednesday last.
Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Stansbury of Toronto visited with the latter's parents Mr. and Mrs. Robertson on Sunday.
We are pleased to welcome Mr. and Mrs. S. Robb and family into the community, who have recently moved to the Thompson farm on the 5th line. Mr. and Mrs. Robb had been living near Kettleby.
The Victoria Square Anniversary services are to be held Nov. 2nd, with the Annual Fowl Supper to be held the following Wednesday, Nov. 5th. Please keep these dates open and watch for further detailed notice later.

Miss Viola Avison was in charge of the Y.P.U. on Sunday evening. The scripture was read by Andrew Forsam, a reading by Marian Smith and a pleasing solo by Marion Boston. The topic on "Are You Back in the Old Grove?" was very ably handled by Harold Kijnek.
Next Sunday, Oct. 12th, Rev. W. Wallace, a retired minister from Toronto is to preach the sermon at Headford and at the Square, as our pastor has been asked to preach to one of his former congregations in Toronto where they are celebrating Jubilee Services.
The regular meeting of the Goforth Mission Circle will be held at the home of Mrs. Reid Brumwell on Friday evening October 17th, at 8 p.m. The Newtonbrook Circle Girls are coming up to put on the program. All young women of the community are welcome to attend.

Bloomington

Miss Mary Paisley who is attending Toronto Bible College was at her father's home here over Sunday.
Miss Gwen Tranmer of Toronto, who is attending Normal School was home over the weekend.
Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Barnes and son of Whitby were visiting relatives here on Sunday.
Mr. and Mrs. Harrison of Queensville were calling on friends on Sunday.
Mr. and Mrs. E. Lemon took a pleasure trip through the north country last week.
Miss Margaret Topper of Toronto was home on Sunday.
Mrs. Smith spent a few days last week at her son Eldon's at Church Hill.
Markham Fair proved as big an attraction as usual.
We congratulate Mrs. E. McNelly and Miss Ruth Storry on the prizes they received on their exhibits. Mrs. McNelly has quite a list of prizes from the different fall fairs for an appliqued quilt.

Bethesda

Mr. Reesor Steckley, R.C.A.F. spent the weekend with his parents. Reesor has recently been transferred from Brandon to Toronto.
Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Banks (nee Velma Bolender) have moved to their home on the 7th line.
Whitchurch township council, we understand will hold their monthly meeting this coming Saturday, the regular meeting date.
Mr. and Mrs. F. J. Atkinson of Richmond Hill visited the old home on Sunday.
Mr. Watson Scott of Toronto was a Sunday visitor in the community.
The Jr. Women's Institute will meet this week at the home of Mrs. Burnice Preston.
A number of Bethesda faces were seen among the crowd at Markham Fair.
The Y.P.U. will meet on Friday night at eight o'clock. Mr. Gordon Bolender will give the topic on "Consequences of Great Decisions."
While at the home of her sister Mrs. Bolender, Miss Elizabeth Wideman of Dickson's Hill, fell down the stairs and broke her ankle. Miss Wideman was removed to the hospital.
The home of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Steckley was the scene of a large gathering last Friday night when friends assembled to shower their daughter Kathleen and her husband-to-be Jack Clubine with many beautiful gifts.
Mrs. Wm. Hunt accidentally dropped a board containing a rusty nail last week and the nail pierced her foot causing a great deal of pain; owing to the swelling Mrs. Hunt was unable to wear her shoe for several days.

Mother's Bread Was Baked Just Like Stover's

If you want to refresh your memory on that wonderful tasting bread Mother used to make, and you used to eat by the half-dozen slices—order a loaf of STOVER'S Home Quality Bread. Made just like Mother's — with those fine quality ingredients that makes the finest bread.

THE STOUFFVILLE BAKERY

Bakers For Two Generations

Dickson's Hill

Miss Edith Hoover was home on Sunday.
Miss Marion Barkey visited at her grandfather's, Mr. A. C. Barkey, this week.
Everybody plan to attend the missionary meeting to be held in the church at 8 o'clock tonight (October 9).
Mr. Ed. Silversides of Three Hills, Alta., called at Mr. Simeon Hoover's and Mr. A. C. Barkey's on Tuesday.
Mr. and Mrs. Roy Moyer, accompanied by Mrs. Abram Raymer of Markham, spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Raymer of Weston and Mr. and Mrs. Russell Raymer of Toronto.
A very enjoyable evening was spent at the home of Mr. William Risebrough last Thursday night, when a pantry-shelf-shower was given in honour of Miss Irene Emblem, who will be married this month.
We are all sorry to learn of the misfortune which overtook Miss Elizabeth Wideman who suffered a broken ankle last week. We wish her a speedy recovery.
Our scholars under the supervision of their teacher Miss L. Stouffer, constructed a very interesting safety project which was exhibited at Markham Fair, and which is pictured in this issue we understand.
One by one the silos are being filled. These jolly times that the men folk enjoy will soon be over for another season. We suppose they'll be finished this week and then they will be able to take a day off to go to the ploughing match at Peterborough next week.

MISSIONARIES FROM INDIA COMING TO ALTONA
The 11th annual fall rally of the W.M.S. of the Christian Church conference will be held in the Altona Church on Wednesday, October 15, with two sessions, at 2 and 7.30 p.m.
In the afternoon Mrs. Whitman of Toronto will be the guest speaker also there will be a business session and open discussion.
Mr. and Mrs. Padgett who expect to return to their mission field in India in a few weeks will address the evening mass meeting to which everyone is invited.
Supper will be served in the church.

OUR WEEKLY Specials Save You MONEY

CHOICE PEACHES (halves) 15 oz. tin	15c
CHOICE DESERT PEARS, 18 oz. tin	12c
BETTER KRUST 24 lb. bag	73c
PASTRY FLOUR	73c
CHOICE MINCEMEAT, 2 lbs.	25c
CORN STARCH, Durham, package	11c
RED RIVER CEREAL, package	25c
STRAWBERRY JAM, Hillcrest, 32 oz. jar	33c
SHREDDED WHEAT (C & C) 2 pkg.	23c
PERFECTION COCOA, Cowans, half pound	15c
KARA COFFEE 1 lb.	39c
(Real flavour)	1 lb.
PEANUT BUTTER, Choice, 20 oz. jar	25c
MOLASSES SNAPS, 2 pounds	27c

Redeem your Coupons before we discontinue one line of premiums

Stouffville Groceteria

Self Serve Phone 280 We Deliver

Superior Meats at Special Low Prices

Bologna	lb.	17c
Pot Roast Beef	lb.	16c
Round Steak	lb.	25c
Hamburg	lb.	15c
BRISKET POINTS	lb.	11c
RIB BOIL	lb.	13c
Peameal Back Bacon	lb.	45c
SIDE PORK	lb.	21c
Prime Rib Rolled	lb.	28c
Porterhouse Roast	lb.	30c
Shoulder Pork	lb.	21c
Loins Pork	lb.	30c
Leg Pork	lb.	29c
Tomato Soup 3 for		25c

For Roasting

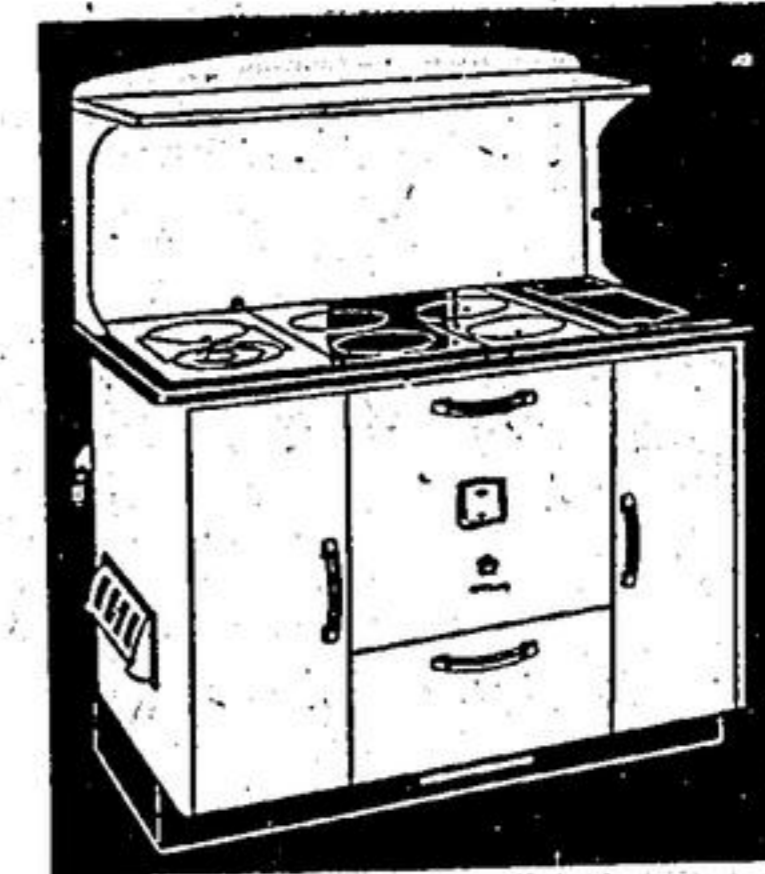

Crosse & Blackwell's Cream

Chuck Roast	lb.	20c
Sausage	2 lbs.	25c
Sirloin Steak	lb.	28c
PEAMEALED
Cottage Rolls	lb.	29c
Sirloin Roast	lb.	27c

O'Boyle Meat Market

Phone 3501 Stouffville

McCLARY STOVES

The name of good Stoves since 1847. This firm has been making Stoves since that time and they know the difference between Stoves and something to burn rubbish in.
You wouldn't buy a cream separator to thresh with, so don't buy an ash container to bake with. Buy the best you can for your money and you will buy a McClary!
Easy on Fuel — Easy on the Nerves — Easy on the Pocketbook.

RICHES HARDWARE

For Best Results Ship Your Cream to Us

The best way to keep your meat is in COLD STORAGE — Rent a locker $6.00 per year from the time you rent same.

Stouffville Creamery Co.

Phone 18601
Open Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday Evenings