Dickson's Hill

Mr. J. Harold Sherk addressed the Young People at their meeting on Monday evening. The service was interesting and well attended.

The Hallowe'en Party at the school on Friday afternoon was enjoyed by the scholars and a number of grown-up as well. Our teacher, Miss Stouffer explained the method used in teaching of writing. Then Merlin Grove acted as chairman while the pupils gave an interesting programme of vocal and instrumental selections, a reading, jokes and riddles. At the close, the ghosts and goblins came, really! Lunch was served, and everybody went home.

Sunday marked the 78th anniversary of the church here at Dickson's Hill. Mr. Jesse Steckley was the special speaker at the morning and evening services. We were also pleased to have a group of young people from Toronto who gave vocal and instrumental selections. The Rev. J. Harold Sherk conducted the services in the absence of our pastor who was visiting the camp for conscientious objectors at Montreal River.

The people of this community were shocked to hear of the death of Mrs. Edward P. Hoover (Ruth Raymer) of Tottenham. She was the eldest daughter of the late Rev. Christian Raymer and Christina Stouffer, mother of Herbert Hoover, and sister of Mrs. B. E. Wiancko, and Miss Bertie Raymer. Funeral service on Thursday afternoon at 1 o'clock, (s.t.) at Tottenham. Then service and interment at Dickson's Hill on arrival of motorists.
