Gormley

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Doner had tea with Mr. and Mrs. Lorne Baker on Saturday evening.

Miss Mary Baker spent a week with Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Baker at Concord.

Miss Hazel Johnson is spending a couple of weeks with Mrs. Ed. Dixon in away hunting.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Warwick moved to Toronto on Saturday, hence we will miss them in our services.

We were pleased to have Miss Ella Hoover in town for the weekend Prayer meeting this week is at the home of Auctioneer Alvin Farmer. Let us have a good turn out at this service.

We are glad to hear that Mrs. Ern Jones is better and able to be out again.

Miss Eva Wideman had the misfortune of breaking her wrist from a nasty fall at Mrs. Chant's home where she was employed. She is now convalescing at the home of her aunt, Mrs. Frank Harvey.

The many Gormley friends of Miss Vera Wilson are pleased to know that she was home for dinner last Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. William Wilson of Thornhill.

That was a lovely wedding at the Mennonite Church on Saturday afternoon when Miss Hazel Cherry and Mr. Harry Rumble were united in marriage. Their many friends wish them many happy years together.

Many things are taking place in Gormley lately. Several foxes are roaming the fields stealing fowl and being bold enough to come right to the barns. Four were seen around Harold Doner's having a choice duck dinner. Some are losing ducks some are losing teeth, some are breaking bones, but worst of all are those who cannot see the ditch. Time we had street lights for those who walk in the dark.

Last Thursday about 13 ladies met at the Mennonite Church to quilt and finish other articles for the refugees in England and then packed them for shipping. Items sent were: 8 quilts, 5 women's nightgowns, 2 boys' shirts, 4 baby jackets, 4 complete layettes, 4 pairs mitts, boys suit girl's pullover and skirt, 8 girl's slips, 19 dresses, 2 pairs bloomers, 5 pair pyjamas, 2 pairs pillow cases, 10 cakes soap, 13 pairs flannelette blankets, 35 utility bags, valued at $19.30. Many of these articles were gathered by the hallowe'en children and we here wish to thank the many homes that contributed toward this effort. Nine pairs of the flannelette blankets were bought with the Sunday evening offering at our anniversary service. The other 4 pairs were donated by friends. This shipment is valued at $154.57. With only two months to get ready for this shipment we feel the Gormley folks are interested and doing their little bit.

On Sunday Mrs. Clara Wideman motored to Vineland where she will take up her residence with her sister Mrs. Funk. Mrs. Wideman also has another sister Mrs. Fred Cook living at Vineland and whose husband keeps store. We regret deeply to see one of our most cherished residents leaving Gormley, hence with her goes our prayers and good wishes for her enjoyment. The fine large Wideman residence here is offered for sale and what a lovely rest home it would make under some capable management. We trust the day will come when the right parties will realize the possibility of this place and so buy it up.

We note that Markham council is to take over the upkeep of Main street through Gormley for the coming year. Of course this means that we will be well looked after by Reeve Rennie and Deputy Reeve Charlie Hooper. It is a heavy traffic avenue, and needs plenty of attention.

Almira
