Georgina Township Council has granted $25 toward the Pefferlaw Christmas market. Markham, Whitchurch, or Uxbridge townships could hardly be expected to make such a grant to the Stouffville Christmas market, where they have several towns and markets bidding for the business of the farmer. Pefferlaw, in the heart of Georgina with no outside competition, may quite properly seek such a grant.

Keep in mind Saturday, Dec. 13, when the Workers of the War Branch are putting on a bazaar. They are asking you for a donation of homemade baking or any articles that would be saleable for Christmas gifts. We are depending on you and you to help us make this bazaar a success as you did last year. All proceeds go forward helping us to continue our work for soldiers British War Victims and Sailors.

Miss Jessie Walls, R.N., of Toronto spent the weekend with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Edw. Walls.

Miss Ruth Nendick, Port Arthur, and Miss Jean Cooper, Montreal, were guests of Mrs. Christie Armstrong for a few days.

Two loads of guests from King were entertained at the United parsonage on Sunday while here for the anniversary occasion of their former pastor.

Jack Davis, tenant on the Wideman farm west of town, has rented the John Campbell farm at Dickson Hill and recently vacated by Orville Pipher. The property is now owned by a Toronto man, and is a high producing farm. The Wideman farm is being plowed by the new owner Win Timbers.

Mrs. Lena McDonald, daughter Evelyn and son Ernest have gone to Toronto for the winter, and will live with Mrs. McDonald's father who has recently lost his wife. Evelyn is attending Mimico high school, while Ernest will continue his vocational work in the city.

Mr. James McGivern who resides with his aunt on Albert street and who joined the army on Sept. 14 with the rank of a captain, expects to be called as an army chaplain shortly. Capt. McGivern is a veteran of the last war.

Mrs. David McConnochie has gone to Toronto for the winter season, where her youngest son, Robert is engaged in carpentering work. Their home in the west end is closed while they are away, but it might be available to a reliable tenant partly furnished.

After escaping from an officer of the juvenile court in Toronto, a 15-year-old boy was found in possession of a stolen car near Uxbridge early Wednesday, Chief W. Vesey, stated. The car was reported stolen by E. D. Miller, Oshawa. The boy was on his way from Port William to Bowmanville boys' school when he escaped, police said.

A telegram received by Mrs. James of Toronto to the effect that her son, John James, a member of the Royal Engineers overseas, was being invalided home, proved to be false. John James, who is a brother of Mrs. Lehman of Pickering Twp. went over last July and the report received from Nova Scotia last week was the first word that the family have had of any mishap. However, before arrangements had been completed to meet him in Toronto, a second telegram arrived announcing the mistake.

Stouffville was within an ace of having a line fence dispute aired in court last week, when a couple of chaps both of whom admit they will never celebrate another 60th birthday locked arms in the heat of the moment over the placing of line fence posts. However good fellowship prevailed after what threatened to involve an out-and-out scrap. It seems that next to the forbidden apple the line fences hold the lime-light for trouble, but probably better judgement in this instance prevailed when all parties submitted to a legal opinion and the newspaper is thereby denied an entertaining court case which our readers, we know, would enjoy reading.

Over 600 people attended the turkey supper held at Unionville, and the United Church there cleared over $200.

Mrs. Bessie Lett, Toronto, was home for the weekend with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Watson.

The Tribune has for sale stock tickets that may be used for small draws. These are made in books of 12, with a place for the name and address of the buyer and a line to write in what the draw is for as it is thought necessary to do this. Books sell for 50c per dozen.

Pullets Lay a Double Yoke

W. D. Parker, who recently purchased what to old timers is known as the McDonald home on Church street north, where he is conducting quite a poultry farm, showed us a pullet egg from a bird only six months old, that measured 8x6 1/4". It was a perfect specimen of hen fruit, double yoke. Mr. Parker who moved here from Pickering has over 500 pullets just ready to lay.

Plenty of buyers, but few have cash, is the way William Ball explained the failure of a small adv. in this paper to sell his Model T. Ford car. While of ancient vintage, the car has very small mileage and seems about perfect every way. It is the open touring model, and the engine would make a dandy power outfit for many a farmer, while the wheels and chassis could be converted into a truck wagon, one of those new style that farmers are hankering for.

Mrs. (Dr.) H. Richardson, the former Margaret Shank, daughter of Unionville's mail courier on No. 1 route, was down from Kirkland Lake for a few days, and reported that galoshes and winter coats were necessary wearing apparel in the hub of the Temiskaming district, which is just 400 miles north of Toronto. Snow has fallen to some depth this month reported Mrs. Richardson who paid a hurried call on Mrs. Charles Nolan last Saturday.

The November meeting of the Garret Evening Auxiliary was held at Mrs. F. L. Button's home, with Miss Lucy Waters presiding. The worship service conducted by Miss Anne Lehman included a solo by Mrs. J. M. Storey and a reading by Miss Eva Hoover. A very interesting talk was given by Miss Ann Lindsay on the "Life of Rev. Oliver Jackson in Newfoundland", from the study book. Mrs. Levi Forsythe and daughter rendered a duet. At the close of the meeting a social half-hour was enjoyed.

Green Peas and Roses

Mr. E. Clubine picked green peas, and more were in blossom on his farm west of Stouffville last week. He brought in a few well filled pods to prove the report which contains nothing but the truth. In the east end of the town we were shown a lovely red rose, and several buds well advanced, all of which tells the distant reader the kind of weather this section of Ontario has been enjoying within five weeks of Christmas.

United Anniversary Profitable Time

Rev. Dr. Walter Brown, chancellor of Victoria College, Toronto, preached the anniversary sermons at Stouffville United Church last Sunday, to large congregations both morning and evening. As was to be expected Dr. Brown delivered two deeply inspired addresses. Mrs. Laidlaw, wife of a former pastor of this church, assisted the choir, and besides duet numbers with Mr. Carl Boadway, she rendered a solo in the evening. Mrs. Laidlaw's charming voice is as delightful as ever, both her solo and duet numbers with Mr. Boadway were an inspiration. Mr. Boadway too who gives liberally of his talent is always appreciated.

Scholars, are You Listening

To the man who mapped out the school calendar for 1942, the scholars are ready to give three cheers and a tiger. The school year ends on June 26, 1942, and is revealed to be the shortest possible under present regulations. The first "break" comes with Christmas on Thursday. Because of this the holiday period commences December 20th, the last Friday before Christmas Day. New Year's falling on Thursday also, gives the pupils a holiday until January 5th. The Easter vacation is the same length as last year—April 3 to April 12th. Deprived of a holiday this year with May 24th on a Saturday, school children next year will have a holiday on May 25th, the commemoration of the day which in 1942 is on a Sunday. The summer vacation will be from June 27th to September 7th, inclusive. This term youngsters returned September 2nd. So you see, the man who puts the date on the calendar gave a holiday at every opportunity.

Card and letter received by the Local Comfort Fund, Oct. 6th, 1941.

Dear Comrades:

Many thanks for the cigarettes. They are the best gift one can receive in this country at present. There is little happening here just now, and only the odd raid along the coast, but never inland.

We are having wonderful weather for this time of year with little rain and bright sunny days. Many thanks again, I remain, yours truly,
Sergt. Morley Pugh.

October 8, 1941

Hello Fellows,

Received your most welcome parcel of smokes last week, and were they ever appreciated. I didn't think the day would ever come when I would really hunger for smoke. But I sure know what it is to be without them now. I don't think there is anything that friends at home can do to help we soldiers than to send them over.

I had the chance of spending the past weekend with Morley. Only wish I could get in his unit. However I guess I will have to remain where I am for a while anyway.

I am stationed at a camp well remembered by a lot of you old Vets., and I am quite comfortable. Our food is some better than it was, but still far from good old Canadian meals.

Guess I must close for now, again thanking you for your contribution. Please remember me to all the rest of the boys and anyone else who is helping us in our effort.

Thanks a million
Pte. Price Pugh.

Mr. Wallace Wright spent the weekend with relatives in Kitchener.

Mr. and Mrs. Flavin Reesor of Cedar Grove, visited at Leslie Rowbotham's on Sunday.

You will be missed if you fail to attend the Victory Tea to raise Red Cross funds at the home of Miss Gertrude Todd this Thursday afternoon.

Although extra chilly winds blow over the weekend, the weather became so mild again on Tuesday that carpenters shingled a house occupied by Mervyn Lehman and owned by Mrs. A. S. Collins on Main street east.
