SAPPER LOSES PRINCESS

Sapper Henry Norrington of Toronto isn't going to marry his Russian princess. She says it's because he hasn't a commission and her parents say "we did not believe he was the man for our daughter." The London Sunday Pictorial says Sapper Norrington is a lucky man, commenting: "Hard luck, Mr. Norrington, although we can't help feeling you're darned lucky to get rid of your princess if she really believes that a common private would disgrace her. She's certainly disgraced every Russian woman now engaged in the struggle for 'life and death against the common enemy.'"
