

RED CROSS NOTES

BLANKET FUND

Previously acknowledged .. $5.00
 Lemonville War Workers .. 10.00
 Total to date $95.00

Send The Tribune to absent friends.

EPIDEMIC THIS WINTER

The American Public Health Association was told last week at Atlantic City that "a rapid and widespread" flu epidemic, similar to that of 1918 will sweep North America this winter. Well, beyond making speeches, what is the American Health Association doing about it?

Vandorf

Mr. Percy Allin is serving as a jurymen, in Toronto.
 A number are confined to their homes with bad colds. We hope they will feel better soon.
 A good crowd turned out to hear Rev. Mr. Shannon, of Queensville. Our choir chose Christmas selections. Next Sunday will be the Christmas Sunday and also the White Gift service combined. The gifts will be sent to the Fred Victor Mission.

Lemonville

Warren Stewart who lived here with his aunt, the late Mrs. Macklem Cook for a number of years is now living with his father, A. E. Stewart, K.C., in Prince Albert, Sask. where Warren is attending High School. Mr. Duncan Stewart, an older brother, who is now with the R.C.A.F. is spending the Christmas holidays with his father and brother in the West. Duncan also attended school here.

GOODWOOD WAR WORKERS

The Willing War Workers wish to report their last shipment of goods to the Salvation Army Headquarters: 25 quilts, 1 pair blankets, 17 girls dresses, 8 boys suits, 12 girls slips, 4 pair bloomers, 3 pairs sleepers, 2 vests, sweater, 3 pairs hose, 1 pair gloves, also braces and other things including a large box of used clothing such as heavy winter coats, dresses and mens overcoats.
 They also wish to acknowledge, all donations received from Fifth Line, Siloam and Roseville. This was made up of quilts, blankets, dresses, infants clothing and knitted goods. They, too wish to mention and thank the Baptist Ladies Aid for the box of warm childrens clothing, 2 quilts, all new and Mrs. Baldwin's Sunday School Class for their lovely quilt.
 Thanks too, to Mrs. Robert Hope and Ruth for 2 quilts complete, to Mrs. Bentley of your concession for one quilt, also quilt tops, and to Greta Hatley of Toronto. Thanks for donation of patches enough to make 12 quilt tops. There may be other things that have not received separate mention. If so, the committees wish the donors to accept thanks.
 Boxes for our soldier boys will be packed at Mrs. John Ashenhursts home on Monday, December 15. Donations of candy, cake, etc. will be gratefully accepted. The work must go on.

TORONTO Goodwood FLASHES

Walter Davey
 8 Stanton Ave
 Toronto.

Sorry to learn that Mrs. Sam. Lewis is not in the best of health since last July.

Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Lunau of Unionville visited with Sam Irwin's at Island Lake, recently.

We are glad to see Miss Maudie Clark able to be out again after her recent illness.

Mrs. Henderson and Mrs. Haynes attended the funeral of Mrs. Harry Flummerfelt in Toronto.

Glad to hear that Thos. Baston will soon be coming home.

Latest reports from Mr. and Mrs. Fred Woodland are that they are much improved in health.

Please to hear George Stewart and Thomas Baston are on the mend.

Five or six inches of snow at Garibaldi.

Mr. Allan Taylor is working for Ed. Taylor for the winter.

Congratulations to Bert Harper who won a silver dollar at the "Did I say that" programme, in Stouffville.

Mr. Roland Thurwell and Jutt Todd are working at the Pickering Munition Plant.

Mrs. Hackney and daughter Vina called Sunday on Mrs. Mitchell.

For the good of her health Mrs. M. Chesney was out horseback riding the other day.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph White and family were in the city to see Santa Claus.

Our friend Miss S. Collins and two sisters attended the funeral of Mrs. H. Flemmerfelt.

Mrs. John Lee of Stouffville visited the Heyward home at Mount Albert, on Sunday.

Mrs. Walter Symes and Merle spent Sunday with Mr and Mrs. A. Wilson.

Miss Evelyn and Anne Symes spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Jos. Symes.

Mrs. Brown of Montreal has returned to her home after spending a few weeks at her daughter's home, Mrs. Ralph Faulkner.

Goodwood wins the big prize by the Stouffville War Workers, given to the Correspondent, an electric percolator valued at $12.00 was won by Marie Feden, 12-year-old.

Sorry to hear our good friend Mrs. Meyers is not very well. Known so well and beloved by all. We hope she may improve very rapidly.

The Sandford players presented their play "Dora Dean" at Goodwood, on Wednesday evening. The Victory Group gave their play at Zephyr, on Thursday night, Sunderland on Friday, and expect to go to Raglan, on Tuesday. Everywhere they are greeted by good crowds.

Lieutenant William Harris all the way from Newfoundland attended the War Workers Bazaar at Stouffville accompanied by his mother and friend. Mr. Harris returns on Tuesday for active service.

Among the friends attending Mrs. Flummerfelt's funeral were Mrs. W. Henderson, Mrs. Haynes, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Pugh, Mrs. D. Pugh, Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Forsythe, Mrs. Elliott and Mrs. Bewell.

Birthday greetings and Merry Christmas to Alf. Pugh, Stouffville; Grant Drewery, Altona; Bertha Todd, Verna Bunker, Mrs. Kidd, Verna Maye, Audrey Feasby, all of Goodwood and district; William Redman, Sandford; Wayne Redshaw, Claremont; Bobbie Nokes, Glen Major; Mrs. Thomas Hood, Mrs. Garfield Kellington, Whitechurch Twp.; Miss Cora Bewell, Toronto; Mrs. Irvine Lockie, Hamilton; Mrs. Herb. Porter, Toronto.

You will read about the Bazaar at Stouffville elsewhere in this issue, but here are a few points we want to record; The Bazaar opened on behalf of the Stouffville War Workers was called to order by the president Mrs. Lee. Miss Bannerman presided at the piano for the National Anthem.

Flash Correspondent explained the prizes and draws, then Mrs. Davey wife of the scribe congratulated the society on their work. Alice Forsyth sounded the Reveille, and the affair was open.

Residents YORK COUNTY CELEBRATE 50 YEARS MARRIED

Residents of York County and vicinity for the past 75 years, Mr. and Mrs. James White, Agincourt, observed their golden wedding anniversary this week.

A celebration had been planned for the event but due to the recent illness of Mr. White only the immediate family will tend felicitations.

Mr. White was born at Malton in 1862, the son of William White and Elizabeth Young. When only two years old his family moved to Don, Ontario. Before her marriage Mrs. White was Elizabeth Jane Duncan, daughter of Henry Duncan and

Pleasing Gifts For Christmas

CANDY FOR CHRISTMAS

FINE CHOCOLATES	1 lb. box	2 lb. box
"HUNTS" The Better Kind	60c	$1.00
"BETTY ANNS' SPECIAL"	50c	$1.00
"PATTERSON'S FRESH PACK"	50c	$1.00
Gift Boxes from $1.00 to $3.00
Tasty Bulk Chocolates	Special at 35c per lb.

XMAS YULE LOG.	Waterman's
With Face Powder or Perfume	PEN & PENCIL SETS
Both for 69c	A Lasting Gift
	$4.25, $5.00, $8.00 Sets

Suggestions

- Hot Water Bottles
- Brush, Comb and Mirror Sets
- Five Year Diaries
- Bibles
- Heating Pads
- Snapshot Albums
- Autograph Books
- Bill Folds
- Story Books

BACHELOR SHAVING SETS FOR MEN

YARDLEY and ADRIENNE TOILET SETS (Ladies)
 SPECIAL XMAS STATIONARY, Cedar Boxes, etc.

See our Window Displays of Thoughtful Gifts

CHRISTMAS CARDS 5c, 10c, 15c, Variety
 SPECIAL BOX of 12 CARDS for 25c
 CHRISTMAS TINSEL CHORDS DECORATIONS
 Cellophane Wreaths at 10c, 15c, 25c

BOADWAY'S

REXALL STOUFFVILLE DRUG STORE

"Thirst asks nothing more"

The friendliest moment a busy man ever met with is the pause that refreshes with ice-cold "Coca-Cola". So, at this busiest of seasons, you hear the familiar expression "Coca-Cola, please" or that shorter way of saying it, "I'll have a 'Coke.'" Ice-cold "Coca-Cola" is everything your thirst could ask for.

Authorized Bottler of "Coca-Cola" PORT PERRY BOTTLING WORKS - Port Perry Phone: 47.

KEEP UP THAT PRODUCTION — 1 1/2 D
Excellō Laying Mash
 The Mash that gets results — Ask for our Special Price on this well-balanced Mash.

CLEARING — Bread Flour
 Keynote Bread Flour, 98 lbs. $2.45
 2 Bags or more, per 98 lbs. $2.30

Complimentary Draw

With every purchase, no matter how small, you are entitled to place your name in the Christmas basket. The lucky name to be drawn on Christmas Eve will receive a handsome gift basket, now on display in our window, filled with useful articles. Come in any time and make sure you leave your name.

Central Feed Store

Stouffville Phone 277. Ontario

Announcement!

Beatty Bros.

Beg to announce the appointment of Mr. F. Gray, of Stouffville, as their Representative and Agent, for this district. Mr. Gray will quote you on all makes of Washing Machines, new & rebuilt, also on Ironers Vacuum Cleaners, and Floor Polishers.

New Washers from $69.50
 Refinished Washers from $39.50

All makes of washers serviced by factory trained service men.
 Ringer Rolls for every kind of washing machine available.

Call or Telephone F. GRAY
 Standard Garage, Stouffville. Implement Agent.

ATHA

Wedding Bells are again ringing once again.

Mr. and Mrs. G. Wagg from Stouffville were Sunday guests with their daughter, Mrs. Fred Draper.

Mrs. Thomas Dunkeld, spent the weekend with Mrs. John Scott, Claremont.

Mrs. Joe Tran and daughter are spending a few days with her mother Mrs. Silverthorn in Stouffville.

Atha School Christmas Tree, Dec. 22nd. Lucky draw on a quilt. Try your luck.

Mr. and Mrs. Lorne McMullen and family from Stouffville visited on Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Murray Dunkeld.

Mrs. Eli Lehman and Grace attended the Weavever Brush demonstration held at Mrs. Winn's home at Mongolla.

Mrs. William Carruthers, Mary, Jennie, Fred and Harold, had dinner on Friday with Arthur and Mrs. Carruthers.

Mr. and Mrs. Eli Lehman and Miss Grace also Mr. J. Hoover, had Sunday dinner at the home of Mr. and Mrs. S. B. Hoover, Stouffville.

STOUFFVILLE RED CROSS NOTES

We gratefully acknowledge the following: From Bethesda unit, 1 quilt from our materials; 1 knitted afghan donated by members. From Bloomington unit, 3 quilts, one top donated by members. From "Seventh Seven" unit, two quilts, one having been donated by Mrs. Hutchinson. From the Misses Lemon, 2 aprons. —Mrs. Roy Grove

Rachel Maginn, of Don. She was born in 1866. Their marriage took place at her father's farm on the Don Mills Road.

They first farmed at Leaside and later moved to the Dawes and York Mills Road where they farmed for 40 years before they sold their property to the late Frank P. O'Connor.

Mr. and Mrs. White have four sons, William Henry, of Dawes Road; Herbert, Arthur, of Vandorf; James Clarence at home; Shirley Duncan, of Agincourt; and one daughter, Mrs. Harold F. King, Toronto.

MUST BEAT INFLATION

Canada's war effort will be seriously undermined and democracy in the Dominion will in all likelihood collapse, unless inflation is beaten, Donald Gordon, wartime prices and trade board chairman, told Canadian publishers at Ottawa.

For Best Results Ship Your Cream to Us

The best way to keep your meat is in COLD STORAGE — Rent a locker $6.00 per year from the time you rent same.

Stouffville Creamery Co. Phone 18601