Tells of Handling Big Soldiers' Mail

Stouffville's representative with the Postal Corps at Ottawa, Pte. Allen McConnochie has dropped us a little information about the rush of mail that was handled by the C.P.C.

workers during Christmas.

He writes as follows: "In November we handled 1,852 pieces of registered mail, 1,509,280 letters, 2,344,827 pounds of parcels and 156,802 pounds of newsprint material, also 180,029 parcels of tobacco from the sub base in Montreal. In December the total was 1,400 pieces of registered mail, 1,227,000 letters, 144,183 pounds of newsprint, material and 609,123 pounds of parcels, and 189,842 parcels of tobacco.

There were 300 of us working day and night while this volume of mail was being cleared out. We had to repack more than 2,000 parcels which were received with flimsy coverings, so that all the boys could receive their Christmas parcels in good condition."

"There was considerable improvement in the correct addressing of soldier's mail but there's still room for more."

Mr. and Mrs. W. Tranmer spent the weekend at Tranmer's home here

Mr. Ken Graham of Pickering spent Sunday at E. A. Storry's home.

Miss M. Topper was home from Toronto for the weekend.

We regret to hear of the illness of Mrs. A. Law at Lemonville. Mrs. Law was a resident here for a number of years and we hope she may soon be restored to health again.

Mrs. L. Paisley is visiting at Brampton for a time.

Mrs. Murdoch of Winnipeg is visiting her niece Mrs. Watson Fairles.

Mrs. C. Lemon entertained a number of young friends in honour of Helen's birthday on Tuesday. There were five candles adorning the birthday cake. We all join in wishing you many happy birthdays Helen.

The monthly meeting of the W.A. was held at the home of Mrs. E. Baker on Thursday afternoon. Mrs. C. Lemon presided and led in the devotional period. The programme in charge of Mesdames Davis and Tranmer was as follows: Piano selections by Mr. C. Baker, reading, Mrs. M. Barnes, and a true or false Bible contest by Mrs. Lemon. The roll call was answered by each member giving a new year resolution. Greetings from the aid were sent to the older members and all the shut-ins at Christmas time. Recent greetings from Mrs. Bruce Morton of Ottawa was gladly received. The hostess served lunch.

STOUFFVILLE SOME PLACE AND SO IT IS

58 Frank St., Ottawa, Ont.
January 12, 1942.

The Tribune,
Stouffville, Ontario,
Dear Sir:

Enclosed find Postal Note for two ($2.) dollars to pay for The Tribune for another year, for we would be lost without it. It gives most of the news of the town and surrounding country and also the activities of the prominent citizens if they happen to leave for other parts to visit.

Everyone I meet who asks me from what place I came, I at once reply, "Stouffville, where all the Gold Fish are produced which before the war supplied all the British Empire." At once two different expressions pass across the face of the inquirer, the first seems to say "Where is Stouffville?" and the other expression, "My ignorance, it must be quite a place." Then if they don't seem convinced, I add some other interesting remarks such as, "per capita population more business is done in Stouffville than anywhere else in any farming district in Ontario." Since most folks you meet are ignorant of strange places, they get an idea that Stouffville is some place and so it is!

Yours truly,

Bruce Morton

AT BIRTHDAY PARTY OF MILTON FLEURY

Superintendent in the J. Fleury and Sons implement works for a number of years, Milton Fleury, of Mosley street, Aurora, celebrated his 90th birthday.

He was born in 1852 on a farm on the second concession of King Township. His father, Olexander Fleury, was a brother of Joseph Fleury, who founded the implement factory.

In his younger days his favorite pastimes were lawn bowling and hunting, and he still enjoys a good game of bridge. He still retains good health. He is a member of the Anglican Church.

His son, Harry of Toronto, retired manager of the Bank of Montreal, his wife and other relations joined in the family celebrations at the home.

FUNERAL OF JOHN JENNINGS LARGELY ATTENDED

The funeral of John Jennings, held from Temperanceville United Church on Saturday, January 3rd, was largely attended. Mr. Jennings, who died on New Year's day, was ill only a few hours, and his passing was a shock to the neighbourhood.

Born on the Isle of Wight, Mr. Jennings came with his parents to Canada when five years of age, settling first at Clearview, near Stayner in the Township of Sunnidale moving 13 years later to Manitoulin Island. He came to Temperanceville with his family, some 22 years ago, where he has been a successful farmer in King Township.

Forty-eight years ago he, married Margaret Coumts, of Manitoulin Island, who with three daughters and three sons survive. Mrs. Bert Andrews, Oak Ridges; Mabel, R.N., at the Toronto General Hospital; Mrs. Alvin Wideman, Markham; Raymond Temperanceville; Wilbert on the home farm and Wallace, Toronto. There are also three sisters and one brother. —Aurora Banner

Melville

The Annual Congregational meeting of the Melville United Church will be held on Monday next, January 19, at 8 p.m.

The Melville W. M. S. will hold their regular meeting on Wednesday afternoon, January 21, at the home of Mrs. Nigh.

The Melville Sunday School held their annual meeting last week at the home of Mrs. M. Houck with a good attendance of officers and teachers. Mr. E. Nigh was re-elected superintendent; Mr. A. W. King, Assistant Supt; Mrs. Stanley Powell, Secretary-Treasurer. The Sunday School made good progress during the past year and we hope for an even better one in 1942.

A pretty wedding was solemnized at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ross McKay on Wednesday evening last, January 7, when Muriel Margy, third daughter of Mrs. A. Arsenault and the late Mr. Arsenault, was united in marriage to Private Jack Wyness, C.A.C. (A) T.C. of Camp Borden, son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Wyness of Agincourt. The bride, adorned in a dress of white rayon sheer, with accessories to match, was given in marriage by Corporal Wilfred Arsenault, of Toronto and the bridesmaid was the bride's sister, Donna, who wore a dress of pink taffeta with matching accessories. The groomsmen was Sergeant Jack Score, A.S.C. of Toronto. The ceremony was conducted by the Rev. A. J. Orr, of the United Church and Mrs. A. Gillies of Toronto played the wedding march. After the ceremony a buffet lunch was served to the many relatives and friends who had gathered to wish the happy couple their greetings for future happiness and prosperity.

Led the Quebec Unit

Green River

Sergt and Mrs. W. Bailey are at the Park.

The ladies' aid will meet at Mrs. Wilson's, on January 28. Word for roll call, King. Mrs. Fred Beare will take the topic.

Everyone will be at the skating party at Cedarena, on the 15th for Home Missions Girls, we hope.

Have your best shoes shined for the euche and dance at Grey's Hall, on January 21. War Workers Special Evening.

Tr. George White, Billy Moore, R.C.A.F., Doug. Barefoot, R.C.O.C., were weekend visitors at their relatives here.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Carter's party in aid of Green River War Workers on Friday evening, was a huge success. Many thanks to all who helped. Mr. and Mrs. T. Williams are having the party on this Friday night. Do come.

Third Line Uxbridge

Mr. Robert Dawson spent the weekend with his parents Mr. and Mrs. Tom. Dawson.

Mr. and Mrs. Baldwin, George and Kathleen, spent Monday in the city.

Most of our community stayed home this week and kept fires burning. Mrs. Cecil Latham even burned their chimney out. The fire caused no damage.

Our deepest sympathy is extended to Mr. Ralph Faulkner and family in their recent bereavement. We have lost a good neighbor and friend.

Mr. Lou Tindall and Reuben Tindall spent Wednesday evening at Baldwin's. Are the checker fans going to start again?
