

OUR WEEKLY Specials Save You MONEY

ASPARAGUS CUTTINGS (12 oz. tins) 12c
 AYLMER BABY LIMA BEANS (16 oz. tins) 2 for 23c
 CHOICE PUMPKIN (28 oz. tins) 2 for 25c

APPLE and RASPBERRY
JAM 4 lb. tin 47c

LIBBY'S PORK & BEANS (20 oz. tins) 2 for 17c
 CHOICE PIE CHERRIES (12 oz. tins) 17c
 HILLCREST SODAS (16 oz. pkgs.) 2 for 25c
 (plain or salted)
 WESTON'S GRAHAM WAFERS (7 oz. pkgs.) 15c

SPOTLITE 5-string
BROOMS each 59c

HILLCREST SOAP FLAKES 3 lb. pkg. 29c
 PEP HAND CLEANER tin 10c
 HAND SOAP (good quality, assorted) per bar 5c
 GIBSON'S FACE TISSUES 400's pkg. 25c

SEE OUR DISPLAY OF EASTER CANDY

Stouffville Groceteria
 Self Serve Phone 280 We Deliver

Dickson's Hill
 Mr. Ward Hallman has tapped a few maple trees this spring.
 Mrs. Harvey Myer spent the weekend with her uncle Mr. Risebrough, of Toronto.
 Mr. and Mrs. C. A. McDowell had dinner with Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Barkey on Sunday.
 The pastor, Mr. P. G. Lehman had dinner with Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Wideman on Sunday.
 A good day, a large crowd, and high prices were combined making the cattle sale of Mr. Wm. Redshaw a success last Monday.
 There have been numerous callers in the community this week. Besides the salvage collectors, and a few neighbourly visits, Mr. Forester, the assessor has made his annual round, also Mr. Wm. Grove who is the salesman and distributor for Glover's Seeds has been calling on the vegetable growers. He has been appointed salesman for the Fuller Brush Co. in this district.

Lemonville
 Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Reaman's family were visiting Mr. and Mrs. Walter Tilley of Gormley Sunday afternoon.
 Miss Jean Reaman was visiting with her friend Miss Lenore Spence last Wednesday.
 Miss Blanche Preston arrived home Friday evening after enjoying her holiday at Port Loring.
 Mr. Jim Rae and Mr. Kenneth Harper were home for the weekend.
 We are very sorry to report that a number from our midst have been home, sick with flu. Among them are, Doreen Rae, Harvey and Nell Tate, Keith Martin and Joan Gilroy. We wish them all a speedy recovery.
 Mrs. Luella Baker of Lansing, spent last week with her brother Mr. and Mrs. George Martin.
 Mr. George Martin has been confined to the house with a kidney ailment, also Master Keith is confined to the house with the flu.
 Mr. Joseph Martin of Church Hill called on his brother Geo. on Saturday.

Russel Kirby, Lemonville hockey fan was in attendance at Maple Leaf Gardens Saturday night for the hockey battle between Toronto Maple Leafs and Boston Bruins.
 Mr. and Mrs. Charles Preston of Lemonville celebrated their 35th wedding anniversary on Friday evening at their home. Among the twenty some guests were Mr. and Mrs. G. Mackey of Vandorf, who were groom and bridesmaid at the wedding. The evening was spent in playing games. The couple received congratulations and lovely gifts.
 Donald Pickering and Gordon Morrison.
 We extend sympathy to Mr. and Mrs. Roy Boyington in the death of their only child, 3-year-old Dorothy who died at the Sick Children's hospital, Toronto, on Friday.

Bethesda
 Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Staley of Brampton visited friends here on Sunday.
 The Yake families and Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Wideman and family attended the Yake-Wright nuptials in Mount Joy on Saturday.
 The W.M.S. Easter meeting will be held next Wednesday, April 1st.
 The Y.P.U. will hold an Easter service in the church next Tuesday evening.
 Mr. and Mrs. Jack Clubine of Gormley visited with her parents Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Steckley on Sunday.
 Mr. Charles Atkinson had a unique experience on Tuesday when he saw a flock of wild geese light in his fields.
 A break in the weather has started the sap running, and the Atkinson farms each have several hundred trees tapped.
 Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Bowman of New York and Mrs. Emmerson Bowman of British Columbia have been recent visitors with their sister, Mrs. Isaac Pike. The latter Mr. Bowman attended school here in his younger days and this is his first trip back to the home site in 34 years.

Ringwood
 The Helping Hands held their open meeting at Rev. Gibson Brown's last Thursday evening.
 Miss Patricia Skinner entertained six little friends at a birthday party last Thursday afternoon.
 Gordon Fockler has purchased a well-drilling outfit.
 We are glad to see Dr. Mitchell out again following his recent illness.
 The Ringwood creek rose so high last week after the deluge of rain that cellars were flooded, and one of them had 8,000 gallons pumped out. No damage was reported.
 We are glad to report that T. Grove was able to return home from the General Hospital last Friday where he had been the last two weeks following an emergency operation. We hope to soon see him out again.

2nd Line Uxbridge
 Mr. and Mrs. Les Mitchell spent Sunday at the Jos. Cooper home.
 Mr. and Mrs. Albert Taylor and Dick and Darlene, motored over to Oshawa on Saturday.
 The many friends of this section are sorry to lose the Brethour family from our midst. Our best wishes go with them.
 Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Taylor accompanied by Mrs. Tindal and Mrs. Hope motored to Belleville on Saturday to visit their daughter Miss Marjorie Taylor who is attending school there.
 About 70 people (young and old), spent a jolly Friday night, when the young fry, and the older folk divided up, the younger set going on to Art. Dowsell's. The evening was spent in playing games and contests. A delightful lunch was served at the close of both gatherings which ended a very enjoyable evening.
 Salvage Campaign
 We're on a Salvage Campaign,
 To Help lick the Hun,
 And with your help and carefulness
 Sure victory will be won.
 Do not waste a thing dear neighbors,
 Save each tiny little scrap.
 It will help our fighting forces,
 To lick those yellow Japs.
 Rags, bones and bottles,
 Precious metal, do not waste,
 Rubble too, is most essential.
 All these things will victory haste.
 Empty tins, and cardboard boxes,
 Also all waste paper, too,
 Just dig in and help, you'll be surprised,
 What one can do.
 Don't forget to save your meat bones
 And any fats you can spare,
 And with all this done by everyone,
 Hitler will sure die of despair.

8th Line Markham
 Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Burkholder and family of Cedar Grove had Sunday dinner with Mr. and Mrs. Walter Byer.
 Miss Alta Zellers and Mr. Ray Bibby spent Sunday at the home of his sister, Mrs. James White.
 Mr. and Mrs. Russell Pike and daughter Marie of Singhampton, also Mr. and Mrs. Louis Pipher of New Dundee visited with Mrs. Frank Pipher of this line.
 Mrs. D. Ramer of Mount Joy has returned to her home after spending the winter with friends in Vineland.
 Mrs. Fairburn of Keswick is spending a few days with her sister Mrs. J. Kirk.
 Mr. and Mrs. Fred Fretz, Mr. Jno. and Miss Pauline Fretz, all of Kitchener, spent the weekend with Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Fretz.
 Miss Clodd who has been confined to her home for some time through illness, we are pleased to report, is feeling much better.
 Mrs. Quantz of Ringwood and Mrs. Edw. Forsyth and Miss Margaret Forsyth of Stouffville visited with Mr. and Mrs. Harry Spang on Tuesday.
 Friends to the number of about a hundred gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Wideman on Thursday evening of last week to congratulate the newlyweds, Mr. and Mrs. George Yake (nee Constance Wright of North Markham), and tendered them a miscellaneous shower. Mr. and Mrs. Yake were married on Saturday afternoon at the home of the bride's parents. We join with the many friends in wishing them much happiness.

Only 10 days to
EASTER
 GET YOUR SPRING OUTFITS NOW!
 We have a garment to suit every member of the family

The very latest in Ladies' Young Girls' and Childrens' Coats, in Reversible, English Tweeds, Boucle's Worsted and Tricotines. Also smartly tailored Ladies' Suits.

Just received a shipment of Men's, Young Men's and Boys' Suits. Come in and look them over.

Ladies' Silk Dresses — Printed or Solid Shades, all sizes.

We are well supplied with the accessories to match your spring outfits, such as Hats, Handbags, Gloves, and Silk Hose in all new shades.

Buy early and get your choice.

The Golden Store
 Phone 273 Stouffville, Ont.

Victoria Square
 An executive meeting of the J.F.A. was held at the home of the president, Alvin Caseley, on Monday night to plan their programs for three months.
 We are glad to hear little George Collard, youngest son of Mr. Harvey Collard is progressing favorably after having had pneumonia.
 There was a good attendance at the Y.P.U. meeting on Sunday evening. Readings were given by Harold and Doreen Klinck. Scripture by Margaret Avison and topic by Marion Smith.
 The W.A. are holding a pot-luck supper in the basement of the church this Friday evening. Plan to be there.
 The J.F.A. are having a social nite in the community hall this Friday evening, March 27th.
 Mr. and Mrs. Harold Wellman of Toronto visited at the home of the later's parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. Avison on Sunday. Misses Viola and Ruby Avison were also home over the weekend.
 Quite a number of ladies turned out on Wednesday for the war work and regular W.A. meeting held in the work room. Those present enjoyed the talk by Mrs. (Dr.) Wilson of Richmond Hill. The devotional part of the program was taken by Mrs. Marcus Jarvis.
 The committee of J.W.I. have decided to have the draw made for the rugs at the next joint meeting on Tuesday, April 7th. The rugs have been on display in each of the two stores. All girls selling tickets, must have the stubs and money turned in to Mrs. Marcus Jarvis or Marion Boston before that date.

 The community was shocked this week to hear of the passing of two of its highly respected citizens, namely, Rev. McCausland and Mrs. Frank Nichols. Rev. McCausland passed away on Thursday evening in his 64th year. The funeral was held from his late residence on Saturday afternoon. The interment took place in Victoria Square Cemetery, followed by service in the United Church here. Two ministers who had known the deceased, assisted Rev. McKay in the service. Pallbearers were: Mr. E. Avison, Mr. L. Nichols, Mr. Ross Nichols, Mr. J. Smith, Mr. J. Forsan and Mr. H. Collard. Left to mourn his loss, are his wife and one daughter, Iris, a nurse at Montreal, and one son, Lieut. Bruce McCausland, now overseas.
 The funeral of the late Mrs. F. Nicholls took place on Sunday, and was a largely attended funeral. A short service was held at the house, followed by service in the church. Mrs. Nicholls was in her 79th year, and had spent all her life in or near this community. Left to mourn her loss, are, one daughter, Mrs. Ratcliff, and two sons, L. L. Nicholls and Ross Nicholls also three sisters Mrs. M. Perkins, Mrs. B. Sanderson and Mrs. Ralph Boynton. Bishop Winger of Gormley assisted Rev. McKay in the service. The pallbearers were: Messrs. Ralph Perkins, Lorne Perkins, Clare Sanderson,

CREAM PRICES
 As reported by the Stouffville Creamery are 36c on trucks and 39c delivered at the creamery for first grade.
 Farmers will not go short on their binder twine requirements to harvest the 1942 crop, but will have to use other types of rope than manila for other farm uses, as result of restrictions which have been placed on the sale of manila fibre, which largely across the Pacific

Altona
 A number from here attended the miscellaneous shower for Mr. and Mrs. N. Spang on Tuesday evening last.
 The W. I. held a quilting for war work at the home of Mrs. D. Crosier on Thursday last.
 Mr. and Mrs. Allan Myers and Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Lehman spent last Thursday with Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Raymer and Mr. and Mrs. Harold Kennedy of Colborne.
 The Claremont and Pickering Red Cross wish to sincerely thank the Willing Workers class, The Happy Helpers class and the Twinkling Star class for their numerous donations and work during the year. It is all appreciated so much, and we regret through some error, it was omitted from the press a few weeks ago.

Green River
 Mr. and Mrs. W. I. Smith, Joe Mertens and Miss Marjery were guests here on Tuesday with Mr. and Mrs. Alf. Hoover.
 Mesdames Shank, Milne, Forsythe and G. Lehman helped Mrs. Williams with a quilt and stayed to tea recently.
 Mesdames Percy, Beckett, Donnelly, B. Lehman, Nighswander, Greenlee, Brooks, Miss Wilson and Miss Hutchings were recently helping Mrs. Draper with a quilt and stayed to tea.
 Miss Lois Turner was home from Toronto for the weekend. Lois is looking forward to the pleasure of a trip to Montreal next week to visit her friends, Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Holland (nee Marion McKay)
 The Ladies Aid met at the church on Wednesday afternoon with guests from Whitevale Baptist, Whitevale United and Whitby Baptist churches. Mrs. (Rev.) Elmer Green of Whitby was the guest speaker. The program was given by the Whitevale ladies and much enjoyed. Refreshments brought the afternoon to a close.
 A happy time was had at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Francis Turner on Saturday evening when the neighbors and friends of Mr. and Mrs. Sherman Arnold honored them with a presentation of a "comforter". Mr. and Mrs. Arnold are moving soon to the 8th of Pickering from the 7th and we hope to still see them very frequently. Both Mr. Arnold and his lovely wife spoke very well of their Green River friends and thanked them for the gift and expressed gratitude also for the kindness of Mr. and Mrs. Turner in opening their home for this occasion of happiness.
 Miss Margot Wilson entertained a few neighbors on Thursday evening to say farewell to the Greenlee family who have moved to the Grand Valley district. Mr. and Mrs. Greenlee came to Green River a few months ago and have made many sincere friendships in the short time. The evening was spent in games and music. After Mrs. Greenlee had opened her gifts she thanked everyone and hoped they would all come to see them real soon. Miss Wilson and her niece Mrs. Sergt. Walter Bailey of Vancouver, served a dainty lunch.

Vandorf
 We wish to announce a play by the W. I. of Vandorf, entitled "Mother Talks Business," by a Woodbridge group on Friday evening March 27. Proceeds for Red Cross work.
 Miss Jean Switzer spent Sunday at her home here.
 Mr. Art Starr was among his Wesley friends on Sunday.
 Mr. and Mrs. Herb. Hisey and Barbara of Ringwood were Thursday callers on Mrs. Russel Sproston.
 Miss Grace McDonald of Toronto, spent the weekend with her sister and father, Mr. W. McDonald.
 On Tuesday evening Sharon and Barbara of Ringwood were Thursday callers on Mrs. Russel Sproston.
 Misses Elda Parr and Jean White rendered a lovely duet at Sunday School. Next Sunday a male quartette is expected to supply the music.
 In the absence of our organist Mr. George E. Richardson, Mr. Grant Morley played Sunday morning.

Almira
 Wedding bells are ringing in Almira.
 Mr. Bruce Lehman of Delhi also Miss Ann Reath of Woodstock spent the weekend with Mr. and Mrs. W. Lehman.
 Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Brown of Raven shoe had supper with Mr. and Mrs. Donald Jarvis on Tuesday evening.
 Mrs. John Wagg spent Saturday with Mr. and Mrs. Willis Lehman.
 Mr. Woods of Markham has been secured to direct our choir in preparing Easter music. He will be with us on Easter Sunday too.
 The United Church W.M.S. met at the Manse on Thursday afternoon last with a fair attendance of members and visitors. The President, Mrs. W. McKay conducted the meeting and plans were made for a more active campaign for the work during the summer months. At the close of the meeting lunch was served by the hostess, Mrs. A. J. Orr.

Send The Tribune to absent friends.

Auction Sale
 HORSES, CATTLE, IMPLEMENTS property of
 BEATT HOPKINS
 LOT 30, CON. 10, MARKHAM
 on
Tues., Mar. 31
 HORSE
 1 Bay Gelding, aged
 CATTLE
 Black Jersey, due at time of sale
 Black and White, due time of sale
 Red Cow, milking
 Brindle, milking
 Yearling Heifer
 Swine and Sheep
 Six breeding Ewes
 One yearling Lamb
 Two Brood Sows, due in April
 Six Shouts
 Boar, year and a half old
 IMPLEMENTS
 Dearing Binder, six foot cut
 Horse Rake
 Set Harrows, 4 section
 Hay Rack Wagon
 Set of Trucks
 Two Vinegar Barrels
 Two Buggies
 Two Neckyokes 2 Set Double Trees
 Four Wagon Wheels Set of Slighs
 Set of Team Harness with bridle
 Other articles too numerous to mention.
 A. S. FARMER, Auctioneer
 Sale at 1.30 p.m.

Forward!

MARCH!
 MEAT VALUES
 ON PARADE

Ace Coffee 1b. tin 49c
Economie Soap Flakes large size 33c
Back Bacon PEAMEALED 1b. 45c
Prime Rib Rolled 1b. 28c
Porterhouse Roast 1b. 30c

HILLCREST Shortening 1b. 18c
MILD CHEESE 1b. 35c
OLD CHEESE 1b. 45c

Rib Boil 1b. 14c
Chuck Roast 1b. 20c
Sirloin Steak 1b. 29c
Brisket Points 1b. 13c

Hind Quarter Beef 1b. 19c
Front Quarter Beef 1b. 17c

Pot Roast Beef per lb. 17c
Round Steak 1b. 27c
Hamburg 1b. 15c

HOME RENDERED
LARD 1b. 17c

SMALL
Pork Sausage per lb. 23c

O'Boyle Meat Market
 PHONE 3501 STOUFFVILLE