Four members of the Student Forward Movement of Toronto University conducted a three-day mission among the young people of Lemonville church. Meetings were held each evening from Friday to Sunday, with the young people having supper Saturday evening in the church basement. It would be hard to find a more lively group of college students so earnest in their desire for deeper religious experience among young people, and their efforts here were well worth while. They stressed the need for more prayer, and discussion of problems confronting the Christian youth of today. The church service on Sunday afternoon was conducted by the minister and the visiting friends. It is the purpose of this and other similar groups to spend the next six months endeavouring to strengthen the spiritual and social life of young people's societies throughout Ontario.

BRING YOUR QUESTIONS TO A SUNDAY EVENING SERVICE

Special evening service at 2nd Markham Baptist Church on Sunday, April 12, at 7.30. Young people especially welcome. Bright cheerful singing. Questions invited and answered. Place your query in the question box. Timely talks on what can a young person believe. COME.

CHILD ANTICS PRESENT A PROBLEM

Just as we were about to type a few lines concerning a complaint against the action of children breaking windows in a vacant property opposite the Presbyterian church, another complaint came in against youngsters breaking windows in the Taun property in the westend. The same afternoon a business man drops in to ask us what could be done to keep youngsters from parking their toys on the sidewalks right in front of stores where people fall over them watching the smartly dressed windows instead of watching their step. These are not problems for the press to solve, but we are glad to pass them on to the town "engineers" to deal with.

Claremont
