MRS. SUSAN AUSTIN ASH

Funeral service for Mrs. Susan Austin Ash who died at the residence of her daughter Mrs. Elma Forrester, 97 Millwood Road, Toronto, on Tuesday, May 7, was held at St. Phillip's Anglican Church, Unionville, on Sunday afternoon, with Rev. J. J. Robbins, former Rector of the church conducting the service.

Mrs. Ash, who was the widow of Richard Ash who pre-deceased her many years was born at Unionville, in the year 1866, being in her 77th year. She lived there continuously until 1938, when she went to live with her daughter in Toronto.

She and her husband were active members of St. Phillip's Church, and much respected residents of this community.

Following the service the funeral proceeded to St. Phillip's Cemetery for burial, the pall-bearers being: Messrs. Joseph Bond, Charles Maynard, E. Kirk, Everett Harper, Howard Findlay and R. Stiver, all of Unionville.

Surviving are two daughters, Mrs. J. Calvert, Gormley R.R., Mrs. E. Forrester, Toronto, and four sons, John of Sharon; James of Toronto; Frank, of Timmins; and Harold of Chicago, and one sister Miss Elizabeth Austin, of Toronto.

HIS 91st BIRTHDAY

Mr. Harmon Yake, a regular customer in town once or twice a week will celebrate his 91st birthday on Saturday this week. We understand the family will gather at the home farm east of town to mark the event, as has been their custom since he was 80 years of age. Only recently his life partner passed away so the affair will have a tinge of sadness as the long chain of life has been broken. No matter the kind of weather Mr. Yake never fails to come to town on Saturday night.

Claremont

Miss Stella Rolling was a Sunday visitor with her parents at Mount Albert.

Rev. Daniels, wife and family of Toronto were visitors at the local Baptist parsonage during this week.

A mixed doubles bowling tournament will be held on the local greens on May 24th, beginning at 1.30 p.m. Supper will be served.

Mr. Albert Mantle of Claremont, accompanied by his daughter Mrs. Woodburn of Stouffville were in London last weekend visiting with Mr. Mantle's sister, Mrs. Broughton and his brother Frank Mantle at Dutton, who is confined to his bed.
