ABE LEHMAN CLASHES WITH TWP. CONSTABLE

Abe Lehman, trucker, and Constable Auston Yake for Whitchurch, had a minor run-in on Monday morning. The encounter occurred at the corner of Main and Montreal streets. Both the Lehman truck and the Yake car were travelling east on Main when the truck made a sudden swing to enter Montreal street. The cop admits that the trucker held out his hand but he didn't get it out soon enough for him to stop, especially when Yake intended passing the truck at this point. As a result, the car was crushed against the north curb, smashing one wheel right off the axle and damaging one fender badly. The truck came out almost without a scratch and its driver got out whistling "Annie Rooney" to indicate that no mere accident like this could ruffle his nerves. Yake's car had to be taken away by a tow truck.
